Verdun 1916 Antoine Prost:

Jewish Soldiers in the Collective Memory of Central Europe Gerald Lamprecht, Eleonore Lappin-Eppel, Ulrich Wyrwa, 2019-04-15 World War I marks a huge break in Central European Jewish history Not only had the violent wartime events destroyed Jewish life and especially the living space of Eastern European Jews but the impacts of war the geopolitical change and a radicalization of anti-Semitism also led to a crisis of Jewish identity Furthermore during the process of national self discovery and the establishing of new states the societal position of the Jews and their relationship to the state had to be redefined These partially violent processes which were always accompanied by anti-Semitism evoked Jewish and Gentile debates in which questions about Jewish loyalty to the old and or new states as well as concepts of Jewish identity under the new political circumstances were negotiated This volume collects articles dealing with these Jewish and gentile debates about military service and war memory in Central Europe

On a Knife Edge Holger Afflerbach, 2022-10-20 A fundamental reassessment of German politics and strategy during the First World War and why it was that Germany lost

Writing the Great War Christoph Cornelissen, Arndt Weinrich, 2022-11-11 From the Treaty of Versailles to the 2018 centenary and beyond the history of the First World War has been continually written and rewritten studied and contested producing a rich historiography shaped by the social and cultural circumstances of its creation Writing the Great War provides a groundbreaking survey of this vast body of work assembling contributions on a variety of national and regional historiographies from some of the most prominent scholars in the field By analyzing perceptions of the war in contexts ranging from Nazi Germany to India's struggle for independence this is an illuminating collective study of the complex interplay of memory and history

Edinburgh Companion to the First World War and the Arts Ann-Marie Einhaus, 2017-05-24 A new exploration of literary and artistic responses to WWI from 1914 to the present This authoritative reference work examines literary and artistic responses to the war's upheavals across a wide range of media and genres from poetry to pamphlets sculpture to television documentary and requiems to war reporting Rather than looking at particular forms of artistic expression in isolation and focusing only on the war and inter war period the 26 essays collected in this volume approach artistic responses to the war from a wide variety of angles and where appropriate pursue their inquiry into the present day In 6 sections covering Literature the Visual Arts Music Periodicals and Journalism Film and Broadcasting and Publishing and Material Culture a wide range of original chapters from experts across literature and the arts examine what means and approaches were employed to respond to the shock of war as well as asking such key questions as how and why literary and artistic responses to the war have changed over time and how far later works of art are responses not only to the war itself but to earlier cultural production

Key Features Offers new insights into the breadth and depth of artistic responses to WWI Establishes links and parallels across a wide range of different media and genres Emphasises the development of responses in different fields from 1914 to the present
