The Colony Audrey Magee,2022-05-17 LONGLISTED FOR THE BOOKER PRIZE Luminous Jonathan Myerson The Guardian Vivid thought provoking Malcolm Forbes Star Tribune In 1979 as violence erupts all over Ireland two outsiders travel to a small island off the west coast in search of their own answers despite what it may cost the islanders It is the summer of 1979 An English painter travels to a small island off the west coast of Ireland Mr Lloyd takes the last leg by currach though boats with engines are available and he doesn t much like the sea He wants the authentic experience to be changed by this place to let its quiet and light fill him give him room to create He doesn t know that a Frenchman follows close behind Jean Pierre Masson has visited the island for many years studying the language of those who make it their home He is fiercely protective of their isolation deems it essential to exploring his theories of language preservation and identity But the people who live on this rock three miles long and half a mile wide have their own views on what is being recorded what is being taken and what ought to be given in return Over the summer each of them from great grandmother Bean U Fhloinn to widowed Mair ad to fifteen year old James who is determined to avoid the life of a fisherman will wrestle with their values and desires Meanwhile all over Ireland violence is erupting And there is blame enough to go around An expertly woven portrait of character and place a stirring investigation into yearning to find one's way and an unflinchingly political critique of the long seething cost of imperialism Audrey Magee's The Colony is a novel that transports that celebrates beauty and connection and that reckons with the inevitable ruptures of independence Trauma & Memory Christine Berberich, 2021-03-31 Over the past decades the memory of the Holocaust has not only become a common cultural consciousness but also a cultural property shared by people all over the world This collection brings together academics critics and creative practitioners from the fields of Holocaust Studies Literature History Media Studies Creative Writing and German Studies to discuss contemporary trends in Holocaust commemoration and representation in literature film TV the entertainment industry and social media The essays in this trans disciplinary collection debate how contemporary culture engages with the legacy of the Holocaust now that 75 years on from the end of the Second World War the number of actual survivors is dwindling It engages with ongoing cultural debates in Holocaust Studies that have seen a development from largely testimonial presentations of the Holocaust to more fictional narratives both in literature and film In addition to a number of chapters focusing in particular on literary trends in Holocaust representation the collection also assesses other forms of cultural production surrounding the Holocaust ranging from recent official memorialisation in Germany to Holocaust presentation in film computer games and social media The collection also highlights the contributions by creative practitioners such as writers and performers who use drama and the traditional art of storytelling in order to keep memories alive and pass them on to new generations The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of Holocaust Studies A Journal of Culture and History Kaapse bibliotekaris, 2018 Issues for Nov 1957 include section Accessions Aanwinste Sept 1957 Whitaker's Shorts 2015: The Year in Review Bloomsbury Publishing, 2014-11-20 Now in its 147th edition Whitaker's Almanack is the definitive reference guide containing a comprehensive overview of every aspect of UK infrastructure and an excellent introduction to world politics Available only as ebooks Whitaker's Shorts are selected themed sections from Whitaker's Almanack 2015 portable and perfect for those with specific interests within the print edition Whitaker's Shorts 2015 The Year in Review includes a digest of the 2013-14 year's events in the UK and abroad and articles covering subjects as diverse as Archaeology Conservation Business and Finance Opera Dance Film and Weather There is also an A-Z listing of all the results for the major sporting events from Alpine Skiing through to Fencing Football Horse Racing Polo and Tennis Terrorizing Images Charles Ivan Armstrong, Unni Langas, 2020-09-07 It is broadly accepted that terrorizing images are often instrumentalized in periods of conflict to serve political interests This volume proposes that paying attention to how images of trauma and conflict are described in literary texts i.e. to the rhetorical practice known as ekphrasis is crucial to our understanding of how such images work The volume's contributors discuss verbal images of trauma and terror in literary texts both from a contemporary perspective and as historical artefacts in order to illuminate the many different functions of ekphrasis in literature The articles in this volume reflect the vast developments in the field of trauma studies since the 1990s a field that has recently broadened to include genres beyond the memoir and testimony and that lends itself well to new postcolonial feminist and multimedia approaches By expanding the scholarly understanding of how images of trauma are described interpreted and acted out in literary texts this collected volume makes a significant contribution to both trauma and memory studies as well as more broadly to cultural studies
