Time And The Art Of Living:

Time and the Art of Living Robert Grudin,1997-09 This is a book about time about one s own journey through it and more important about enlarging the pleasure one takes in that journey It s about memory of the past hope and fear for the future and how they color for better and for worse one s experience of the present Ultimately it s a book about freedom freedom from despair of the clock of the aging body of the seeming waste of one s daily routine the freedom that comes with acceptance and appreciation of the human dimensions of time and of the place of each passing moment on life s bounteous continuum For Robert Grudin living is an art and cultivating a creative partnership with time is one of the keys to mastering it In a series of wise witty and playful meditations he suggests that happiness lies not in the effort to conquer time but rather in learning to bend to its curve in hearing its music and learning to dance to it Grudin offers practical advice and mental exercises designed to help the reader use time more effectively but this is no ordinary self help book It is instead a kind of wisdom literature a guide to life a feast for the mind and for the spirit

Time and the Art of Living Robert Grudin,1988
The Art of Living Foundation Stephen Jacobs,2016-03-09 The Hindu derived meditation movement The Art of Living AOL founded in 1981 by Sri Sri Ravi Shankar in Bangalore has grown into a global organization which claims presence in more than 150 countries Stephen Jacobs presents the first comprehensive study of AOL as an important transnational movement and an alternative global spirituality Exploring the nature and characteristics of spirituality in the contemporary global context Jacobs considers whether alternative spiritualities are primarily concerned with individual wellbeing and can simply be regarded as another consumer product The book concludes that involvement in movements such as AOL is not necessarily narcissistic but can foster a sense of community and inspire altruistic activity
