youth ministry Michael Novelli felt like he'd tried everything to connect his students to the Bible. Then a missionary introduced him to the art of Bible storying, an imaginative way to engage in the scriptures through storytelling, creative reflection, and dialogue. He soon discovered that Bible storying was not only an effective teaching approach but a powerful way to awaken people to new purpose and identity rooted in the biblical narrative. In 2012, Michael partnered with Sparkhouse to create Echo the Story curriculum based on his approach to Bible storying. Michael has seen people of all ages benefit from this imaginative way of encountering God through the Bible. In this book, you'll find methods for adapting Bible storying for varied contexts and ages, testimonials from people using this approach, tools to create your own Bible storying narratives, and details about the proven learning theories guiding this approach. The Cry of the Teacher's Soul Laurie R. Matthias, 2015-07-14

Teaching is hard. External pressures are steadily increasing, leading to high rates of attrition and burnout. Unlike other resources that attempt to address those external factors, The Cry of the Teacher's Soul offers hope by focusing on the key factor of good education: the teacher. It does so by examining the teacher's inner life: mental, emotional, and spiritual. For the Christian teacher, paradoxes in teaching, such as idealism, reality, and performance, authenticity, often parallel similar paradoxes in the Christian faith. By embracing these paradoxes that probe the depths of issues around identity and purpose, the teacher can sustain the difficult vocation of teaching, even thriving instead of just surviving. Each chapter focuses on a cry of the teacher's soul, features a teacher's story that illustrates that cry, and then explores the paradoxes embedded in teaching and in Christianity. Wisdom From the Margins William G. Britton, 2018-05-16 Henri Nouwen wisely said, "The great illusion of leadership is to think that man can be led out of the desert by someone who has never been there. Jesus has been there and knows how to lead us out, but first he just may lead us in. He meets us in the desert and does his best work in us there. We look for an easier way in vain. I myself reluctantly entered the desert and eventually received unimagined gifts there: gifts I didn't ask for, deserve, or want. Gifts hidden in such painful loss that I despaired and yet, looking back now, these desert gifts were the best thing that ever happened to me. I entered the desert and years later found my way out. It's not a new way; it was just new to me. Jewish and Christian sages had been living it for thousands of years. Somehow, in recent generations, we managed to forget it. In this collection, I mean to begin to make those riches available to you. I'm hoping that like me, you'll discover something that you didn't know you wanted or needed and something now you wouldn't give up at any price." Free to Thrive Josh McDowell, Ben Bennett, 2021-08-17

J. Swoboda, 2024-02-20 Today's follower of Jesus exists at a moment in history when our desires longings and wants are being weaponized against us by cultural spiritual and relational forces Follow your heart and You do you has become our moment's mantras The result for too many is feeling torn asunder by the raging desires within What do we do with our desire What about our unwanted desires And how do we cultivate desires which bring life and freedom and lead to Christ The Gift of Thorns by A J Swoboda addresses these questions and more The path forward is anything but easy It is assumed by too many in the Christian community that desire is in and of itself bad or dangerous and must be crucified for simply existing Desire is demonic for some But for many others particularly in the secular West desire must be followed through and through This side deifies desire But these two options sidestep the joy in the great challenge of finding God in our desire There exists an ancient and sacred way that is forged around the life wisdom and power of Jesus and his Spirit In short what makes a follower of Christ is not whether or not we have desires Rather it is what we do with the desires we have Near the end of the story of humanity's rebellion the theme of thorns is introduced As readers will discover the thematic repetition of thorns pops up over and over throughout the Bible What are the thorns for They will be in the words of God for you Gen 3:18 The premise of this book is that a world where we do not get all that we want is well the greatest gift ever      King Me Michael Thompson, 2024-04-11 Every man has a kingdom Not every king rules well but you can Like a living piece in life's checker game you are moving across the board toward your time of greatest authority and
