The Cambridge Companion to Aphra Behn Derek Hughes, Janet Todd, 2004-11-25 Traditionally known as the first professional woman writer in English Aphra Behn has now emerged as one of the major figures of the Restoration She provided more plays for the stage than any other author and greatly influenced the development of the novel with her ground breaking fiction especially Love Letters between a Nobleman and his Sister and Oroonoko the first English novel set in America Behn s work straddles the genres beside drama and fiction she also excelled in poetry and she made several important translations from French libertine and scientific works This Companion discusses and introduces her writings in all these fields and provides the critical tools with which to judge their aesthetic and historical importance It also includes a full bibliography a detailed chronology and a description of the known facts of her life The Companion will be an essential tool for the study of this increasingly important writer and thinker The Works of Aphra Behn: v. 1: Poetry Janet

Restoration comedy What pleasure does it offer its audience and what significance does it find in exploring that pleasure Edward Burns here provides a new account of the origins and nature of Restoration comedy as a distinct genre The book enlarges the usual focus with a wider range of writers than the conventional ossified canon taking in a revaluation of many rarely studied dramatists a reconsideration of pastoral and the instatement of women writers as major contributors to the culture of the age It offers a substantial and original interpretation of one of the most intriguing of seventeenth century literature forms Novel Minds R. Tierney-Hynes, 2015-12-11 Eighteenth century philosophy owes much to the early novel

Using the figure of the romance reader this book tells a new story of eighteenth century reading The impressionable mind and mutable identity of the romance reader haunt eighteenth century definitions of the self and the seductions of fiction insist on making an appearance in philosophy Unmaking Mimesis Elin Diamond, 2003-09-02 Through a series of provocative readings of theatre theory and feminist performance Diamond demonstrates the continuing force of feminism and mimesis in critical thinking today
