

The background of the entire page is a painting. It depicts a bright blue sea with white-capped waves. In the center of the sea, a large, vibrant green heart floats. Below the sea, a sandy beach is visible, with a reddish-brown line of what might be seaweed or a shadow on the sand. The overall style is painterly and expressive.

Jua., 2012-10-10 Roselyne M Jua has taught English and American Literature and Creative Writing at the Universities of Yaounde 1986 1993 and Buea 1993 2012 At the University of Buea she served as Dean of Faculty of Arts from 2010 to 2012 She is Director of Academic Affairs at the University Bamenda North West Region since August 2012 Dr Jua has published articles in peer reviewed journals and edited the plays of Victor E Musinga among which are The Barn and The Tragedy of Mr No Balance She is co author with Bate Besong of To the Budding Creative Writer A Handbook The Bad Samaritan Alobwed'Epie Alobwed'Epie, 2009-10-15 The Bad Samaritan is set in a kleptomaniac and highly corrupt imaginary African country called Ewawa Due to mismanagement financial institutions collapse Salaries are slashed and there is unprecedented unemployment leading to country exodus Professor Esole and his wife are not only aggrieved by the salary slashes but also by the dubious closure of the Post Office Savings Bank with their savings Desperate for money they resort to borrowing from private sources at exorbitant interest rates Esole toddles into politics with the aim of righting things Will his nave approach to politics make or mar The Wages of Corruption Oke Akombi, 2009-10-15 Corruption is endemic in Cameroon Twice Transparency International have accorded the country the infamous first place in corruption As one of many concerned Cameroonians Sammy Oke Akombi was moved and they realized that something was in fact wrong somewhere and something had to be done somehow This collection of short stories is his contribution to the collective resolve by concerned Cameroonians to wage a war against this most unusual friend of fairness The stories seek to elicit awareness about a social ill that is ironically championed by the very politicians functionaries educator leaders and power elite whose duty it is to keep society healthy and on the rails The stories are on corruption in different segments of society and about the people who perpetrate it Almost everyone is immersed in it and so must make every effort to resurface from it It takes only the will to stay alive because the wages of corruption like any other sin can only be death Dogs in the Sun D.

Nyamndi,2009-09-15 This compelling narrative pits the legacies of two men in the village of Nwemba Winjala the Crude yardman to the English surveyor Pete Harrington kills the latter s favourite animal the big monkey called Stirrup and runs to his village Sama Gakoh washerman to Harrington also returns home when his services are terminated for age reasons Both hold clashing views of the white man They die shortly after their return but their sons pick up and sustain their conflicting philosophies The drama culminates in the fishing contest where the village chief Ndelu takes an unprecedented decision charged with meaning and wisdom The action is given piquancy by a strong undercurrent of human passion that flies in the face so to speak of artifices that divide and alienate We are dealing here with a profound allegory that brings the classical stereotypes into pointed and hopefully final disrepute Laughing Store Linus Tongwo Asong,2010 Laughing Store is just what we need in times of troubles and uncertainties such as these A book of humour from an acclaimed master of laughter it lifts our hearts and raises our spirits Jokes that touch about every domain of existence from sex to religion from births to deaths from politics to the beer parlour from the courtroom to the hospital And most important of all conceived in the supremely original Cameroonian flavour of jokes Historical Dictionary of the Republic of Cameroon Mark Dike

DeLancey,Mark W. Delancey,Rebecca Neh Mbuh,2019-06-15 Cameroon is a land of much promise but a land of unfulfilled promises It has the potential to be an economically developed and democratic society but the struggle to live up to its potential has not gone well Since independence there have been only two presidents of Cameroon the current one has been in office since 1982 Endowed with a variety of climates and agricultural environments numerous minerals and substantial forests and a dynamic population this is a country that should be a leader of Africa Instead we find a country almost paralyzed by corruption and poor management a country with a low life expectancy and serious health problems and a country from which the most talented and highly educated members of the population are emigrating in large numbers To all of this is recently added a serious terrorism problem Boko Haram in the north a separatist movement in the Anglophone west refugee influxes in the north and east and bandits from the Central African Republic attacking eastern villages This fifth edition of Historical Dictionary of the Republic of Cameroon contains a chronology an introduction and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 300 cross referenced entries on important personalities politics economy foreign relations religion and culture This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about the Republic of Cameroon Zintgraffs Explorations in Bamenda, Adamawa and the Benue Lands 1889-1892

E.M. Chilver,2010-08-30 The following pages initially prepared for limited circulation in 1961 contain brief extracts and summaries of those parts of Eugen Zintgraffs book NORD KAMERUN 1895 of most interest concerning the colonial Bamenda and Wum Division Zintgraffs book the first by a European about the Grassfields has not been translated and is hard to get second hand In using these notes the following points should be borne in mind Zintgraffs knowledge of Bali Mungaka and Hausa was very slight and his discussions of character motives and political institutions are consequently superficial and open to criticisms He had no means of checking what he was told or thought he was told He had no previous knowledge of any similar culture and no training in ethnographical method He was however a good observer and his descriptions of tools dress weapons and the like can be regarded as fairly reliable Finally it must be remembered that Zintgraff wrote the book to justify his own actions and to support that small but influential section of public opinion in Germany which favoured rapid imperial expansion A full account of the actions and motives of Zintgraffs opponents in the Kamerun Government and in the Colonial Bureau of the German Foreign Office has not been written we only have one side of the story But there are some suggestive points made in Rudins GERMANS IN THE CAMEROONS and others referred to in these notes What is perhaps most striking about Zintgraffs account is the fact that the people of the Western Grassfields were not so isolated from one another or their neighbours as might be thought A network of trade friendships covered the country and big men exchanged gifts over long distances These links must be set beside the insecurity due to raids and slave catching and are well worth investigation

Osagyefo Linus Asong,2010-05-01 The personality of the highly charismatic foremost African Nationalist Kwame Nkrumah as featured once in a while in Ghanaian fiction For example the celebrated Ghanaian novelist Ayi Kwei Armah draws attention to the corrupt nature of the Nkrumah regime in his famous novel The Beautiful Ones Are Not Yet Born But this is by far the very first time that Kwame Nkrumah and his era have been made the main subject of a full length novel

Rock of God K. Bannavti,2010-01-01 Rock of God centres on a significant war that Nso fought with Bamoun in the 1880s and which war resulted in a devastating defeat for the Bamouns During this war a major Nso combat rule was broken the Sultan king of Bamoun was decapitated Both local story tellers and historians have indicated that the Sultan was only supposed to be captured alive The play explores some very compelling reasons for this violation It mocks any attempt at categorization because the events involved are as historically relevant as they are anthropologically profound as literarily dense as they are linguistically compelling It surely stands on its own because it clearly combines concepts of docu drama morality play classical theatre historical drama and much more But beyond all else it is great artistry that demonstrates the genius of experimentation

A Basket of Flaming Ashes B. Ashuntantang,2010-07-01 Ashuntantang is an extraordinary weaver of words who showcases vivid pictures that compete with 3D simulation Her greatest asset is her use of the beautiful traditional Cameroonian anchor that evokes folk tales with its moonlight romance and glory You feel laugh weep shiver wonder and hail the triumphant spirit of the persona as it navigates African postcolonial and global experiences with the melancholy of an exile who is purposeful strategic and a lot of fun

Stereotyping Africa. Surprising Answers to Surprising Questions Fru Doh,2009-11-01 Characteristically Africans in any Western country are asked so many different questions about Africa as Westerners love to refer to the many countries that make up that huge continent as if Africa were a single nation state So one begins wondering why it is that Africans on the other hand do not refer to individual European countries as Europe simply then the trends and consequences of stereotyping begin setting in just as one is getting used to being asked if Africa has a president or if one can say something in African It is some of these questions that Emmanuel Fru Doh has collected over the years and has attempted answering them in an effort to shed some light on a continent that is in many ways like the rest of the world when not better but which so many love to paint as dark backward chaotic and pathetic

The Wooden Bicycle and Other Stories Tikum Mbah Azonga,2009 The wooden bicycle Fateful ride One way ticket One of a kind The money Moment of truth Caught in between A matter of choice Daddy s boy Chicken soup Chopchair Linus Tongwo Asong,2010 The extremely irritable and quick tempered chieftain Akendong II has 14 children all girls and is saddened by the fact that he has no chopchair a male heir to his throne Then news comes to him that his favourite wife has given birth to a pair of twins boys He is even more angered by the fact that he has two heirs a source of trouble for his kingdom To avoid his wrath his councillors change the story sending away one of the boys to grow in hiding Learning of the truth about his birth 15 years afterwards the prince in hiding returns kidnaps the palace prince and demands his full share of the kingdom His will is done but at a very great cost to the chief s peace of mind and relationship with his people This is by far the shortest of Asong s novels and the least complicated by comparison But the conflicts the hallmarks of his art are still there so also is his breathtaking suspense The Lady with the Sting Charles Alobwed'Epie,2010-03-01 The Lady with the Sting is sequel to The Lady with a Beard In the two novels Alobwed Epie compares and contrasts the masculinity and femininity of the two heroines Emade and her daughter Ntube In the first novel Emade shuns her sex and clicks to a false masculine mask In spite of her achievements she fails to debunk the old system In The Lady with the Sting her daughter Ntube a less charismatic heroine allows nature take its course and in the end she seizes the opportunity the erring old system gives her and destroys it Alobwed Epie author of The Death Certificate The Lady with a Beard The Day God Blinkered and The Bad Samaritan was born at Ngomboku in Kupe Muanenguba Division South West Region Cameroon He studied at the Universities of Yaound and Leeds and teaches Creative Writing at the University of Yaound 1 Cameroon Doctor Frederick Ngenito Linus Asong,2010-02-01 Dr Frederick Ngenito shocks his entire ethnic community by finally marrying a girl whose rejection of him had cost him an enviable job But this is nothing compared to the ire of the ancestors when he hides the facts surrounding his irate father s suicide and he is buried without the traditional cleansing and which reduces him to a wreck Harrowing but thoroughly enjoyable this spellbinder of a novel is a brash standoff between filia and eros science and fetish fears Bloodcurdling premonitions and raspy raw effects make of this novel of many parts a story of dogged intolerance and catastrophe of half measures and falsification as quick solutions Here is an unputdownable teeming with vivid true blood characters you cannot forget Fred brilliant handsome navely supercilious the dream of every beautiful young girl Beatrice his wife beautiful proud sensitive but unforgiving Chief Mutare Fred's father the very incarnation of brute force raw untouched either by surface culture or inner human feelings Upon the fatalistic relationship between these three characters Asong builds this grim tale of great passions of a love that is doomed In this book stamped with an incomparable aura of authenticity we see why Asong's novels are sometimes mistaken for case histories

The Secrets of an Aborted Decolonisation Carlson Anyangwe, 2010 Among the material are treaties concluded by Britain with Southern Cameroons coastal Kings and Chiefs and the boundary treaties of the Southern Cameroons treaties defining the frontiers with Nigeria to the west and the frontier with Cameroun Republic to the east The book contains documents that attest to the Southern Cameroons as a fully self governing country ready for sovereign statehood These include debates in the Southern Cameroons House of Assembly and the various Constitutions of the Southern Cameroons The book also reproduces British declassified documents on the Southern Cameroons covering the three critical years from 1959 to 1961 documents which speak to the inglorious stewardship of Great Britain in the Southern Cameroons This book removes lingering doubts in some quarters that the people of the Southern Cameroons were cheated of independence Its contents are further evidence of their inalienable right and sacred duty to assert their independence

Gender, Discourse and Power in the Cameroonian Parliament Lilian Lem Atanga, 2010 This book investigates gender and power relations in the Cameroonian parliament using a critical discourse analytical approach which focuses on social issues and seeks to expose unequal relations within institutions The study identifies different gendered discourses within the speeches of Members of Parliament and government ministers Consciously or unconsciously these participants within parliamentary debates draw on topics that construct women and men in specific ways sometimes sustaining gender stereotypes or challenging existing conditions The way men and women are constructed using language also is indicative of gender and power relations within this particular community The study also looks at the way men and women are constructed using traditional discourses of gender differentiation and how some of these discourses get challenged appropriated or subverted using progressive gendered discourses that advocate equal opportunities gender equality and gender partnership in development

Genuine Intellectuals. Academic and Social Responsibilities of Universities in Africa Nsokika Fonlon, 2009-10-15 This book slim as it looks took Bernard Nsokika Fonlon the best part of five laborious years to write 1965 9 inclusive He writes I was penning away as students in France were up in arms against the academic Establishment and their fury almost toppled a powerful prestigious political giant like General de Gaulle In America students arms in hand besieged and stormed the buildings of the University Administration others blew up lecture halls in Canada the student revolt a very saeva indignatio was in paroxysm But in England save in the London School of Economics where students rioted for the lame reason that the College gate looked like that of a jail house all was calm Fonlon drew on these events to define the role of university education in this precious treasure of a book which he dedicates to every African freshman and freshwoman The book details his reflections and vision on the scientific and philosophical

Nature End and Purpose of university studies He calls on African students to harness the Scientific Method in their quest for Truth and to put the specialised knowledge they acquire to the benefit of the commonwealth first then to themselves To do this effectively universities must jealously protect academic freedom from all non academic interferences For any university that does not teach a student to think critically and in total freedom has taught him or her nothing of genuine worth Universities are and must remain sacred places and spaces for the forging of genuine intellectuals imbued with skills and zeal to assume and promote social responsibilities with self abnegation
