The Epworth Herald, 1896 THE YOUNG NIGERIAN GENERATION STORY BOOK Dipo Toby Alakija, The failures of old generations to teach most young ones Nigerian family traditional religious and national values are mostly responsible for lawlessness and immoralities in the society. These prove the fact in the adage that says a man who builds a house without building his children only builds what the children will later sell. For so long Nigerians had been paying too much attention on politics, economy and other things at the expense of the Value System which is partly designed with the use of the National Anthem and The Pledge to the nation. Because of the near extinctions of moral family and other values with the belief in God Of All Creations the abundant resources in Nigeria had become snares for the citizens who are supposed to use them for the good of present and future generations. This book which is designed for children and youths gives a vivid picture of Nigerian Value System through explanations of the National Anthem and The Pledge. The author uses twenty-six stories, poems, class activities and other items to teach civic responsibilities and moral obligations. 100 Greatest Songs in Christian Music CCM, 2006-02-27 100 great songs 100 great stories.
