2. While we walk the pilgrim pathway,

Clouds will over spread the sky;

But when travelling days are over,

Not a shadow, not a sigh.

3. Let us then be true and faithful,

Trusting, serving every day.

Just one glimpse of Him in glory

Will the toils of life repay.

4. Onward to the prize before us

Soon his beauty will behold;

Soon the pearly gates will open.

We shall tread the street of gold.

Scripture and Song in Nineteenth-Century Britain James Grande, Brian H. Murray, 2023-11-16 This volume brings together new approaches to music history to reveal the interdependence of music and religion in nineteenth century culture As composers and performers drew inspiration from the Bible and new historical sciences called into question the historicity of Scripture controversies raged over the performance publication and censorship of old and new musical forms From oratorio to opera from parlour song to pantomime and from hymn to broadside nineteenth century Britons continually encountered elements of the biblical past in song Both elite and popular music came to play a significant role in the formation regulation and contestation of religious and cultural identity and were used to address questions of class nation and race leading to the beginnings of ethnomusicology This richly interdisciplinary volume brings together musicologists historians literary and art historians and theologians to reveal points of intersection between music religion and cultural history

A Biographical Dictionary of Musicians Theodore Baker, 1900 Christian Companion, 1904 Hymns and Constructions of Race Erin Johnson-Williams, Philip Burnett, 2024-02-07 Hymns and Constructions of Race Mobility Agency De Coloniality examines how the hymn historically and today has reinforced negotiated and resisted constructions of race It brings together diverse perspectives from musicology ethnomusicology theology anthropology performance studies history and postcolonial scholarship to show how the hymn has perpetuated generated and challenged racial identities The global range of contributors cover a variety of historical and geographical contexts with case studies from China and Brazil to Suriname and South Africa They explore the hymn as a product of imperialism and settler colonialism and as a vehicle for sonic oppression and or resistance within and beyond congregational settings The volume contends that the lived tradition of hymn singing with its connections to centuries of global Christian mission is a particularly apt lens for examining both local and global negotiations of race power and identity It will be relevant for scholars interested in religion music race and postcolonialism
