Masculinities and Manhood in Contemporary Irish Drama Cormac O'Brien, 2021-12-10 This book charts the journey in terms of both stasis and change that masculinities and manhood have made in Irish drama and by extension in the broader culture and society from the 1960s to the present Examining a diverse corpus of drama and theatre events both mainstream and on the fringe this study critically elaborates a seismic shift in Irish masculinities This book argues then that Irish manhood has shifted from embodying and enacting post colonial concerns of nationalism and national identity to performing models of masculinity that are driven and moulded by the political and cultural practices of neoliberal capitalism Masculinities and Manhood in Contemporary Irish Drama charts this shift through chapters on performing masculinity in plays set in both the Irish Republic and Northern Ireland and through several chapters that focus on Women's and Queer drama It thus takes its readers on a journey a journey that begins with an overtly patriarchal nationalist manhood that often made direct comment on the state of the nation and ultimately arrives at several arguably regressive forms of globalised masculinity which are couched in misaligned notions of individualism and free choice and that frequently perceive themselves as being in crisis

Irish Drama, Modernity and the Passion Play Alexandra Poulain, 2017-01-19 This book discusses Irish Passion plays plays that rewrite or parody the story of the Passion of Christ in modern Irish drama from the Irish Literary Revival to the present day It offers innovative readings of such canonical plays as J M Synge's The Playboy of the Western World W B Yeats's Calvary Brendan Behan's The Hostage Samuel Beckett's Endgame Brian Friel's Faith Healer and Tom Murphy's Bailegangaire as well as of less well known plays by Padraic Pearse Lady Gregory G B Shaw Seán O'Casey Denis Johnston Samuel Beckett and David Lloyd Challenging revisionist readings of the rhetoric of blood sacrifice and martyrdom in the Irish Republican tradition it argues that the Passion play is a powerful political genre which centres on the staged death of the usually male protagonist and makes visible the usually invisible violence perpetrated both by colonial power and by the postcolonial state in the name of modernity

needless divergence of critical focus between affect and cognition ethics and prudential action Firmly situated in new historicist practices prudential psychology goes beyond narrow discourses of power into the all encompassing arena of virtue as the complete life which recommends an interdisciplinary approach for a fuller understanding of Shakespeare's works
