Studying Mobile Media Larissa Hjorth, Jean Burgess, Ingrid Richardson, 2012-04-23 The iPhone represents an important moment in both the short history of mobile media and the long history of cultural technologies Like the Walkman of the 1980s it marks a juncture in which notions about identity individualism lifestyle and sociality require rearticulation this book explores not only the iPhone's particular characteristics uses and affects but also how the iPhone moment functions as a barometer for broader patterns of change In the iPhone moment this study considers the convergent trajectories in the evolution of digital and mobile culture and their implications for future scholarship Through the lens of the iPhone as a symbol culture and a set of material practices around contemporary convergent mobile media the essays collected here explore the most productive theoretical and methodological approaches for grasping media practice consumer culture and networked communication in the twenty first century

Knowledge Engineering: Practice and Patterns Philipp Cimiano, H. Sofia Pinto, 2010-11-18 Knowledge Management and Knowledge Engineering is a fascinating field of research these days In the beginning of EKAW the modeling and acquisition of knowledge was the privilege of or rather a burden for a few knowledge engineers familiar with knowledge engineering paradigms and knowledge representation formalisms While the aim has always been to model knowledge declaratively and allow for reusability the knowledge models produced in these early days were typically used in single and very specific applications and rarely changed Moreover these models were typically rather complex and they could be understood only by a few expert knowledge engineers This situation has changed radically in the last few years as clearly indicated by the following trends The creation of even formal knowledge is now becoming more and more collaborative Collaborative ontology engineering tools and social software platforms show the potential to leverage the wisdom of the crowds or at least of the many to lead to broader consensus and thus produce shared models which qualify better for reuse A trend can also be observed towards developing and publishing small but 2 3 4 high impact vocabularies e.g. FOAF DublinCore GoodRelations rather than complex and large knowledge models
