Macmillan's Magazine ,1876 Reflections on Communication, Education, Scholarship, and Life Xin-An Lu,2003-07
Our actions in education business and government are no longer guided by conscious ideals but by entrenched practices that are products of expediency indolence and even tyranny Inveterate and ubiquitous problems abound Students hate school Employees dislike their jobs Professors become disinclined toward teaching Boredom and procrastination are everywhere There are promotion requirements such as scholarly publications by college professors that promote nothing and benefit none except to move the person into the next nominal category along the spectrum of the organizational ladder We are plagued with senseless competitive patterns and numerical evaluations that make life a mere matter of rat race the winning of which does not uplift us into the sublimity of humanity but trammel us in the degradation of being rats Essays in this book reflect on and search for answers to widespread and inveterate problems that degenerate modern life into mere livelihood Products in sober solitude rather than in the societal cacophony most essays in the book were written during the author s doctoral studies The Phrenological Journal and Life Illustrated ,1870 Debates and Proceedings of the Constitutional Convention of the State of California, Convened at the City of Sacramento, Saturday, September 28, 1878 California.
