Veertig Jaar Na 45 Visies Op Het Hedendaagse Antisemitisme:

The Holocaust, Israel and 'the Jew' Evelien Gans, Remco Ensels, 2025-10-01 This book is the first comprehensive study of postwar antisemitism in the Netherlands. It focuses on the way stereotypes are passed on from one decade to the next as reflected in public debates, the mass media, protests and commemorations, and everyday interactions. The Holocaust, Israel and the Jew explores the ways in which old stories and phrases relating to the stereotypical Jew are recycled and modified for new uses, linking the antisemitism of the early postwar years to its enduring manifestations in today's world. The Dutch case is interesting because of the apparent contrast between the Netherlands' famous tradition of tolerance and the large numbers of Jews who were deported and murdered in the Second World War. The book sheds light on the dark side of this so-called Dutch paradox in manifestations of aversion and guilt after 1945. In this context, the abusive taunt 'They forgot to gas you' can be seen as the first radical expression of postwar antisemitism, as well as an indication of how the Holocaust came to be turned against the Jews. The identification of the Jew with the gas chamber spread from the streets to football stadiums and from verbal abuse to pamphlet and protest. The slogan 'Hamas, Hamas! All the Jews to the gas' indicates that Israel became a second marker of postwar antisemitism. The chapters cover themes including soccer-related antisemitism, Jewish responses, philosemitism, antisemitism in Dutch Moroccan and Dutch Turkish communities, contentious acts of remembrance, the neo-Nazi tradition, and the legacy of Theo van Gogh. The book concludes with a lengthy epilogue on the Jew in the politics of the radical right, the attacks in Paris in 2015, and the refugee crisis. The stereotype of the Jew appears to be transferable to other minorities.

Anti-Judaism and the Fourth Gospel Reimund Bieringer, Didier Pollefeyt, Frederique Vandecasteele-Vanneuville, 2001-01-01 A selection of essays from the Leuven Conference on the anti-Judaism of the fourth gospel; this volume includes essays from the world's best Johannine scholars.

Reappraising the History of the Jews in the Netherlands Hans Blom, David J. Wertheim, Hetty Berg, Bart T. Waljet, 2021-09-15 The two decades since the last authoritative general history of Dutch Jews was published have seen such substantial developments in historical understanding that new assessment has become an imperative. This volume offers an indispensable survey from a contemporary viewpoint that reflects the new preoccupations of European historiography and allows the history of Dutch Jewry to be more integrated with that of other European Jewish histories. Historians from both older and newer generations shed significant light on all eras, providing fresh detail that reflects changed emphases and perspectives. In addition to such traditional subjects as the Jewish community's relationship with the wider society and its internal structure, its leaders, and its international affiliations, new topics explored include the socio-economic aspects of Dutch Jewish life seen in the context of the integration of minorities, more widely, a reassessment of the Holocaust years, and consideration of the place of Holocaust memorialization in community life and the impact of multiculturalist currents on Jews and Jewish politics. Memory studies, diaspora studies, postcolonial studies, and digital humanities all play their part in providing the fullest possible picture. This wide-ranging
