To The Slaughterhouse Peter Owen Modern Classic:

To the Slaughterhouse Jean Giono, 1969 Jean Giono the author of the famous ecological parable The Man Who Planted Trees also produced one of the most affecting accounts of war ever written To the Slaughterhouse is one of his finest novels Conscription reaches into the hills as the First World War comes to a small Provencal community one blazing August Giono's fiercely realistic novel contrasts the wholesale destruction of men land and animals at the front with the moral disintegration of the lonely and anxious people left behind Yet not all is despair The novel ends with a message of hope based on one of Giono's most common themes rebirth Book jacket The Wager Machado de Assis, 2005 Set in Rio de Janeiro on the eve of the abolition of slavery in 1888 this tells the poignant story of an elderly diplomat captivated by a beautiful young widow Imbued with autumnal sadness it shrewdly and ironically portrays a man coming to terms with the passing of the world he knows and with his own old age and death No Man's Land Pete Ayrton, 2014-09-15 The Great War gave birth to some of the twentieth century's most celebrated writing from D H Lawrence to Siegfried Sassoon the literature generated by the war is etched into collective memory But it is in fiction that we find some of the most profound insights into the war's individual and communal tragedies the horror of life in the trenches and the grand farce of the first industrial war Featuring forty seven writers from twenty different nations representing all the main participants in the conflict No Man's Land is a truly international anthology of World War I fiction Work by Siegfried Sassoon Erich Maria Remarque Willa Cather William Faulkner and Rose Macaulay sits alongside forgotten masterpieces such as Stratis Myrivilis's Life in the Tomb Raymond Escholier's Mahmadou Fofana and Mary Borden's The Forbidden Zone No Man's Land is a brilliant memorial to the twentieth century's most cataclysmic event Bowker's Guide to Characters in Fiction 2007, 2008-02 The Boat in the Evening Tarjei Vesaas, 2014-08-01 Earning its author a third nomination for the Nobel Prize this tale centers on a crane colony arriving at its breeding ground to play out a delicate drama ending with the rarely observed ceremony of the ritual dance All is observed by a transfixed child who has frozen into his background and become a piece of nature himself With a kind of cinematic impressionism this novel voyages back to episodes from childhood adolescence and maturity as well as conducts speculative forays into the unknown Unfolding in a series of delicate sketches that record the changing moods of human experience this story is at once pervaded by a sense of melancholy and a sensuous appreciation of nature A profound and beautiful book it is the summation of a literary artist's first hand experience and observation of rural life of landscape and people Provence & the Cote D'Azur Kate Baillie, Rob Humphreys, 1992 South of France Dana Facaros, Michael Pauls, 2005 Discover the unspoilt beauty of France's most legendary regions as well as the more famous hot spots From the glamour of St Tropez to the tranquil hills of Provence this guide explores the whole area with wit insight and passion France Philippe Barbour, Dana Facaros, Michael Pauls, 2001 Available in 3 formats to suit business travellers and tourists alike Detailed and comprehensive road maps route planning maps town plans journey times and distance information

Language for pan European use ideal for tourists Library Journal ,2004 Linguistic Turns, 1890-1950 Ken Hirschkop,2019-04-04 Linguistic Turns rewrites the intellectual and cultural history of early twentieth century Europe In chapters that study the work of Saussure Russell Wittgenstein Bakhtin Benjamin Cassirer Shklovskii the Russian Futurists Ogden and Richards Sorel Gramsci and others it shows how European intellectuals came to invest language with extraordinary force at a time when the social and political order of the continent was itself in question By examining linguistic turns in concert rather than in isolation the volume changes the way we see them no longer simply as moves in individual disciplines but as elements of a larger constellation held together by common concerns and anxieties In a series of detailed readings the volume reveals how each linguistic turn invested language as such with powers that could redeem not just individual disciplines but Europe itself It shows how in the hands of different writers language becomes a model of social and political order a tool guaranteeing analytical precision a vehicle of dynamic change a storehouse of mythical collective energy a template for civil society and an image of justice itself By detailing the force linguistic turns attribute to language and the way in which they contrast language as such with actual language the volume dissects the investments made in words and sentences and the visions behind them The constellation of linguistic turns is explored as an intellectual event in its own right and as the pursuit of social theory by other means Provence ,2009 Library Journal Melvil Dewey,Richard Rogers Bowker,L.
