 anthology Women and Kink Jennifer Rehor, Julia Schiffman, 2021-07-19 Based on original research from nearly 1 600 women from the kink community this book takes you on a journey into the motivations meanings and benefits of kink in these women s own words Women and Kink presents a diverse range of personal and intimate stories about life love relationships kink sex self discovery growth resilience community and more The book offers insight into the breadth of the kink community with chapters discussing different aspects of kink and forms of engagement both individually and within relationships Filled throughout with personal vignettes and examples the authors provide commentary reflection questions and thought provoking considerations to readers who are looking to explore a new area of their life By exploring personal stories of love alternative sexualities and reasons for participating in the unconventional the book supports and empowers each reader to build a relationship and life that best suits their needs It is also an illuminating resource for sex therapists counselors and other mental health professionals interested in developing a kink affirmative practice Missionary Positions Lauren McGrow, 2017-08-28 Missionary Positions examines the context for Christian outreach to people in the sex industry Over the last 20 years faith based organisations have become more engaged in ministering with sex workers But what are the methods and desired outcomes that undergird pastoral practice in this field Most Christians see prostitution as evil and those who sell sex are considered broken victims in need of restoration Yet the voices and experiences of sex workers themselves often challenge these assumptions Using feminist and postcolonial perspectives interviews with Christian practitioners in Australia and personal narrative Lauren McGrow carves out a space for the dynamic theological agency and life complexity of sex workers to be more fully acknowledged in faith based outreach projects The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 2006 Women and War Mary Raum, 2024-11-29 This volume explores how art and artifacts can tell women s stories of war a critical way into these stories often hidden due to the second tier status of reporting women s accomplishments This unique lens reveals personal cultural and historically noteworthy experiences often not found in records manuscripts and texts Nine stories from history are examined from the mythical Amazons of Ancient Greece to a female prisoner of war during World War II Each of the social political and battlefield experiences of Penthesilea Artemisia Boudica the feminine cavaliers the Dahomey Amazons suffragists World War I medical corps and a World War II prisoner of war are intertwined with a particular work of art or an artifact These include pottery iconographic images public sculpture stone engraving clothing decorative arts paintings and pulp art While each story stands alone brought together in this volume they represent a cross sectional reflection on the record of women and war The chapters cover not only a diverse range of women from around the globe the African continent the Hispanic territory of Europe Carian and Ancient Greece and Rome Iran Great Britain Scotland ancient Caledonia Western Europe and North America but also a diverse choice of artwork and artifacts eras and the nature of the wars being fought This book will be of value to those interested in gender across history and its interplay in the field of war
