Tithing And Still Broke Exploring The Reasons Christians Suffer Lack:

Tithing and Still Broke Niral Russell Burnett, 2002-03 Tithing and Still Broke answers the most pressing questions concerning the reason why Christians suffer lack This life changing book will open your eyes to a new way of looking at God's desire for how we should live Care-giving in Dementia Gemma M. M. Jones, 2006 Care Giving in Dementia makes state of the art research accessible and relevant for professional care givers helping them to enhance their practice and educate others Word Made Global Mark R. Gornik, 2011-07-22 A groundbreaking work of ethnography urban studies and theology Mark Gornik's Word Made Global explores the recent development of African Christianity in New York City Drawing especially on ten years of intensive research into three very different African immigrant churches Gornik sheds light on the pastoral spiritual and missional dynamics of this exciting global transnational Christian movement Christian Advocate, 1906 The Christian's Penny Magazine, 1832 Gleanings in Bee Culture, 1899 The Christian, 1870

Christian Science Sentinel, 1898 The Cambridge Companion to the African American Slave Narrative Audrey Fisch, 2007-05-31 The slave narrative has become a crucial genre within African American literary studies and an invaluable record of the experience and history of slavery in the United States This Companion examines the slave narrative's relation to British and American abolitionism Anglo American literary traditions such as autobiography and sentimental literature and the larger African American literary tradition Special attention is paid to leading exponents of the genre such as Olaudah Equiano Frederick Douglass and Harriet Jacobs as well as many other less well known examples Further essays explore the rediscovery of the slave narrative and its subsequent critical reception as well as the uses to which the genre is put by modern authors such as Toni Morrison With its chronology and guide to further reading the Companion provides both an easy entry point for students new to the subject and comprehensive coverage and original insights for scholars in the field

The Christian Union, 1887 The Christian Union Henry Ward Beecher, 1878 Pacific Christian Advocate, 1900

The Christian Advocate, 1927 The New Christianity, 1901 Introducing James H. Cone Anthony G. Reddie, 2022-07-31 It is rarely the case that an intellectual movement can point to an individual figure as its founder Yet James Cone has been heralded as the acknowledged genius and the creator of black theology In nearly 50 years of published work James Cone redefined the intent of academic theology and defined a whole new movement in intellectual thought In Introducing James H Cone Anthony Reddie offers us an accessible and engaging assessment of Cone's legacy from his first book Black Theology and Black Power in 1969 through to his final intellectual autobiography I Said I wasn't Gonna Tell Nobody in 2018 It is an indispensable field guide to perhaps the greatest black theologian of recent times Through a Lens Darkly Marjorie Hewitt Suchocki, 2015-01-16 What if we ask questions concerning sin and redemption outside of the religious or theological milieu After all sin functions something like religious code language for that which is problematic in human existence But all humans deal with our fragility and our penchant for harming ourselves or others and all humans seek to resolve these issues Might the religious community learn from those outside our gates Accordingly in this book a theologian seeks to gain insight from the way seven outstanding filmmakers of our time set up the problems of human existence and seek to resolve them over a series of their films Explore with her how Clint Eastwood Woody Allen Spike Lee the Coen brothers John Sayles Ang Lee and Terrence Malick define human problems and explore resolutions mark the overlap with Christianity but more importantly ponder the contrasts You ll never watch films the same way again The Eucharist and World Hunger Izunna Okonkwo,2011-12-21 Hunger is a menace in different parts of the globe It has more unnatural than natural causes Though efforts have been made towards alleviating its causes and consequences more actions still need to be taken for its genuine alleviation and eventual eradication in the world For Joseph Grassi painful hunger is a daily occurrence that must be countered by ongoing effective programs that enter into the lives of every Christian Such position not only recognises the frequency and excruciating nature of hunger but also suggests that Christians and other religious groups have a very important role to play in order to eradicate hunger and its devastating effects This book explores the nuances of hunger its causes dimensions and approaches as well as its connection to the Eucharist It argues that hunger can be eradicated and that the Eucharist stands out as a veritable model Black Suffering James Henry Harris,2020-10-06 In Black Suffering James Henry Harris explores the nexus of injustices privations and pains that contribute to the daily suffering seen and felt in the lives of Black folks This suffering is so normalized in American life that it often goes unnoticed unseen and even more often purposely ignored The reality of Black suffering is both omnipresent and complicated both a reaction to and a result of the reality of white supremacy its psychological and historical legacy and its many insidious and fractured expressions within contemporary culture Because Black suffering is so wholly disregarded it must be named discussed and analyzed Black Suffering articulates suffering as an everyday reality of Black life Harris names suffering s many manifestations both in history and in the present moment and provides a unique portrait of the ways Black suffering has been understood by others Drawing on decades of personal experience as a pastor theologian and educator Harris gives voice to suffering s practical impact on church leaders as they seek to forge a path forward to address this huge and troubling issue Black Suffering is both a mixtape and a call to consciousness a work that identifies Black suffering shines a light on the insidious normalization of the phenomenon and begins a larger conversation about correcting the historical weight of suffering carried by Black people The book combines elements of memoir philosophy historical analysis literary criticism sermonic discourse and even creative nonfiction to present a remix of the suffering experienced daily by Black people Hindus and Their Christian Bible R. S. Sugirtharajah,2024-02-22 R S Sugirtharajah shows how at the height of European colonialism whilst the colonizers were studying the sacred texts of Hindus Muslims Buddhists Sikhs and Zoroastrians the Hindus were themselves scrutinizing the invader s book the Christian Bible Sugirtharajah examines how these Hindus transformed the Bible into what they deemed fit for and suited to their contexts The result was that the Bible acquired a totally different form and lost its authority as the Book of the Empire Sugirtharajah shows how the resistant subversive and at times antagonistic readings of the Hindus went beyond what the colonizer had intended Sadly what these Hindus made of the Bible went largely unnoticed and was ignored by Western scholarship This volume seeks to rectify this regrettable omission and to place both the Hindu reformers and nationalists attitude to the Bible in their own specific context and to allow them to speak on their own terms rather than reading them with Christian preconception The Hindu reformers covered include figures such as Raja Rammohun Roy Arumuga Navalar Keshub Chunder Sen Swami Vivekananda Ponnambalam Ramanathan M K Gandhi and Sarvepalli Radhakrishnan and nationalists such as Dhirendranath Chowdhary Sita Ram Goel and Ram Swarup The book contains the interpretative context the textual negotiation that went on between these Hindus and the missionaries and orientalist examples of their Hinduization of the Bible and the hermeneutical impact on mainstream biblical interpretation The Christian Evangelist ,1901
