Through a Screen Darkly Jeffrey Overstreet,2007-02-05 In the style of a cinematic travel journal film columnist and critic Jeffrey Overstreet of Christianity Today and lookingcloser.org leads readers down paths less traveled to explore some of the best films you've never seen. Examining a feast of movies from blockbusters to buried treasure Overstreet peels back the layers of work by popular entertainers and underappreciated masters. He shares excerpts from conversations with filmmakers like Peter Jackson Wim Wenders Kevin Smith Scott Derrickson producer Ralph Winter and stars like Elijah Wood Ian McKellan Keanu Reeves and the cast of Serenity drawing war stories from his encounters with movie stars moviemakers moviegoers and other critics in both mainstream and religious circles. He argues that what makes some films timeless rather than merely popular has everything to do with the way these artists whether they know it or not have captured reflections of God in their work. Through a Screen Darkly also includes a collection of reviews humorous anecdotes and on-the-scene film festival reports as well as recommendations for movie discussion groups and meditations on how different films echo the myriad ways in which Christ captured the attention and imagination of culture.
