European Painting and Sculpture, Ca. 1770-1937, in the Museum of Art, Rhode Island School of Design Rhode Island School of Design. Museum of Art, 1991 This documents the distinguished collection of European art from the late eighteenth through the early twentieth centuries that forms a significant part of the collections belonging to the Museum of Art Rhode Island School of Design This book includes stunning canvases by Gericault Delacroix Degas Manet Monet Cezanne Renoir Picasso and Matisse What makes the collection so noteworthy are the extraordinary works by unknown artists and the unknown works by known artists

Different Views in Hudson River School Painting Judith H. O'Toole, 2005 Hudson River School artists shared an awe of the magnificence of nature as well as a belief that the untamed American scenery reflected the national character In this new work color reproductions of more than 115 paintings capture the beauty and illuminate the aesthetic and philosophical principles of the Hudson River School painters The pieces included in this volume reflect a period 1825-1875 when American landscape painting was most thoroughly explored and formalized with personal artistic cultural and national identifications Judith Hansen O Toole reveals the subtleties and quiet majesty of the works and discusses their shared iconography the ways in which artists responded to one another's paintings and how the paintings reflected nineteenth century American cultural intellectual and social milieus Different Views is also the first major study to examine closely the Hudson River School artists practice of creating thematically related pairs and series of paintings O Toole considers painters use of this method to express different moods and philosophical concepts She observes artists representations of landscape and their nuanced depictions of weather light and season By comparing and contrasting Hudson River School paintings O Toole reveals differences in meaning emotion and cultural connotation Different Views in Hudson River School Painting contains reproductions of works from a range of prominent and lesser known artists including Jasper Francis Cropsey Sanford Robinson Gifford Asher B Durand Frederic Edwin Church Albert Bierstadt John Frederic Kensett and John William Casilear The works come from a leading private collection and were recently exhibited at the Westmoreland Museum of American Art

Seeing and Beyond Deborah J. Johnson, David Ogawa, Kermit Swiler Champa, 2005 This volume is an exciting eclectic collection of essays in honor of Kermit S Champa a leading scholar of impressionism and critic of twentieth century art The lead essay by David Carrier is followed by others from several generations of scholars and museum curators trained by Professor Champa Together they cover an extremely wide historical range from the eighteenth to twenty first centuries and honor Professor Champa's own scholarly rigor methodological diversity and intellectual breadth through topics ranging from art history to cultural studies Jacket

A Land Without Castles Thomas K. Murphy, 2001-01-01 Thomas K Murphy explores the shifting history of European attitudes toward America utilizing British and French writing from the late eighteenth through the middle of the nineteenth centuries Murphy studies a rich collage of literary philosophical and political writing by Europeans during this era The book covers four stages in the development of European attitudes traditional theories and their modification in the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries the influence of early American diplomacy on European attitudes the cultural iconography of the French Revolution and of England during this same period and the genre of the travel journal Murphy has created an interesting historiography that augments our understanding of American history but also illuminates the role that these imaginative texts about the New World played in the formation of significant social and political developments in modern European history
