Chief Kimberling to step down

Chief Kimberling said yesterday that he was retiring as chief of the Colony Volunteer Fire Department effective July 2.

Kimberling said he made the decision because he feels that three years is long enough on the job and will be much more away from his family.

The present Assistant Chief Jack Soder and will be Kimberling's successor in the department as a volunteer fireman.

Kimberling read a resignation statement at a press conference called to refuse charges against Fire Department officers that appeared Sunday in a Lawrence newspaper. The charges were leveled by three anonymous letters sent to the department.

Kimberling also said that a meeting is planned with the "city fathers" to discuss a proposal for the city to take over the Fire Department. Under the plan the city would have financial responsibility for the department and the Fire Department would retain operational responsibility.

City Council member Gene Pollard said under the plan the Fire Department would elect its own officers. Pollard said in his statement that he was speaking for himself and the City Council.

Councilman Chad Davis said that the Fire Department would work up its budget for council approval.

Kimberling said a fund drive is near for the department's $125,000 operating budget, adding that $5,000 was collected in contributions last year.

The chief said contributions alone couldn't provide for fire protection needed for the growing city. Five more fire stations and equipment for them will be needed, he said.

Pollard said the city needs more control over the Fire Department but can't fully fund it now. He can't see a paid Fire Department for several years.

Kimberling said he called for press conference to refute the article in the Lawrence newspaper paragraph-by-paragraph and added that the CVFD is one of the best in Denton County.

The chief said it was "other members" that the three anonymous department members wanted to accuse of misdeeds because they feared reprisals. "The worst all-around call," he said.

To the charge that equipment was unnecessarily destroyed in fighting flames Chief Kimberling said that in one fire with flames coming out the walls that was the only way to battle it.

On the matter of training, Kimberling said little training is done at the Fire Station, but most is done in the field. He added that often firemen are vacation time to go to fire schools and help pay their own expenses.

To the charge that Fire Department members were used by family members, Kimberling said that he had read for the "chief's ear out of our own pocket."

On the matter of poor training records being kept, Kimberling said the training files were open to all.

Baptists to hold school in June

The Colony First Baptist Church will hold a Vacation Bible School from 9 a.m. till noon June 12-23.

Registration for people in grades one through six will be held at the church from 9 a.m. till noon June 12.

The school is open to all elementary school children in the Colony and is "an opportunity for the children to learn about the love of God through the Bible," said Bill Taylor, pastor, said.

Voters will mark ballots Saturday

Who will be the election judge when Democratic voters in Precinct 24 go to the polls Saturday in the runoff election held in the Colony First Station?

"I was I know," Louis Varhough, Democratic Party chairman in Denton County, said Tuesday night.

Louis Doughty was election judge in the first primary held May 7 but said he couldn't serve Saturday. Tim Varhough said, "It's a mystery which one of these names would be replacement but all said they couldn't serve," Tim Varhough said.

Mr. Doughty did make all the arrangements and wanted election workers for the election to be held from 7 a.m. till 7 p.m., Mr. Varhough said.

"I never heard of it before," Mr. Varhough said of the unusual situation. "I've been involved in Democratic primary elections since the 1940s."

But the Precinct 24 election will go on because it is possible under a new law to bring an election judge from outside the precinct if necessary.

Registration voters in Precinct 24 will also cast ballots at the First Station, which serves as the election judge.

In the first primary both Republicans and Democrats voted at County Elementary School.

When Democratic voters in Precinct 24 go to the polls at the Little Blue Community Center, reportedly there will be a different election judge from the first primary. Fred Nickay said Tuesday that he expected to conduct the election, because his wife, Betty, the election judge, was in California where a member of her family was ill.

Nickay said the ballot apparently would be sent. Democratic voters will choose between Lloyd Gable and Bill Moore for county commissioner, for Precinct 2, Lou Daring and Jerry John Crawford for each other in the county judge race.
