Christian Faith B. A. Gerrish, 2015-08-24 At the beginning of Christian Faith B. A. Gerrish reminds us that dogmatics involves critical transmission of the Christian heritage The dogmatic theologian must interpret and assess the traditional beliefs of the church while also considering the new and changing conditions in which that tradition is being embodied With that Gerrish goes on to outline the various presuppositions and affirmations of the Christian faith before ultimately offering a powerful and compelling restatement of Christian faith for the twenty first century As part of his framework Gerrish includes a critical comparison of Calvin's Institutes of the Christian Religion and Schleiermacher's Christian Faith while still paying close attention to the great cloud of theological witnesses from across the spectrum of Christian traditions Gerrish's book provides a robust and penetrating revisioning of Christian theology one that is thoroughly grounded in the classical traditions of the church A Reason Open to God J. Steven Brown, 2013 With clarity and wisdom Pope Benedict XVI sets out his vision for Catholic higher education in this first and only collection of his major addresses on the topic What is the mission and identity of a Catholic university What are the responsibilities of administrators teachers and students in Catholic institutes of higher learning Where does the central theme of love of God and others fit into academia Start Here... Bill Hurt, 2019-06-13 Do you find yourself feeling frustrated because of a lack of spiritual growth in your life In such a fast paced society it is unfortunate that God often draws the short straw when it comes to our time Yet the reality of the Christian faith is that it is impossible to grow in our relationship with God if we do not spend time in prayer Bible study and reflection In Start Here author and pastor Bill Hurt gives you a road map for developing a daily devotional time with God There are one hundred daily devotions along with a scripture passage for each day This starting point will help launch you into a daily time of communion with our Creator The more you know him the more you will love him The more you love him the more you will want to serve him Start here and start now Most of us could use a little quality time with the one who knows us the best and loves us despite ourselves

Meister, 2009-06-01 It can be hard to share faith with others especially when people can't agree on whether there is even any actual truth With that in mind Chad Meister has developed a simple logical way for you to help others move past relativism to a place where Christian belief makes sense the Apologetics Pyramid In Building Belief Meister leads you up each step of the pyramid beginning where many find themselves today doubting if anything is really true From there he powerfully builds a case for absolute truth the existence of God universal morals and values the reliability and divine inspiration of the Bible the resurrection of Christ and ultimately the good news that Jesus is the Son of God who offers salvation to the world Starting Off On The

Embedded Grace Kevin M. Vander Schel, 2013-11-01 Scholars are now at work not only rethinking Schleiermachers relation to the modern and contemporary theological tradition but re-examining the dogmatic intricacies and commitments within his texts Situated within this revisionist milieu the author takes up the important issue of the coordination of grace and history in Schleiermacher arguing for its significance in understanding the dynamics of Schleiermachers dogmatics and its grounding and realization in Christology The Eternal Covenant Daniel James Pedersen, 2017-08-21 Schleiermacher's readers have long been familiar with his proposal for an eternal covenant between theology and natural science Yet there is disagreement both about what this covenant amounts to why Schleiermacher proposed it and how he meant it to be persuasive In The Eternal Covenant Pedersen argues contrary to received wisdom that the eternal covenant is not first a methodological or political proposal but is rather the end result of a complex case from the doctrine of God the notion of a world and an account of divine action With his compound case against miracles Schleiermacher secures the in principle explicability of everything in the world through natural causes However his case is not only negative Far from a mere concession the eternal covenant is an argument for what Schleiermacher calls the essential identity of ethics and natural philosophy Indeed because the nature system is both intended for love and wisely ordered the world is a supremely beautiful divine artwork and is therefore the absolute self revelation of God Schleiermacher's case is a challenging alternative to reigning accounts of God nature divine action and the relationship between religion and science

Reordering Theological Reflection Helen Collins, 2020-05-29 What would theological reflection look like if scripture were the starting point For many beginning the process of formation the bible is already a natural place to begin and models of theological reflection which start in other places can be hard to swallow All too often as a result they reject the idea of reflecting theologically altogether an outcome which is damaging for their future ministry and for the church as a whole This book to re discover the theological heart of the discipline of practical theology and develop new methods which take scripture and tradition more seriously Offering an alternative to the usual models of theological reflection this careful and helpful guide demonstrates to students the possibilities which emerge when the starting point for theological reflective practice
