Toda Landscape Explorations Cultural Oriental:

The Toda Landscape Tarun Chhabra, 2015 Conversations with the Animate 'Other' Aloka

Parasher-Sen, 2023-09-30 Human interventions with living entities have had to be in a constant state of negotiating space necessary for co habitation with animals birds trees plants grasslands forests hills water bodies in the creation of villages and other settlements The book argues that negotiating this space meant sharing which impacted economic strategies religious experiences cultural interactions and oral performances that humans have strategized and preserved This intersectional theme through individual case studies ultimately provides us the civilizational ethos of the Indian sub continent on how human non human relations informed it The book provides a window on how this relationship was represented in a variety of material and literary texts visual representations archival records folklore and oral testimonies It brings to the fore these narratives over the longue dur e to explicate the complex and delicate relationships in region specific ecological settings and thus give readers a perspective that crosses disciplinary and conceptual boundaries Visual Culture, Heritage and

Identity: Using Rock Art to Reconnect Past and Present Andrzej Rozwadowski, Jamie Hampson, 2021-06-17 This book presents a fresh perspective on rock art by considering how ancient images function in the present It focuses on how ancient heritage is recognized and reified in the modern world and how rock art stimulates contemporary processes of cultural identity making Unseeing Empire Bakirathi Mani, 2020-10-26 In Unseeing Empire Bakirathi Mani examines how empire continues to haunt South Asian American visual cultures Weaving close readings of fine art together with archival research and ethnographic fieldwork at museums and galleries across South Asia and North America Mani outlines the visual and affective relationships between South Asian diasporic artists their photographic work and their viewers She notes that the desire for South Asian Americans to see visual representations of themselves is rooted in the use of photography as a form of colonial documentation and surveillance She examines fine art photography by South Asian diasporic artists who employ aesthetic strategies such as duplication and alteration that run counter to viewers demands for greater visibility These works fail to deliver on viewers desires to see themselves producing instead feelings of alienation estrangement and loss These feelings Mani contends allow viewers to question their own visibility as South Asian Americans in U S public culture and to reflect on their desires to be represented On the Nature of Ecological Paradox Michael Charles Tobias, Jane Gray

Morrison, 2021-05-18 This work is a large powerfully illustrated interdisciplinary natural sciences volume the first of its kind to examine the critically important nature of ecological paradox through an abundance of lenses the biological sciences taxonomy archaeology geopolitical history comparative ethics literature philosophy the history of science human geography population ecology epistemology anthropology demographics and futurism The ecological paradox suggests that the human biological and from an insular perspective successful struggle to exist has come at the price of isolating H sapiens from life sustaining ecosystem services and far too much of the biodiversity with which we find ourselves at crisis level odds It is a paradox dating back thousands of years implicating millennia of human machinations that have been utterly ruinous to biological baselines Those metrics are examined from numerous multidisciplinary approaches in this thoroughly original work which aids readers particularly natural history students who aspire to grasp the far reaching dimensions of the Anthropocene as it affects every facet of human experience past present and future and the rest of planetary sentience With a Preface by Dr Gerald Wayne Clough former Secretary of the Smithsonian Institution and President Emeritus of the Georgia Institute of Technology Foreword by Robert Gillespie President of the non profit Population Communication The Theoretical Individual Michael Charles Tobias,Jane Gray Morrison,2018-01-03 How can the one influence the many From posing seminal questions about what comprises a human individual to asking whether human evolution is alive and well favoring individuals or the species this work is a daring up to the minute overview of an urgent multidisciplinary premise It explores the extent to which human history provides empirical evidence for the capacity of an individual to exert meaningful suasion over their species and asks Can an individual influence the survival of the human species and the planet If there are to be cultures of transformation dedicated to seeing us all through the Sixth Extinction Spasm the Anthropocene inflicting as little biological havoc as possible what might such orientations a collective widespread biophilia or reverence for nature look like In this powerful work with a combination of data and direct observation the authors invite readers to explore how such transformations might resonate throughout the human community in what ways a person might overcome the seemingly insurmountable environmental tumult our species has unleashed the clear and salient motives ethics aspirations and pragmatic idealism he she might mirror and embrace in order to effect a profound difference at the individual level for all of life and life s myriad habitats Chapters illuminate an ambitiously broad digest of research from two dozen disciplines Those include ecodynamics biosemiotics neural plasticity anthropology paleontology and the history of science among others All converge upon a set of ethics based scenarios for mitigating ecological damage to ourselves and other life forms This highly readable and tightly woven treatise speaks to scientists students and all those who are concerned about ethical activism and the future of the biosphere Michael Charles Tobias and Jane Gray Morrison are ecological philosophers and animal liberation activists who have worked for decades to help enrich our understanding of ecosystem dynamics and humanity s ambiguous presence amid that great orchestra that is nature A Badaga and English Dictionary Paul Hockings,Christiane Pilot-Raichoor,2023-01-01 The two authors were jointly responsible for the first version of this Badaga Dictionary Berlin 1992 It is now extensively revised and expanded to two volumes and unique for a Dravidian dictionary it includes some 2000 local place names The vocabulary documented here was partly collected by the two authors during long term fieldwork but otherwise came from records of Badaga folk literature Although there are several dialects of the language these have not yet been systematically studied but dialectal variations are nonetheless recorded wherever they are known An introductory essay examines the status of the language while another essay outlines the cultural history of the Badaga people Many entries here include the bibliographic references to the extensive Nilgiri regional literature and these will prove invaluable to natural scientists even those not concerned with the Badaga language Thousands of entries also include notes on religious or cultural beliefs and practices in the Nilgiri Hills Other Landscapes Deborah Sutton,2009 Deborah Sutton recounts the failed British attempt to settle transform and govern the cooler uplands of South India It is a fascinating story bringing together strands from agrarian environmental administrative and cultural history The Oxford Handbook of Dance and Politics Rebekah J. Kowal,Gerald Siegmund,Randy Martin,2017 The Oxford Handbook of Dance and Politics presents cutting edge research investigating not only how dance achieves its politics but also how notions of the political are themselves expanded when viewed from the perspective of dance Female Genital Mutilation/Cutting Kyoko Nakamura,Kaori Miyachi,Yukio Miyawaki,Makiko Toda,2023-02-11 This open access book shows how the adoption of global justice such as eradication of female genital mutilation cutting FGM C has given rise to controversy resistance and transformation at the national regional and grass roots levels in African and Asian countries where FGM C has been practiced It provides readers with up to date information about the effects of the campaign to eradicate FGM C and the present situation of those countries to which preceding books on FGM C have scarcely referred Adopting zero tolerance as a policy of eradication WHO and other UN agencies have opposed any type of FGM C and many African countries have criminalized the practice Although the campaign is based on the human rights discourse which is shared globally the controversies concerning eradication of FGM C on the national level and the responses of communities on the local level in those countries are diverse and complicated Various actors such as NGOs government officials religious leaders medical workers and local inhabitants are embroiled and negotiate with each other concerning its eradication With this book readers are provided with an in depth analysis of the complicated controversies and responses of local communities referring to their particular historical and social backgrounds The book provides two chapters on FGM C in Asian countries where not many studies have done yet It also presents readers with a study of the arguments and responses to FGM C of African immigrants by Australian health care professionals as well as a study of male circumcision eradication campaigns which have been carried on in tandem with FGM C eradication campaigns but still not have been successful With its many elaborate case studies this book is highly recommended to readers who seek an in depth and up to date integrated overview of the FGM C studies as well as studies on the applicability of global justice to local communities This book won the 13th 2023 Japan Consortium for Area Studies JCAS Award for Social Collaboration Indian Books in Print ,2002 Arts & Humanities Citation Index ,2002 Commonwealth in Focus Royal Commonwealth Society,1982
