Vitamin D New Perspectives In Drawing By Emma Dexter:

The Story of Drawing Susan Owens, 2024-09-10 Drawing is at the heart of human creativity The most democratic form of art making it requires nothing more than a plain surface and a stub of pencil a piece of chalk or an inky brush Our prehistoric ancestors drew with natural pigments on the walls of caves and every subsequent culture has practised drawing whether on papyrus parchment or paper Artists throughout history have used drawing as part of the creative process While painting and sculpture have been shaped heavily by money and influence drawing has always offered extraordinary creative latitude Here we see the artist at his or her most unguarded Susan Owens offers a glimpse over artists shoulders from Michelangelo Rembrandt and Hokusai to Van Gogh K the Kollwitz and Yayoi Kusama as they work think and innovate as they scrutinise the world around them or escape into their imaginations The Story of Drawing loops around the established history of art sometimes staying close at other times diving into exhilarating and altogether less familiar territory Drawing

Investigations Sarah Casey, Gerry Davies, 2020-06-11 Using close visual analysis of drawings artist interviews critical analysis and exegesis Drawing Investigations examines how artists use drawing as an investigative tool to reveal information that would otherwise remain unseen and unnoticed How does drawing add shape to ideas How does the artist accommodate to challenges and restraints of a particular environment To what extent is a drawing complementary and continuous with its subject and where is it disruptive and provocative Casey and Davies address these questions while focusing on artists working collaboratively and the use of drawing in challenging or unexpected environments Drawing Investigations evaluates the emergence of a way of thinking among an otherwise disconnected group of artists by exploring commonalities in the application of analytical drawing to the natural world urban environment social forces and lived experience Examples represent a spectrum of research in international contexts an oceanographic Institute in California the archives of Amsterdam s Rijksmuseum the Antarctic Survey geothermal research in Japan and the Kurdish diaspora in Iraq Issues are situated in the contemporary theory and practice of drawing including relationships to historical precedents By exploring drawing s capacity to capture and describe experience to sharpen visual faculties and to bridge embodied and conceptual knowledge Drawing Investigations offers a fresh critical perspective on contemporary drawing practice

Archaeology of the Contemporary World Paul Graves-Brown, Rodney Harrison, Angela Piccini, 2013-10-17 It has been clear for many years that the ways in which archaeology is practised have been a direct product of a particular set of social cultural and historical circumstances archaeology is always carried out in the present More recently however many have begun to consider how archaeological techniques might be used to reflect more directly on the contemporary world itself how we might undertake archaeologies of as well as in the present This Handbook is the first comprehensive survey of an exciting and rapidly expanding sub field and provides an authoritative overview of the newly emerging focus on the archaeology of the present and recent past In addition to detailed archaeological case studies it includes essays by scholars working on the relationships of different disciplines to the archaeology of the contemporary world including anthropology psychology philosophy historical geography science and technology studies communications and media ethnoarchaeology forensic archaeology sociology film performance and contemporary art This volume seeks to explore the boundaries of an emerging sub discipline to develop a tool kit of concepts and methods which are applicable to this new field and to suggest important future trajectories for research It makes a significant intervention by drawing together scholars working on a broad range of themes approaches methods and case studies from diverse contexts in different parts of the world which have not previously been considered collectively

NATØ: Narrative Architecture in Postmodern London Claire Jamieson, 2017-01-20
Chronicling the last radical architectural group of the twentieth century NAT Narrative Architecture Today who emerged from the Architectural Association at the start of the 1980s this book explores the group's work which echoed a wider artistic and literary culture that drew on the specific political social and physical condition of 1980s London It traces NAT's identification with a particular stream of post punk postmodern expression a celebration of the abject an aesthetic of entropy and a do it yourself provisionality NAT has most often been documented in reference to Nigel Coates the instigator of NAT which has led to a one sided one dimensional record of NAT's place in architectural history This book sets out a more detailed contextual history of NAT told through photographs drawings and ephemera restoring a truer polyvocal narrative of the group's ethos and development

Contemporary Drawing Margaret Davidson, 2011-04-19 Drawing is experiencing an unparalleled surge in the art world Past notions that once defined drawing as being a preparatory stage for painting or sculpture have long since been cast aside Drawing is now fully recognized as its own art form in the biennials art fairs museum exhibitions and beyond Drawing has come of age Contemporary artists are increasingly discovering that drawing is something unique and different from painting It is an intense sensitive compelling personal and utterly direct art form one with its own concepts characteristics and techniques In addition contemporary drawing is not governed by any particular imagery but rather encompasses a variety of approaches including realist abstract modernist and post modernist Contemporary Drawing delves into the essential and far reaching concepts of this medium exploring surface mark space composition scale materials and intentionality in turn Key techniques such as using nature to induce marks and working with a checklist to determine a drawing's problems are introduced throughout Plus an in depth chapter examines a number of artists such as William Kentridge and Gego who are breaking traditional boundaries that separate one artistic discipline from another Lushly illustrated by a wide range of highly accomplished contemporary artists Contemporary Drawing offers a broad perspective on this expansive and energized field of art

Documentary Comics Nina Mickwitz, 2016-04-29 Can comics be documentary and can documentary take the form of and thus be comics Examining comics as documentary this book challenges the persistent assumption that ties documentary to recording technologies and instead engages an understanding of the category in terms of narrative performativity and witnessing Through a cluster of early twenty first century comics Nina Mickwitz argues that these comics share a documentary ambition to visually narrate and represent aspects and events of the real world

Dwell, 2006-05 At Dwell we're staging a minor revolution We think that it's possible to live in a house or apartment by a bold modern architect to own furniture and products that are exceptionally well designed and still be a regular human being We think that good design is an integral part of real life And that real life has been conspicuous by its absence in most design and architecture magazines

Gaps and the Creation of Ideas Judith Seligson, 2021-03-08 Gaps and the Creation of Ideas An Artist's Book is a portrait of the space between things whether they be neurons quotations comic book frames or fragments in a collage This twenty year project is an artist's book that juxtaposes quotations and images from hundreds of artists and writers with the author's own thoughts Using Adobe InDesign for composition and layout the author has structured the book to show analogies among disparate texts and images There have always been gaps but a focus on the space between things is virtually synonymous with modernity Often characterized as a break modernity is a story of gaps Around 1900 many independent strands of gap thought and experience interacted and interwove more intricately Atoms textiles theories women Jews collage poetry patchwork and music figure prominently in these strands The gap is a ubiquitous phenomenon that crosses the boundaries of neuroscience rabbinic thinking modern literary criticism art popular culture and the structure of matter This book explores many subjects but it is ultimately a work of art

Drawing Difference Marsha Meskimmon, Phil Sawdon, 2016-03-24 Drawing has been growing in recognition and stature within contemporary fine art since the mid 1970s Simultaneously feminist activism has been widespread leading to the increased prominence of women artists scholars critics and curators and the wide acknowledgement of the crucial role played by gender and sexual difference in constituting the subject Drawing Difference argues that these developments did not occur in parallel simply by coincidence Rather the intimate interplay between drawing and feminism is best characterised as allotropic a term originating in chemistry that describes a single pure element which nevertheless assumes varied physical structures denoting the fundamental affinities which underlie apparently differing material forms The book takes as its starting point three works from the 1970s by Annette Messager Dorothea Rockburne and Carolee Schneeman that are used to exemplify critical developments in feminist art history and key moments for drawing as a means of expression Throughout the chapters these works are further explored in relation to the contemporary drawing practices of Marco Maggi Sian Bowen Susan Hauptmann Cornelia Parker Christoph Fink and Toba Khedouri Their works are shown to be re iterative sites where mark making differs with each appearance yet retains certain essential features Dividing its analysis into the themes Approaching Tropes and Coinciding the book analyses how both drawing and feminist discourse emphasise dialogue matter and openness It demonstrates how sexual difference subjectivity and drawing are connected at an elemental level and thus how drawing has played a vital role in the articulation of the material and conceptual dynamics of feminism
