A Light in the Storm: The Diary of Amelia Martin, Fenwick Island, Delaware, 1861 (Dear America) Karen Hesse, 2011-08-01 Newbery Medal winner Karen Hesse's Civil War diary A LIGHT IN THE STORM is now back in print with a beautiful new cover. In 1861 Amelia Martin's father is stripped of his post as a ship's captain when he is caught harboring the leader of a slave rebellion. Now he is an assistant lighthouse keeper on Fenwick Island off the coast of Delaware, a state wedged between the North and the South, just as Amelia is wedged between her warring parents. Amelia's mother blames her abolitionist husband for their living conditions, which she claims are taking a toll on her health. Amelia observes her mother's hate and her father's admiration for Abraham Lincoln. But slavery is the deeper issue separating the two sides. As the Civil War rages on, Amelia slowly learns that she cannot stop the fighting but by keeping watch in the lighthouse each day, lighting the lamps, cleaning the glass, and rescuing victims of Atlantic storms, she can still make a difference. School Library Journal, 2010

On Board RMS Titanic George Behe, 2012-02-29 It would make the stones cry to hear those on board shrieking. Daniel Buckley, third class passenger. For the first time in this moving new book, Titanic's passengers and crewmen are permitted to tell the story of that lamentable disaster entirely in their own words. Included are letters, postcards, diary entries, and memoirs that were written before, during, and immediately after the maiden voyage itself. Many of the pre-sailing documents were composed by people who later lost their lives in the sinking and represent the last communications that these people ever had with their friends and loved ones at home. The subsequent letters and postcards give an unparalleled description of the events that occurred during the five days that Titanic was at sea, and the correspondence by survivors after the tragedy describes the horror of the disaster itself and the heartbreak they experienced at the loss of those they loved. This poignant compilation by Titanic expert George Behe also contains brief biographies of the passengers and crewmen, victims as well as survivors who wrote the documents in question. American Book Publishing Record, 1998

Lost Voices from the Titanic Nick Barratt, 2024-03-26 A fascinating new book that includes first-hand accounts, many previously unpublished, from survivors of Titanic's maiden voyage. Daily Express UK: On April 15, 1912, the HMS Titanic sank, killing 1,517 people and leaving the rest clinging to debris in the frozen waters of the North Atlantic, awaiting rescue. Here, historian Nick Barratt tells the ship's full story, starting from its original conception and design by owners and naval architects at the White Star Line through its construction at the shipyards in Belfast. Lost Voices from the Titanic offers tales of incredible folly and unimaginable courage, the aspirations of the owners, the efforts of the crew, and of course, the eyewitness accounts from those lucky enough to survive. In narrating the definitive history of the famous ship, Barratt draws from never-before-seen archive material and eyewitness accounts by participants at every stage of the Titanic's life. These long-lost voices bring new life to those heartbreaking moments on the fateful Sunday night when families were torn apart and the legend of the Titanic was cemented in our collective imagination. What sets this book apart from others that have been published on this subject is that survivors are given the opportunity to tell their personal stories in their own words and unedited. The result is heartbreaking.
