Finding Common Ground Ian Boxill, 2023-06-06 This book Finding Common Ground Selected Newspaper Columns of Ian Boxill 1993 2000 literally represents the best articles written by Ian Boxill over a period of seven years March 1993 to August 2000 on the opinion page of the Daily Gleaner in Jamaica The book seeks more so than the individual articles themselves which were written with the general public in mind to help graduates across the Caribbean region fulfil that obligation to become habitual readers and writers The hope is that they will not only read on matters relating to their own training and work but also on issues of interest and concern to society in general and to the world today In particular the book also targets pre university and first year university students especially those enrolled in degrees that involve basic or advanced expository or argumentative writing In addition it lends itself to 6th form students those in community colleges teacher training colleges and other tertiary level institutions who are learning to formulate and express a personal but informed opinion in speech or writing on topical events From the Editor's Preface The Publishers Weekly, 2009 Visionary Worlds Lee Irwin, 1996-03-07 Visionary Worlds examines the role and significance of imagination and the myth making processes that engage human beings in constructing a viable living world of meaningful relations beliefs and social interactions In this process of world building we each draw on a wide variety of ideologies religious philosophical aesthetic or scientific which often conflict and clash with one another in the struggle to evolve a coherent and meaningful worldview This unpredictable and fallible process often requires considerable readjustment or revisions as the complexities of an increasingly pluralistic society impinge upon us with greater divergence and multiplicity This work examines the ways in which we all make and unmake our reality as part of the challenge of seeking greater spiritual maturity and relatedness to others

The Ancient-Future Visionary Robert E. Webber,2025-01-28 Are we too comfortable with traditional forms of worship Are these forms truly historical or are they man made distortions of God s prescribed ecclesial order Do our accepted methods work against the functioning of the local church in its mission to evangelize and disciple rather than enhance it Join the late Dr Robert E Webber in this compilation of previously published articles and uncollected addresses as he discusses with characteristic humor and candor the diverse aspects of ancient and contemporary worship practices from the church in its infancy to the advent of the contemporary megachurch movement As in his many books including Worship is a Verb and Worship Old New Webber explores the attitudes and liturgies through which we approach a loving God Webber might infuriate or delight or both but he always stimulates

Citizenship and Political Education Today J. Demaine,2004-11-10 Citizenship and Political Education Today brings together a collection of essays from around the world including discussion of politics and education in Australia The United States of America New Zealand Norway England France Germany and the wider European Union The contributors discuss vital and interesting issues involved in the engagement of citizens in politics and political institutions and the role of education in encouraging education for citizenship The book is an important contribution to ongoing debates on citizenship

A Better World is Possible Bruce Nixon,2011-10-28 This book is about the global environmental and economic crisis It challenges the whole global economic system and its underlying beliefs assumptions and values We need a complete system transformation a paradigm shift This requires holistic and whole system thinking It is a thoroughly hopeful book The focus is on the possibility of a better world a more fulfilling way of life rather than what s wrong or what we have to give up Could this book be the best one on the global environmental and economic crisis The central argument is that we ordinary people 6 7 billion of us need to use our people power to bring about a sustainable fairer and non violent world This means putting our governments under constant pressure to do more and represent citizens interests and not those of big business There are many books about the global crisis But few aimed at empowering ordinary people take a holistic approach It is for those many people who are concerned open minded and ready to act
