To Give And Give Again A Christian Imperative For Generosity:

To Give and Give Again Donald W. Hinze,1990 Painfully challenging for most Americans is the author's contention that we must come to terms with our relative abundance and prosperity before we can achieve a deeper spiritual awakening

Dictionary of Scripture and Ethics Joel B. Green, Jacqueline E. Lapsley, Rebekah Miles, Allen Verhey, 2011-11-01 2012 Reference Book of the Year Award Academy of Parish Clergy This one stop reference book on the vital relationship between Scripture and ethics offers needed orientation and perspective for students, pastors and scholars. Written to respond to the movement among biblical scholars and ethicists to recover the Bible for moral formation, it is the best reference work available on the intersection of these two fields. The volume shows how Christian Scripture and Christian ethics are necessarily intertwined and offers up to date treatment of five hundred biblical, traditional and contemporary topics ranging from adultery, bioethics and Colossians to vegetarianism, work and Zephaniah. The stellar ecumenical list of contributors consists of more than two hundred leading scholars from the fields of biblical studies and ethics including Darrell Bock, David Gushee, Amy Laura Hall, Daniel Harrington, Dennis Olson, Christine Pohl, Glen Stassen and Max Stackhouse. Giving to God Mark Allan Powell, 2006-02-21 We all know that everything we have is a gift from God. But sometimes it's hard to know just how to give back to God. How much is enough? What does the Bible really say? What should giving look like in our everyday lives? Filled with good news for followers of Jesus, Mark Allan Powell's Giving to God shows Christians the way to a better life and a better relationship with their money and with God. Powell presents stewardship as an act of worship, an expression of faith and a discipline for spiritual growth. Faithful use of our time, talents and money starts with a deep, satisfying relationship with the God to whom we belong. We can then learn, says Powell, to give gladly and generously out of our heartfelt connection with God. Informative, concise and eminently practical, including discussion questions, Giving to God gives us resources for best using the treasures material and otherwise that God has given us. Who hasn't heard fundraising gimmicks like these? Or who hasn't used these gimmicks on others? As Wes Willmer writes, generosity is the natural outcome of God's transforming work in individuals when they are conformed to the image of Christ. Fundraising and giving are not simply drops in the bucket. Capital campaigns and raising funds go deeper than the money. They are spiritual activities in becoming more like Christ. A Revolution in Generosity is a work by some of the best scholars and practitioners on the subject of funding Christian organizations. As Willmer writes, The foundation for realizing a revolution in generosity is understanding the biblical view of possessions, generosity and asking for resources. With over twenty expert contributors, this book is a must read for organizations striving to rid themselves of secular asking practices and gain an eternal approach. Biblical Principles for Releasing Financial Provision! Rich

Giving Bill Clinton, 2007-09-04 Here from Bill Clinton is a call to action. Giving is an inspiring look at how each of us can change the world. First it reveals the extraordinary and innovative efforts now being made by companies and organizations and by individuals to solve problems and save lives both down the street and around the world. Then it urges us to seek out what each of us regardless of income available time age and skills can do to help to give people a chance to live out their dreams. Bill Clinton shares his own experiences and those of other givers representing a global flood tide of nongovernmental nonprofit activity. These remarkable stories demonstrate that gifts of time skills things and ideas are as important and effective as contributions of money. From Bill and Melinda Gates to a six year old California girl named McKenzie Steiner who organized and supervised drives to clean up the beach in her community Clinton introduces us to both well known and unknown heroes of giving. Among them Dr Paul Farmer who grew up living in the family bus in a trailer park vowed to devote his life to giving high quality medical care to the poor and has built innovative public health care clinics first in Haiti and then in Rwanda a New York couple in Africa for a wedding who visited several schools in Zimbabwe and were appalled by the absence of textbooks and school supplies. They founded their own organization to gather and ship materials to thirty five schools. After three years the percentage of seventh graders who pass reading tests increased from 5 percent to 60 percent. Oseola McCarty who after seventy five years of eking out a living by washing and ironing gave 150 000 to the University of Southern Mississippi to endow a scholarship fund for African American students Andre Agassi who has created a college preparatory academy in the Las Vegas neighborhood with the city's highest percentage of at risk kids. Tennis was a stepping stone for me says Agassi. Changing a child's life is what I always wanted to do. Heifer International which gave twelve goats to a Ugandan village. Within a year Beatrice Biira's mother had earned enough money selling goat's milk to pay Beatrice's school fees and eventually to send all her children to school and as required to pass on a baby goat to another family thus multiplying the impact of the gift. Clinton writes about men and women who traded in their corporate careers and the fulfillment they now experience through giving. He writes about energy efficient practices about progressive companies going green about promoting fair wages and decent working conditions around the world. He shows us how one of the most important ways of giving can be an effort to change improve or protect a government policy. He outlines what we as individuals can do the steps we can take how much we should consider giving and why our giving is so important. Bill Clinton's own actions in his post presidential years have had an enormous impact on the lives of millions. Through his foundation and his work in the aftermath of the Asian tsunami and Hurricane Katrina he has become an international spokesperson and model for the power of giving We all have the capacity to do great things President Clinton says My hope is that the people and stories in this book will lift spirits touch hearts and demonstrate that citizen activism and service can be a powerful agent of change in the world The JOY of Giving Volume 2: America's Theology of "What Works for Me" Faith Philip Ellerbrock,2010-07-17 We believe in ourselves innovation markets technology and end up with government growing because our lawlessness increases Have we a backup plan if the Rapture turns out to be as Y2K Others also look for a messiah Addressing the UN in September 05 Iranian President Ahmadinejad tells the world When that day comes the ultimate promise of all divine religions will be fulfilled with the emergence of a perfect human being who is heir to all prophets and pious men He will lead the world to justice and absolute peace What should we do today given all the alarm and exhortation Bill Bradley tells us a can do story is all we need tell America and ourselves Here is really what is going on For the secret power of lawlessness is already at work but the one who now holds it back will continue to do so till he a Holy Spirit of Truth is taken out of the way And then the lawless one will be revealed 2 Thess 2 7 8 Will we continue to love as Christ loved us
