Edinburgh, National Galleries of Scotland, 2011 Tony Cragg Tony Cragg, 2017 Internationally renowned British sculptor Tony Cragg 1949 is presented here through a selection of his latest sculptures as well as an overview of his graphic works showing his artistic path and creative process from the initial idea to the final object Tony Cragg has set his relations between the natural and the artificial In his work there is a momentum swinging towards the invisible and the visible Spirituality fails to be overlapped by the medium of idealistic support The materials this creator uses could be a path against himself from the outset Each one of them recycles transforms collides and produces changes to adapt to later on just like the planet's tectonic forces in orders that coexist with its instability The artist proclaims the function of the imagination beyond the mutilation of words wishing to find a vocabulary for the emotions and effects that breaks ties with positivism and favours our way of grasping the universe Tony Cragg Germano Celant, Tony Cragg, 1996 This exceptional study of Cragg's sculpture the fullest and most comprehensive to date provides a thorough visual survey of work dating from the early 1970s to the present day tracing the artist's development from his formative years at the Wimbledon School of Art through his conceptual rather than stylistic evolution of a sculptural vernacular

Tony Cragg Tony Cragg, Kirsten Claudia Voigt, Jon Wood, Christa Lichtenstern, Staatliche Kunsthalle Karlsruhe, Museum der Moderne Salzburg Mönchsberg, 2009 Tony Cragg is one of the most significant and boldest sculptors of the present day His work is characterised by a surprising and immense richness of formal inventions that also manifests itself in his drawings since the 1980s — perceptual metamorphoses of the objective world of landscape and the figure His first Early Forms were produced in the 1980s They were developed from a skin that pushes in dramatically twist dynamically and ambiguously recalls early forms of development They are sculptures of amazing suppleness — also in the group of works that revolve around the human face and its transformations In doing so the concepts of material and energy are given particular importance In more than 120 drawings as well as the most significant sculptures produced since 2000 this catalogue shows which references between micro and macro structures are central for Cragg's artistic thought and what fascinates the artist about draughtsmanship — the visualisation of the invisible of waves particles rays and currents in space between the bodies This catalogue contains a comprehensive overview of Cragg's drawings and his most important sculptures of the past eight years Published on the occasion of the exhibition Tony Cragg Drawings and Sculptures at Staatliche Kunsthalle Karlsruhe February — May 2009 and Museum der Moderne Salzburg June — October 2009 English and German
