To Cook A Continent Destructive Extraction And The Climate Crisis In Africa:

To Cook a Continent Nnimmo Bassey, 2012 Arguing that the climate crisis confronting the world today is rooted mainly in the wealthy economies abuse of fossil fuels indigenous forests and global commercial agriculture this important book investigates how Africa has been exploited and how Africans should respond for the good of all As it examines the oil industry in Africa and probes the causes of global warming this record warns of its insidious impacts and explores false solutions Demonstrating that the issues around natural resource exploitation corporate profiteering and climate change must be considered together if the planet is to be saved the book suggests how Africa can overcome the crises of environment and global warming The Great Climate Robbery GRAIN, 2016-08-22 In The Great Climate Robbery highly respected non profit

Grain connects analysis of the food system to larger issues affecting the planet and links peoples struggles over food to climate change The collected articles in this book will help readers to understand the ways in which corporations seek to control the food system and give information and analysis to challenge this control This book features endorsements from Naomi Klein Bill McKibben and Vandana Shiva Henk Hobbelink is a member of the Grain collective an international non profit that works to support small farmers and social movements in their struggles for community controlled and biodiversity based food systems Destroying Democracy Jane Duncan, Linda Gordon, Gunnett Kaaf, Dale T McKinley, Alf Gunvald

Nilsen, Devan Pillay, Mandla J Radebe, Alfredo Saad-Filho, Ingar Solty, 2021-08-01 A history of the erosion of democracy across the globe Democracy is being destroyed This is a crisis that expresses itself in the rising authoritarianism visible in divisive and exclusionary politics populist political parties and movements increased distrust in fact based information and news and the withering accountability of state institutions Over the last four decades democracy has radically shifted to a market democracy in which all aspects of human non human and planetary life are commodified with corporations becoming more powerful than states and their citizens This is how neoliberal capitalism functions at a systemic level and if left unchecked is the greatest threat to democracy and a sustainable planet Volume six of the Democratic Marxism series focuses on how decades of neoliberal capitalism have eroded the global democratic project and how in the process authoritarian politics are gaining ground Scholars and activists from the political left focus on four country cases India Brazil South Africa and the United States of America in which the COVID 19 pandemic has fuelled and highlighted the pre existing crisis They interrogate issues of politics ecology state security media access to information and political parties and affirm the need to reclaim and re build an expansive and inclusive democracy Destroying Democracy is an invaluable resource for the general public activists scholars and students who are interested in understanding the threats to democracy and the rising tide of authoritarianism in the global south and the global north Africa's Shadow Rise Pádraig Carmody, Peter

Kragelund, Ricardo Reboledo, 2020-09-17 For years economists have spoken of Africa rising and despite the global financial crisis Africa continues to host some of the fastest growing economies in the world Africa's Shadow Rise however argues that the continent's apparent economic rise is essentially a mirage driven by developments elsewhere most particularly the expansion in China's economy While many African countries have experienced high rates of growth much of this growth may prove to be unsustainable and has contributed to environmental destruction and worsening inequality across the continent Similarly new economic relationships have produced new forms of dependency as African nations increasingly find themselves tied to the fortunes of China and other emerging powers Drawing on in depth fieldwork in southern Africa Africa's Shadow Rise reveals how the shifting balance of global power is transforming Africa's economy and politics and what this means for the future of development efforts in the region Shortlisted for the Business Council for Africa's African Business Book of the Year 2023

The Fire Now Azeezat Johnson, Remi Joseph-Salisbury, Beth Kamunge, 2018-11-15 Not so long ago many spoke of a post racial era claiming that advances made by people of colour showed that racial divisions were becoming a thing of the past But the hollowness of such claims has been exposed by the rise of Trump and Brexit both of which have revealed deep seated white resentment and have been attended by a resurgence in hate crime and overt racial hatred on both sides of the Atlantic At a time when progress towards equality is not only stalling but being actively reversed how should anti racist scholars respond This collection carries on James Baldwin's legacy of bearing witness to racial violence in its many forms Its authors address how we got to this particular moment arguing that it can only be truly understood by placing it within the wider historical and structural contexts that normalise racism and white supremacy Its chapters engage with a wide range of contemporary issues and debates from the whiteness of the recent women's marches to anti racist education to the question of Black resistance and intersectionality Mapping out the problems we face and the solutions we need the book considers how anti racist scholarship and activism can overcome the setbacks posed by the resurgence of white supremacy

African Ecological Ethics and Spirituality for Cosmic Flourishing Stan Chu Ilo, 2022-06-16 This is the definitive African text on ecological ethics African environmental spirituality a theology of creation and climate justice The contributors to this important volume explore the common threats facing this earth our common home and the particular threats facing Africa because of our sick environment unsustainable development practices and the false narratives and programs of modernity in the African Motherland Here African environmentalists theologians and peace advocates in conversation with Pope Francis's Laudato Si develop a roadmap for pastoral local and global education on ecological consciousness in order to bring about ecological conversion African ecological wisdom is also offered as indispensable resources for recovering the intimate connection of all creatures and all peoples and as a praxis of solidarity for the poor and our fragile earth

South African Cultural Studies Christopher J. Lee, Andrew Offenburger, 2025-09-16 This book offers a holistic guide as to how South African identity and culture can be understood in the past present and future Drawing from the rich archive of previously published articles from the journal Safundi South African Cultural Studies documents the mutual histories of the country and the journal over the past quarter century Divided into six sections the first section addresses cultural figures including Oprah Winfrey Trevor Noah Olive Schreiner and Dimitri Tsafendas an unusual group that illustrates the unique and international character of South African culture The second part brings attention to the important role that photography has had in depicting and narrating South African cultural life whether through the intimacies found in recent images by Zanele Muholi or the historical work of David Goldblatt and Santu Mofokeng The third section of the book looks at music as another idiom that has proven indispensable for South African social life with Miriam Makeba Rodriguez and Die Antwoord providing examples The fourth and fifth sections of this book address sexuality and film respectively underscoring at once the contrasting approaches to popular culture that have surfaced in South Africa as well as their requisite abilities for grasping everyday tastes and mores The worlds of Ms magazine District 9 Black Panther and Spike Lee to pick only several topics raised supply ways of thinking across these chapters The final section of the volume concludes with the role of place in the construction of culture whether museums national monuments the Spur restaurant franchise or landscapes like the Karoo This book will be an indispensable resource for scholars students activists and critics as well as readers who are generally interested in understanding South Africa's cultural history over the past century

Converging Social Justice Issues and Movements Tsegaye Moreda, Saturnino M. Borras Jr., Alberto Alonso-Fradejas, Zoe W. Brent, 2020-05-21 Converging Social Justice Issues and Movements argues that multiple contemporary converging crises have significantly altered the context for and object of political contestations around agrarian climate environmental and food justice issues This shift affects alliances collaboration and conflict among and between state and social forces as well as within and between social movements The actual implications and mechanisms by which these changes are happening are to a large extent empirical questions that need careful investigation The majority of the discussions in this volume are dedicated to the issue of responses to the crises both by capitalist forces and those adversely affected by the crises and the implications of these for academic research and political activist work Interdisciplinary in nature Converging Social Justice Issues and Movements will be of great use to scholars of agrarian politics as well as climate and environmental justice studies The chapters were originally published as a special issue in Third World Quarterly

The Carbon Almanac The Carbon Almanac Network, 2022-07-12 When it comes to the climate we don't need more marketing or anxiety We need established facts and a plan for collective action The climate is the fundamental issue of our time and now we face a critical decision Whether to be optimistic or fatalistic whether to profess skepticism or to take action Yet it seems we can barely agree on what is really going on let alone what needs to be done We urgently need facts not opinions Insights not statistics And a shift from thinking about climate change as a me problem to a we problem The Carbon Almanac is a once in a lifetime collaboration between hundreds of writers researchers thinkers and illustrators that focuses on what we know what has come before and what might happen next Drawing on over 1 000 data points the book uses cartoons quotes illustrations tables histories and articles to lay out carbon's impact on our food system ocean acidity agriculture energy biodiversity extreme weather events the economy human health and best and worst case scenarios Visually engaging and built to share The Carbon Almanac is the definitive source for facts and the basis for a global movement to fight climate change This isn't what the oil companies marketers activists or politicians want you to believe This is what's really happening right now Our planet is in trouble and no one concerned group corporation country or hemisphere can address this on its own Self interest only increases the problem We are in this together And it's not too late for concerted collective action for change

Hope in Times of Crisis Marina Ngursangzeli Behera, Michael Biehl, Risto Jukko, Kenneth R. Ross, 2025-06-06 The early twenty first century has dashed hopes for a more peaceful harmonious and prosperous world order as many societies have been plunged into conflict and living conditions for many have become ever more precarious The crisis is compounded by the advance of damaging climate change that jeopardizes the future of life on earth Where can the imagination be found to meet such an unprecedented crisis This book mines one hundred years of ecumenical reflection on mission affirming the strengths of this tradition It does so in a spirit of metanoia repentance recognizing that churches and missions were often complicit in trends that have proved to be damaging At the same time it draws on elements of renewal in thinking about mission cherishing of life environmental responsibility action for justice deepening of spirituality working from a basis in ecumenical Christianity to make common cause with people of all faiths and convictions who share similar concerns While the book is unflinching in confronting the injustice and destructiveness of the prevailing world order its final message is one of hope proposing that a retrieval and renewal of the ecumenical vision holds the promise of a brighter future

Climate Futures Kum-Kum Bhavnani, John Foran, Priya A. Kurian, Debashish Munshi, 2019-10-15 Approaching the issues of climate change and climate justice from a range of diverse perspectives including those of culture gender indigeneity race and sexuality as well as challenging colonial histories and capitalist presents Climate Futures boldly addresses the apparent inevitability of climate chaos Seeking better explanations of the underlying causes and consequences of climate change and mapping strategies toward a better future or at a minimum the most likely best case world that we can get to this book envisions planetary social movements robust enough to spark the necessary changes needed to achieve deeply sustainable and just economic social and political policies and practices Bringing together insights from interdisciplinary scholars policymakers creatives and activists Climate Futures argues for the need to get past us and them divides and acknowledge how lives of creatures far and near human and non human are interconnected

Routledge Handbook of Natural Resource Governance in Africa Hany Besada, Cristina D'Alessandro, Tefsi Golla, 2024-03-13 The Routledge Handbook of Natural Resource Governance in Africa provides a comprehensive analysis of African natural resource governance stretching across the continent and encompassing water land extractive resources and mining Africa's natural resources are not only crucial for the continent from an economic environmental and political perspective but they are also of significant geopolitical importance with direct implication for meeting the global challenges outlined in the Sustainable Development Goals Whether an abundance of natural resources proves to be a curse or a blessing depends on the nature extent and outcome of the effort and experience of an individual country in governing and managing such assets It is with this in mind that this ground breaking handbook brings together experts from across the field of natural resource development to reflect on the varied regime types and paradigms within the continent s natural resource sectors the specific challenges they face and their role within global value chains The book first considers governance for sustainable development and discourses of land and development financing before going on to investigate the regulatory and policy impacts and socioeconomic implications of natural resource management Finally the Handbook situates the African continent within the emerging global energy transition examining trends in South South cooperation and new frontiers for the harnessing of critical tools in a sustainable future for natural resource governance and management Overall the Handbook s in depth analysis provides a unique blend of realism and optimism highlighting the importance of building a new sustainable African resource narrative for shared prosperity The handbook will be an essential read for researchers and policy makers with an interest in sustainable development and natural resource governance in Africa
