Inherited Land Whitney A. Bauman, Richard R. Bohannon, Kevin J. O'Brien, 2011-08-04 Religion and ecology has arrived What was once a niche interest for a few academics concerned with environmental issues and a few environmentalists interested in religion has become an established academic field with classic texts graduate programs regular meetings at academic conferences and growing interest from other academics and the mass media Theologians ethicists sociologists and other scholars are engaged in a broad dialogue about the ways religious studies can help understand and address environmental problems including the sorts of methodological terminological and substantive debates that characterize any academic discourse This book recognizes the field that has taken shape reflects on the ways it is changing and anticipates its development in the future The essays offer analyses and reflections from emerging scholars of religion and ecology each addressing her or his own specialty in light of two questions 1 What have we inherited from the work that has come before us and 2 What inquiries concerns and conversation partners should be central to the next generation of scholarship The aim of this volume is not to lay out a single and clear path forward for the field Rather the authors critically reflect on the field from within outline some of the major issues we face in the academy and offer perspectives that will nurture continued dialogue

The Disposition of Nature Jennifer Wenzel, 2019-12-03 Finalist 2022 Ecocriticism Book Prize Association for the Study of Literature and the Environment Shortlisted 2020 Book Prize Association for the Study of the Arts of the Present How do literature and other cultural forms shape how we imagine the planet for better or worse In this rich original and long awaited book Jennifer Wenzel tackles the formal innovations rhetorical appeals and sociological imbrications of world literature that might help us confront unevenly distributed environmental crises including global warming The Disposition of Nature argues that assumptions about what nature is are at stake in conflicts over how it is inhabited or used Both environmental discourse and world literature scholarship tend to confuse parts and wholes Working with writing and film from Africa South Asia and beyond Wenzel takes a contrapuntal approach to sites and subjects dispersed across space and time Reading for the planet Wenzel shows means reading from near to there across experiential divides between specific sites at more than one scale Impressive in its disciplinary breadth Wenzel's book fuses insights from political ecology geography anthropology history and law while drawing on active debates between postcolonial theory and world literature as well as scholarship on the Anthropocene and the material turn In doing so the book shows the importance of the literary to environmental thought and practice elaborating how a supple understanding of cultural imagination and narrative logics can foster more robust accounts of global inequality and energize movements for justice and livable futures

Land of War William Nester, 2023-05-01 War in Europe began with the first human migrants Rival bands fought for thousands of years before the Greeks and Romans began writing about their military history first as legend for instance the hero Achilles battling the Trojans and then as fact War developed from sticks and stones to bronze iron and steel including armor and edged weapons Then came gunpowder guns and cannons which eventually replaced edged weapons Finally in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries technology exploded railroads steamships telegraphs machine guns automobiles airplanes and tanks enabled European states to muster equip arm transport and command more men than ever before with more firepower than ever before In the past seventy five years atomic weapons changed the military landscape of Europe as have the internet and cyber warfare In this colorful new telling of European warfare and indeed European history through the continent's all too numerous wars and conflicts William Nester describes millennia of armed conflict He covers the greatest hits of military history both ancient and current Thermopylae the Peloponnesian War the wars of the Roman Empire across the continent the Battle of Hastings the Crusades Agincourt Waterloo Napoleon and Wellington the Somme the Spanish Civil War Stalingrad and Normandy Churchill Hitler and Stalin Bosnia and up through Putin's attempts to redraw the map of Europe Nester highlights how warfare has been deeply entwined with European statesmanship and undergirds modern institutions such as NATO and the European Union Europe's sense of itself is bound up in its military history Land of War is an epic odyssey from Europe's mythic origins through its latest violent conflicts

The Light Between Apple Trees

Priyanka Kumar, 2025-09-25 A deeply meditative book in the vein of Robin Wall Kimmerer's Braiding Sweetgrass Sy Montgomery author of The Soul of an Octopus As a child in the foothills of the Himalayas Priyanka Kumar was entranced by forest like orchards of diverse and luscious fruit especially apples These biodiverse orchards seemed worlds away from the cardboard apples that lined supermarket shelves in the United States Yet on a small patch of woods near her home in Santa Fe Kumar discovered a wild apple tree and the seeds of an odyssey were planted Could the taste of a feral apple offer a doorway to the wild In The Light Between Apple Trees Kumar takes us on a dazzling and transformative journey to rediscover apples unearthing a rich and complex history while illuminating how we can reimagine our relationship with nature Apples are popular but in our everyday lives we rarely encounter more than a handful of varieties of the sixteen thousand apple varieties once celebrated in America scarcely a fifth remain accessible Kumar reveals the richness of a hidden world bringing readers to the vibrant forests and orchards where historic trees still survive These mature and wild orchards offer more than just fruit they are havens for creatures from hummingbirds to bears and a living connection to generations past She brilliantly weaves together science and childhood memories with the apple's storied history from its roots in Kazakhstan to Spanish orchards in the Southwest and Thomas Jefferson's beloved Monticello fruitery The Light Between Apple Trees is a lyric odyssey that will forever change how you look at an apple a day Kumar shows how if we follow untamed paths the tang and texture of an apple can lead us back to the wild

Journey to the Republic of Guatemala; Land of the Maya Kalman Dubov, 2023-05-10 The Central American country of Guatemala was populated by the Maya people whose empire extended from Honduras to the south to today's southern Mexico Remnants of their presence are found throughout this region with monumental architecture cities palaces and great pyramids Wherever one looks the explosion of growth and development captures the viewer in its thrall Even the many glyphs adorning these sites with their unique writing style are a marvel to behold They lived here for an estimated two thousand years and then in the early 16th century the Spanish came and conquered these people By then their greatness had already ended in the midst of the 10th century

when their culture and civilization collapsed But they retained their culture by way of thousands of pictographic books which detailed their way of life and their advancements But the Spaniards zealous in their Catholicism sought out and destroyed every such book they could find and burned them all Except for three such books known as the Maya Codices Historians and scholars began the slow process of deciphering the Maya past Great effort was expended and the reality of their lives culture kings wars and daily practice began to emerge And the world was astounded by the emerging picture Perhaps a first in the world was their mathematical calculation with zero a phenomenal achievement Interestingly the glyph of the zero depicted a woman what mathematical genius was she to use zero in calculations Their astronomy of the heavenly spheres was astoundingly precise as was their knowledge of geometry and trigonometry Their religion however included human sacrifices following the practice of other nearby civilizations such as the Aztecs the Inca in South America and others The Spaniards stopped such worship and offerings and now subjugated these people into serfdom called encomiendas or enforced working for the conquistadors and their descendants Independence from Spain came in 1821 but the Mayan living conditions did not change The country became divided between the Spanish descendants now known as the Criollos the middle class known as Ladinos not to be confused with Jews in 9th century Castilian Spain and the Maya and other indigenous The social distance from the upper to lower classes was immense And that distance came forward during Guatemala's Civil War from 1960 to 1996 The violence and massacres during this period was so evil the president of the country Rios Montt was charged and convicted of Genocide the first time a country charged its own leader with this crime At a previous age and time the face of Guatemala presented immense achievements Today violence crime and cultural penury is self evident Guatemala is a third world country where the majority of its people live in great poverty while the upper class has the land its abundance and vast wealth

Land Use Luis Loures, 2019-03-13 The intensive increase in land use change is considered both a source of richness and a serious problem to landscape sustainability In this scenario although land use change plays a very important role for societal development the impact of land use changes on economic social and ecological functions requires special attention The new environmental paradigms associated with globalization and progressive climate change will certainly intensify the entropy and the instability in most of the existing land uses In this regard this book aims to highlight a body of knowledge related to the discussion of the opportunities and challenges associated with the development of new sustainable landscapes considering current and future challenges related to land use changes and planning

Buy This Land Chi-Doo Li, 2012-05-31 Kidnapped at age two a refugee from the Chinese Communist revolution a man who had seen the world by the time he was sixteen Chi Doo Li had earned his comfortable life in America But a throwaway comment by a man he had never met shook him awake to a shocking realization an idea he pursued into the jungles of Guatemala during the heat of a brutal civil war bringing him face to face with a people whose suffering defied imagination Buy This Land is the unlikely but inspiring story of how lives were forever changed all because a Spanish speaking Chinese lawyer from Seattle once said yes to a crazy idea

Refusing to Be Made Whole Anna LaQuawn Hinton, 2025-03-17 In Refusing to Be Made Whole Disability in Black Women's Writing author Anna LaQuawn Hinton examines how contemporary Black women writers present becoming disabled as a traumatic and violent experience of Black womanhood Nevertheless Black women embrace disabled Black womanhood by turning to Africanist spiritual understandings of wholeness which view debilitating injury and illness as not only physical but also spiritual not just an individual problem but a symptom of discord in the community Black women use these belief systems to reimagine healing in ways that make space for a variety of bodymindspirits Hinton maintains that this is not only a major theme in contemporary Black women's writing but that it also shapes the formal elements characteristic of the Black women's literary tradition Refusing to Be Made Whole analyzes texts published after the civil rights movements of the 1950s and 1960s focusing particularly on the late 1970s onward when Black women's writing flourished Through the lens of writings by authors such as Toni Cade Bambara Gayl Jones Gloria Naylor Ntozake Shange Audre Lorde Alice Walker Toni Morrison Octavia Butler Sapphire and Sarah E Wright Hinton addresses prominent critical discourses within Black feminist literary studies Hinton approaches the intersections of Africanist spirituality race gender class and disability conversations about representation community motherhood and sexuality through a Black feminist disability studies framework Refusing to Be Made Whole embraces the complex and multifaceted nature of Black women's writing arguing that through this collision of race gender and spirituality Black women writers speak healing and wellness into their readers lives and their own

The New Silk Road Becomes the World Land-bridge Helga Zepp-LaRouche, Michael O. Billington, Ramtanu Maitra, Dennis Small, Bruce Director, Jason Ross, Paul Gallagher, Hussein Askary, Rachel Douglas, Benjamin Deniston, 2014-12 EIR RELEASES ROAD MAP TO THE NEW WORLD ECONOMIC ORDER THE NEW SILK ROAD BECOMES THE WORLD LAND BRIDGE EIR's comprehensive study of the progress of the Eurasian Land Bridge project which Lyndon

and Helga LaRouche have championed for over 20 years has finally been completed The official release date is Dec 1 The 374 page report entitled The New Silk Road Becomes the World Land Bridge is nothing less than a conceptual and often physical road map to a New World Economic Order This path is currently being charted by the nations of the BRICS Brazil Russia India China and South Africa who are leading a dynamic of global optimism toward real economic development complete with new credit institutions and major high technology projects for uplifting all mankind After an introduction by Helga Zepp LaRouche the report lays out the Metrics of Progress based on the economic scientific principles developed by renowned physical economist Lyndon LaRouche It then proceeds region by region beginning with China and Russia to present the stunning progress and plans which have been made toward the Eurasian Land Bridge design that the Chinese government laid out in 1996 and other nations have begun to rally behind in recent years The report complete with many full color maps of its featured development corridors is available in paperback for 50 and hard cover bound for 75 The Future of Land Warfare Michael E. O'Hanlon, 2015-08-31 What happens if we bet too heavily on unmanned systems cyber warfare and special operations in our defense In today's U S defense policy debates big land wars are out Drones cyber weapons special forces and space weapons are in Accordingly Pentagon budget cuts have honed in on the army and ground forces this after the long wars in Iraq and Afghanistan seems like an appealing idea No one really wants American boots on the ground in bloody conflicts abroad But it is not so easy to simply declare an end to messy land wars A survey of the world's trouble spots suggests that land warfare has more of a future than many now seem to believe In The Future of Land Warfare Michael O Hanlon offers an analysis of the future of the world's ground forces Where are large scale conflicts or other catastrophes most plausible Which of these could be important enough to require the option of a U S military response And which of these could in turn demand significant numbers of American ground forces in their resolution O Hanlon is not predicting or advocating big American roles in such operations only cautioning against overconfidence that we can and will avoid them O Hanlon considers a number of illustrative scenarios in which large conventional forces may be necessary discouraging Russia from even contemplating attacks against the Baltic states discouraging China from considering an unfriendly future role on the Korean peninsula handling an asymmetric threat in the South China Sea with the construction and protection of a number of bases in the Philippines and elsewhere managing the aftermath of a major and complex humanitarian disaster superimposed on a security crisis perhaps in South Asia coping with a severe Ebola outbreak not in the small states of West Africa but in Nigeria at the same time that country falls further into violence addressing a further meltdown in security conditions in Central America Theology After Gaza Mitri Raheb, Graham McGeoch, 2025-08-14 This is a book about genocide and Gaza Gaza has become the moral compass of our world today In this war theology was weaponized against the Palestinian people by both Israeli politicians and Christian Zionists It is a book inspired by Palestinian liberation theologies The book foregrounds scholarly and practical responses to the Israeli invasion of a part of the occupied Palestinian territories widely referred to as Gaza in the media and popular discourse However the book also situates Gaza and Palestine in the longue dur e of settler colonialism colonialities of power and the underside of modernity Theology After Gaza A Global Anthology is fruit of the urgency of the time Inspired by Palestinian liberation theologies it articulates some of the death of God and the moral and ethical outrage familiar to those versed in Western Christianity and theology It also explores Gaza as an exteriority an exteriority to Western Christianity and theology to the international system and as a counter witness to Zionism This anthology is the first of its kind timely and relevant contribution that tackles a relevant issue of global importance with well known authors and prolific writers including Jewish and Muslim scholars

Forgetting the Art World Pamela M. Lee, 2012-10-12 The work of art's mattering and materialization in a globalized world with close readings of works by Takahashi Murakami Andreas Gursky Thomas Hirschhorn and others It may be time to forget the art world or at least to recognize that a certain historical notion of the art world is in eclipse Today the art world spins on its axis so quickly that its maps can no longer be read its borders blur In Forgetting the Art World Pamela Lee connects the current state of this world to globalization and its attendant controversies Contemporary art has responded to globalization with images of movement and migration borders and multitudes but Lee looks beyond iconography to view globalization as a world process Rather than think about the global art world as a socioeconomic phenomenon or in terms of the imagery it stages and sponsors Lee considers the work of art's world as a medium through which globalization takes place She argues that the work of art is itself both object and agent of globalization Lee explores the ways that art actualizes iterates or enables the processes of globalization offering close readings of works by artists who have come to prominence in the last two decades She examines the just in time managerial ethos of Takahashi Murakami the production of ethereal spaces in Andreas Gursky's images of contemporary markets and manufacture the logic of immanent cause dramatized in Thomas Hirschhorn's mixed media displays and the pseudo collectivism in the contemporary practice of the Atlas Group the Raqs Media Collective and others To speak of the work of art's world Lee says is to point to both the work of art's mattering and its materialization to understand the activity performed by the object as utterly continuous with the world it at once inhabits and creates

Lets delve into the realm of top-selling books, exploring the engaging narratives that have charmed audiences this year. To The End Of The Land Vintage International : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This touching tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover expertly weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can prevail. Uncover the Best : Taylor Jenkins Reid's "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This spellbinding historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reid's compelling storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Discover the Magic : Delia Owens' "Where the Crawdads Sing" This captivating coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens spins a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These top-selling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of captivating stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Paffen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a brilliant and suspenseful novel that will keep you speculating until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
