Tombstone The Great Chinese Famine 1958 196:

Tombstone Yang Jisheng, 2012-10-30 A veteran journalist presents an epic account of the worst famine in history a landmark in the Chinese people's own efforts to confront their history Ian Johnson The New York Review of Books An estimated thirty six million Chinese men women and children starved to death during China's Great Leap Forward in the late 1950s and early 60s One of the greatest tragedies of the twentieth century the famine is poorly understood and in China is still euphemistically referred to as the three years of natural disaster As a journalist with privileged access to official and unofficial sources Yang Jisheng spent twenty years piecing together the events that led to mass nationwide starvation including the death of his own father Finding no natural causes Yang attributes responsibility for the deaths to China's totalitarian system and the refusal of officials at every level to value human life over ideology and self interest Tombstone is a testament to inhumanity and occasional heroism that pits collective memory against the historical amnesia imposed by those in power Stunning in scale and arresting in its detailed account of the staggering human cost of this tragedy Tombstone is written both as a memorial to the lives lost an enduring tombstone in memory of the dead and in hopeful anticipation of the final demise of the totalitarian system Tombstone Jisheng Yang, 2013 Yang Jisheng's Tombstone is the book that broke the silence on one of history's most terrible crimes More people died in Mao's Great Famine than in the entire First World War yet this story has remained largely untold until now Still banned in China Tombstone draws on the author's privileged access to official and unofficial sources to uncover the full human cost of the tragedy and create an unprecedented work of historical reckoning A book of great importance Jung Chang author of Wild Swans The first proper history of China's great famine So thorough is his documentation that some are already calling Yang China's Solzhenitsyn Anne Applebaum author of Gulag A History

Railroads and the Transformation of China Elisabeth Köll, 2019-01-14 To convey modern China's history and the forces driving its economic success rail has no equal From warlordism to Cultural Revolution railroads suffered the country's ills but persisted because they were exemplary institutions Elisabeth Köll shows why they remain essential to the PRC's technocratic economic model for China's future

China's Political Worldview and Chinese Exceptionalism Benjamin Ho, 2025-10-01 China's Political Worldview and Chinese Exceptionalism International Order and Global Leadership uses the notion of Chinese exceptionalism as a framework to analyze China's international politics and foreign policy This book argues that China's approach to international relations is best understood in the context of these claims to exceptionalism and China's broader political world view In doing so it fosters a more comprehensive understanding of China's actions within the realms of foreign policy and international politics and in the context of the preferred world order norms and rules that the country seeks to promote Focuses on the study of China's political worldview an area that is under studied by Western scholars of Chinese politics Emphasizes on China's diplomatic activities in Asia which is an area of great interest to policy makers Study on Chinese exceptionalism which is also an under researched albeit growing theme in recent years

Afterlives of Chinese Communism Christian Sorace, Ivan Franceschini, Nicholas Loubere, 2019-06-25 Afterlives of Chinese Communism comprises essays from over fifty world renowned scholars in the China field from various disciplines and continents It provides an indispensable guide for understanding how the Mao era continues to shape Chinese politics today Each chapter discusses a concept or practice from the Mao period what it attempted to do and what has become of it since The authors respond to the legacy of Maoism from numerous perspectives to consider what lessons Chinese communism can offer today and whether there is a future for the egalitarian politics that it once promised

Cold War Summits Chris Tudda, 2015-10-29 CHOICE Outstanding Academic Title 2016 This book examines six summits spanning the beginning and the end of the Cold War Using declassified documents from U S British and other archives Chris Tudda shows how the Cold War developed from an ideological struggle between capitalism and communism into a truly global struggle From Potsdam in 1945 to Malta in 1989 the nuclear superpowers met to determine how to end World War II manage the arms race and ultimately end the Cold War Meanwhile the newly independent nations of the Third World including the People s Republic of China became active and respected members of the international community determined to manage their own fates independent of the superpowers The six summits Potsdam 1945 Bandung 1955 Glassboro 1967 Beijing 1972 Vienna 1972 and Malta 1989 are here examined together in a single volume for the first time An introductory essay provides a historiographical analysis of Cold War summitry while the conclusion ties the summits together and demonstrates how the history of the Cold War can be understood not only by examining the meetings between the superpowers but also by analyzing how the developing nations became agents of change and thus affected international relations

The World Turned Upside Down Yang Jisheng, 2021-01-19 Yang Jisheng s The World Turned Upside Down is the definitive history of the Cultural Revolution in withering and heartbreaking detail As a major political event and a crucial turning point in the history of the People s Republic of China the Great Proletarian Cultural Revolution 1966 1976 marked the zenith as well as the nadir of Mao Zedong s ultra leftist politics Reacting in part to the Soviet Union s revisionism that he regarded as a threat to the future of socialism Mao mobilized the masses in a battle against what he called bourgeois forces within the Chinese Communist Party CCP This ten year long class struggle on a massive scale devastated traditional Chinese culture as well as the nation s economy Following his groundbreaking and award winning history of the Great Famine Tombstone Yang Jisheng here presents the only history of the Cultural Revolution by an independent scholar based in mainland China and makes a crucial contribution to understanding those years lasting influence today The World Turned Upside Down puts every political incident major and minor of those ten years under extraordinary and withering scrutiny and arrives in English at a moment when contemporary Chinese governance is leaning once more toward a highly centralized power structure and Mao style cult of personality

An Anatomy of Chinese Perry Link, 2013-02-18 Rhythms conceptual metaphors and political language convey meanings of which Chinese speakers themselves may not be aware Link s Anatomy of Chinese contributes to the debate over whether language shapes thought or vice versa and its comparison of English with Chinese lends support to theories that locate the origins of language in the brain

The Making of China's Foreign Policy in the 21st century

Suisheng Zhao, 2018-02-02 This book is a study of the making of foreign policy of China a rising power in the 21st century It examines three sets of driving forces behind China's foreign policy making One is historical sources including the selective memories and reconstruction of the glorious empire with an ethnocentric world outlook and the century of humiliation at the hands of foreign imperialist powers The second set is domestic institutions and players particularly the proliferation of new party and government institutions and players such as the national security commission foreign policy think tanks media and local governments The third set is Chinese perception of power relations particularly their position in the international system and their position relations with major powers This book consists of articles from the Journal of Contemporary China

Understanding War

Christian P. Potholm, 2016-08-03 The third book in Professor Christian Potholm's war trilogy which includes Winning at War and War Wisdom Understanding War provides a most workable bibliography dealing with the vast literature on war and warfare As such it provides insights into over 3000 works on this overwhelmingly extensive material Understanding War is thus the most comprehensive annotated bibliography available today Moreover by dividing war material into eighteen overarching themes of analysis and fifty seminal topics and focusing on these Understanding War enables the reader to access and understand the broadest possible array of materials across both time and space beginning with the earliest forms of warfare and concluding with the contemporary situation Stimulating and thought provoking this volume is essential for an understanding of the breadth and depth of the vast scholarship dealing with war and warfare through human history and across cultures

Asia and the Historical Imagination

Jane Yeang Chui Wong, 2018-03-21 This collection explores the interpretation of historical fiction through fictional representations of the past in an Asian context Emphasising the significance of region and locality it explores local networks of political and cultural exchanges at the heart of an Asian polity The book considers how imagined pasts converge and diverge in developed and developing nations and examines the limitations of representation at a time when theories of world literature are shaping the way we interpret global histories and cultures The collection calls attention to the importance of acknowledging local tensions both within the historical and cultural make up of a country and within the Asian continent in the interpretation of historical fiction It emphasizes a broad spectrum view that privileges the shared historical experiences of a group of countries in close proximity and it also responds to the paradigm shift in Asian Studies Discussing how local conditions shape and create expectations of how we read historical fiction and working with the theme of fictionality and locality the volume provides an alternative framework for the study of world literature

The Political Logic of the US-China Trade War

Shipping Hua, 2022-03-18 This is the first comprehensive study by the world's leading scholars about the political logic of the U S China trade war that started during the Trump administration The book is divided into three parts The first part looks at changed leadership styles of the two countries in the last few years It also examines the liberal international order since World War II in which the trade war emerged It then explores the theoretical perspectives from both the United States and China that are related to the trade war The second part is about the domestic factors that impacted on the trade war from China s perspective These factors include China s institutional adaptation of the new international environment the radicalization of the Chinese political discourse and Big Power Diplomacy The third part explores the U S domestic factors that impacted the trade war such as the Trump administration s different China policy in general the role played by the U S Congress business lobby and the transition of foreign policy from a Wilsonian World Order to Jacksonian Nationalism Public Acceptability of

Congestion Charging in China Qiyang Liu,2022-03-16 This book explores the public acceptability of congestion pricing in the Chinese context Successful in western cities notably London congestion pricing has overcome vested interests to revitalize city centers and reduce pollution Given the radically different nature of China s culture and political system the author articulates why public acceptability should be an issue and how it will look in an authoritarian context Based on stakeholder interviews focus groups and an attitudinal survey this book will interest policymakers planners and scholars of transport governance Negotiating in/visibility Amelia Bonea,Irina Nastasa-Matei,2025-08-05 This volume brings together scholars from different disciplinary backgrounds to discuss how women contributed to the making pedagogy institutionalisation and communication of scientific knowledge in the twentieth century and to reflect on the theoretical and methodological challenges of documenting such hidden contributions Featuring examples from China former Czechoslovakia Greece Hungary India Japan Romania the United Kingdom and the United States the contributors discuss women s engagement with science across different institutional and non institutional sites ranging from the laboratory and the school to the clinic the home and the media The volume moves beyond the professional scientist model to enlarge our understanding of women s participation in twentieth century science and document the complex combination of factors that rendered such contributions in visible to contemporaries and future generations The PerformanceStat Potential Robert D.

Behn,2014-06-24 It started two decades ago with CompStat in the New York City Police Department and quickly jumped to police agencies across the U S and other nations It was adapted by Baltimore which created CitiStat the first application of this leadership strategy to an entire jurisdiction Today governments at all levels employ PerformanceStat a focused effort by public executives to exploit the power of purpose and motivation responsibility and discretion data and meetings analysis and learning feedback and follow up all to improve government s performance Here Harvard leadership and management guru Robert Behn analyzes the leadership behaviors at the core of PerformanceStat to identify how they work to produce results He examines how the leaders of a variety of public organizations employ the strategy the way the Los Angeles County Department of Public Social Services uses its DPSSTATS to promote economic independence how the City of New Orleans uses its BlightStat to eradicate blight in city neighborhoods and what the Federal Emergency Management Agency does with its FEMAStat to ensure that the lessons from each crisis response recovery and mitigation are applied in the future How best to harness the strategy s full capacity The PerformanceStat Potential explains all Edible People Christian Siefkes,2022-09-13 While human cannibalism has attracted considerable notice and controversy certain aspects of the practice have received scant attention These include the connection between cannibalism and xenophobia the capture and consumption of unwanted strangers Likewise ignored is the connection to slavery the fact that in some societies slaves and persons captured in slave raids could be and were killed and eaten This book explores these largely forgotten practices and ignored connections while making explicit the links between cannibal acts imperialist influences and the role of capitalist trading practices These are highly important for the history of the slave trade and for understanding the colonialist history of Africa The Price and Promise of Specialness Jin Li Lim,2019-06-04 In The Price and Promise of Specialness Jin Li Lim revises narratives on the overseas Chinese and the People s Republic of China by analysing the Communist approach to overseas Chinese affairs in New China s first decade as a function of a larger political economy Jin Li Lim shows how the party state centred its approach towards the overseas Chinese on a perception of their financial utility and thus sought to offer them a special identity and place in New China so as to unlock their riches Yet this contradicted the quest for socialist transformation and as its early pragmatism fell away the radicalising party state abandoned its promises to the overseas Chinese who were left to pay the price for their difference Escritores y artistas bajo el comunismo Manuel Florentín,2023-09-19 Escribir libremente crear obras art sticas sin seguir los c nones establecidos o informar objetivamente fueron actividades de alto riesgo en los pa ses comunistas Escritores y artistas bajo el comunismo es un libro nico en el mundo una historia del socialismo totalitario a trav s de las vivencias y las obras de los escritores intelectuales periodistas m sicos pintores cineastas y artistas de todo tipo que sufrieron la represi n de los reg menes comunistas Bien porque sus obras no exaltaban los xitos del comunismo o porque no se ajustaban al canon literario y art stico del partido bien por su car cter cr tico respecto al sistema por reclamar libertad democracia y respeto a los derechos humanos o simplemente porque aquellos creadores cayeron en desgracia Esta obra cubre todos los pa ses en los que hubo o hay reg menes comunistas o afines A trav s de las vivencias y obras de estos escritores y artistas personas con nombres y apellidos se pretende recordar tambi n a los millones de seres an nimos olvidados que sufrieron esa misma represi n No menos importante este libro muestra c mo en Occidente muchos de sus hom logos negaron o justificaron las violaciones de los derechos humanos en los pa ses comunistas para no minar la causa revolucionaria y criticaron e hicieron el vac o a quienes lo denunciaron como los Nobel de Literatura Camus Milosz o Vargas Llosa Orwell Koestler Cabrera Infante y Victor Serge entre tantos otros Como dijo Jrushov tras los acontecimientos de 1956 Si se hubiera matado a tiempo a una decena escritores h ngaros la revoluci n no habr a tenido lugar Mao Philip Short,2016-12-18 One of the great figures of the twentieth century Chairman Mao looms irrepressibly over the economic rise of China Mao Zedong was the leader of a revolution a communist who lifted hundreds of millions out of poverty an aggressive and distrustful leader and a man responsible for more civilian deaths than perhaps any other historical figure Now four decades after Mao's death acclaimed biographer Philip Short presents a fully updated and revised edition of his ground breaking and masterly biography Vivid uncompromising and unflinching Short presents in one volume the man behind the propaganda his family his beliefs and his horrors In doing so he shows us both the human being Mao was and the monster he became

A Modern History of Forgotten Genocides and Mass Atrocities Jeffrey S. Bachman, Esther Brito Ruiz, 2024-11-01 This is the first textbook of its kind to amass cases of genocide and other mass atrocities across the nineteenth twentieth and twenty first centuries that have largely been pushed to the periphery of Genocide Studies or forgotten altogether Divided into four thematic sections Genocide and Imperialism War and Genocide State Repression Military Dictatorships and Genocide and Human Caused Famine Attrition and Genocide A Modern History of Forgotten Genocides and Mass Atrocities covers five continents including case studies from Biafra Yemen Argentina Russia China and Bengal They range from the French conquest of Algeria in the mid nineteenth century to the Yazidi genocide perpetrated by the Islamic State in Iraq and Syria between 2014 and 2017 and show that at times of rising authoritarianism military conquest and weaponization of hunger lines between what is war and what is genocide are increasingly blurred By including genocides and mass atrocities that are often overlooked this volume is crucial to the ongoing debates about whether this atrocity or that one amounts to genocide By including key points events terms and critical questions throughout this is the ideal textbook for undergraduate students who study genocide mass atrocities and human rights across the globe
