Musical Childhoods Berenice Nyland,Aleksandra Acker,Jill Ferris,Jan Deans,2015-02-11 Musical Childhoods is a culmination of more than a decade of research driven by the fact that music has been neglected in early childhood programs in favour of literacy and numeracy Recent research has identified a connection between academic performance and musical programs and this has given music a renewed status in many schools This book promotes the idea of children s competence in the use of the language of music and argues that all children have a right to participate in musical discovery and celebrates children s engagement with meaningful and disparate experiences in music Written by leading practitioners and researchers in the field this book seeks to reaffirm children s communicative competence when exposed to high quality musical experience provide new perspectives on children s ability to engage with music in many diverse forms and explore and promote the role of the musician as an artist and teacher The book is structured into three parts The theoretical overview The children the musicians and the music The research through the eyes of the protagonist and looking into the future Early childhood students researchers and academics with a specific interest in music and musicality will find this an insightful read

Understanding Myths and Legends Karen Moncrieffe,2015-12-03 Understanding Myths and Legends contains 27 stories from different countries around the World ranging from Perseus and Medusa from Ancient Greece to an Indian legend on how the Peacock got his glorious feathers These exciting stories are full of fearsome monsters brave heroes and magical happenings and will appeal to both girls and boys Understanding Myths and Legends is a flexible resource that can be used to support topic work in history and RE or used as part of a unit of work in literacy The stories and activities are ideal for use in guided reading sessions To enable teachers to make the most of each story they are accompanied by background information to enable teachers to place the story confidently in context differentiated reading tasks using a variety of question styles to help improve children s reading and comprehension skills speaking and listening activities to deepen children s insight into the stories and encourage engagement cross curricular follow up ideas enabling you to extend the story further Myths and legends are not only excellent stories They also help children to gain a true understanding of life in ancient times and improve their understanding of other people cultures and places making them an essential part of the primary curriculum

Australia's Agricultural Identity - an Aboriginal Yarn Joshua Gilbert,2025-05-27 Yarning across history and into the future Joshua Gilbert explores a new approach to Indigenous culture and farming combining ancient knowledge and practices with new technology and insights Starting from his own Worimi Country where his family history is captured in the journals of the Australian Agricultural Company among the earliest written records of agricultural practice on this continent Josh listens to yarns about the farming that has always been and continues to take place on that Country which demonstrate that Indigenous culture is not static it can account for and inform our approaches to land and climate even as they are changing As he contemplates these stories and histories Josh seeks to provide a new understanding that

Australians as a nation of farmers and land managers need to develop our agricultural system into one where Indigenous and Western knowledges converge One where we acknowledge the realities of Australia s farming heritage both positive and negative and find ways to feed our population while caring for Country and ensuring the livelihood of Australia s farming towns He explores what it means to be an Aboriginal person today what it means to be a farmer and even what it means to say you are Australian Where these notions overlap and how we might start to weave a common story that brings together all these ideas So that we can create a truly Australian agricultural yarn one that we all build together Aboriginal Legend Plays Elizabeth Swasbrook,1997 Plays written to develop an understanding of Aboriginal Australian heritage and culture Headdresses and animal craft activities supplement the plays and provide a fun alternative to extravagant casting and props Can be used in daily classroom situations to consolidate teaching points or as an assembly or concert item Assessing Children's Writing Kate Allott,2019-02-11 This book provides the support that trainee and beginning teachers need to enable them to teach and assess writing The book covers all the main aspects of writing both compositional and transcriptional including those where the National Curriculum has very little detail Secretive Century Tessa Morris-Suzuki,2024-06-18 Monte grew up in a secretive century She lived in a society where appearances mattered and keeping them up often involved creating silence around ancestral origins painful memories and personal desires Monte Punshon refused to be labelled She was at various times Ethel May Punshon Miss Montague Monte Mickey and Erica Morley Punshon moving effortlessly from the Methodist respectability of bourgeois Ballarat to the bohemian world of children s travelling theatre from patriotic amateur acting to pioneering radio work from a dear old lady with perfect nineteenth century diction to the bad girl who frequented edgy Melbourne bars playing a lively part in the secret drag parties of 1930s queer Melbourne There were social as well as personal reasons for her concealment In a life that spanned more than a century 1882 to 1989 Monte Punshon witnessed crucial events in Australia s history and her story shines a light on the hidden corners and complexities of late nineteenth and twentieth century society In this imaginative biography Tessa Morris Suzuki brings to life a woman who was unafraid to be and who accepted willingly the price of her liberation Discovering the Self Through Drama and Movement Jenny Pearson,1996 This is a detailed account of the theory and practice of the Sesame Method The contributors describe how they use the method through therapy sessions with various clients from people with learning disabilities to children who have been abused Australian Books in Print ,1987 Children's Books in Print ,2007 ,2006 Social Studies Anthology ,1998 A collection of stories and songs from around the world A audiocassette with recordings of some of the speeches and songs is included

Adopting the Tune of Expression: An Emotional Symphony within Tiddalik The Frog Story Activities

In a world eaten by monitors and the ceaseless chatter of instantaneous communication, the melodic splendor and mental symphony developed by the written term usually fade into the back ground, eclipsed by the constant sound and disturbances that permeate our lives.
