Women in China's Long Twentieth Century Gail Hershat, 2007-03-29 An important and much needed introduction to this rich and fast growing field Hershat has handled a daunting task with aplomb Susan L. Glosser author of Chinese Visions of Family and State 1915 1953 Everyday Masculinities in 21st-Century China Magdalena Wong, 2020-05-04 Everyday Masculinities in 21st Century China The Making of Able Responsible Men argues that a moral dimension in Chinese masculinity is of growing significance in fast changing China Able responsible men those who can create wealth and shoulder responsibilities have replaced the moneyed elite of the earlier reform and opening up era as the dominant male ideal With vivid and highly readable case studies Wong presents a compelling account of the forces that coerce men to live up to the able responsible standard She demonstrates the impact this pressure has on the lives of not only boys and men but also on women and shows how it invites both complicit and resistant reactions The book lays bare the socio political context that nurtures the cultural expressions of hegemonic masculinity under the rule of Xi Jinping The president himself has emerged in public consciousness as the embodiment of the ideal able responsible man Based on anthropological fieldwork in Nanchong Sichuan the book provides new perspectives on many topical issues that China faces These include urbanization labour migration the one child policy love and marriage gender and intergenerational dynamics hierarchical male relationships and the rise of mass displays of nationalism In this richly informative book Dr Wong gives us an intimate picture of masculinities in a contemporary Chinese city She explores the role of wealth in definitions of masculinity the moral dimension in gender imagery the changing desires of women and the role of the state including a striking account of the gender strategies of President Xi More than a local study this book provides valuable ideas for understanding gender men and masculinities in the contemporary world Raewyn Connell University of Sydney Magdalena Wong asks wonderful original questions Her study might be one of the most pioneering investigations into Chinese family relations I have read The strength of her book lies in its insight into kinship and cultural continuities and changes The rich nuanced case studies can make her book become an important addition to our ongoing studies on Chinese family William Jankowiak University of Nevada Las Vegas Gender and Sexuality in Modern Chinese History Susan L. Mann, 2011-09-19 Gender and sexuality have been neglected topics in the history of Chinese civilization despite the fact that there is a massive amount of historical evidence on the subject China's late imperial government was arguably more concerned about gender and sexuality among its subjects than any other pre modern state How did these and other late imperial legacies shape twentieth century notions of gender and sexuality in modern China Susan Mann answers this by focusing on state policy ideas about the physical body and notions of sexuality and difference in China's recent history from medicine to the theater to the gay bars from law to art and sports More broadly the book shows how changes in attitudes toward sex and gender in China during the twentieth century have cast a new light on the process of becoming modern while simultaneously challenging the universalizing assumptions of Western modernity

Women Writers in Postsocialist China Kay Schaffer, Xianlin Song, 2013-07-31 What does it mean to read from elsewhere Women Writers in Postsocialist China introduces readers to a range and variety of contemporary Chinese women's writing which has seen phenomenal growth in recent years The book addresses the different ways women's issues are understood in China and the West attending to the processes of translation adaptation and the grafting of new ideas with existing Chinese understandings of gender feminism subjectivity consumerism and post modernism By focusing on women's autobiographical biographical fictional and historical writing the book engages in a transcultural flow of ideas between western and indigenous Chinese feminisms Taking account of the accretions of social cultural geographic literary economic and political movements and trends cultural formations and ways of thinking it asks how the texts and the concepts they negotiate might be understood in the social and cultural spaces within China and how they might be interpreted differently elsewhere in the global locations in which they circulate The book argues that women centred writing in China has a direct bearing on global feminist theory and practice This critical study of selected genres and writers highlights the shifts in feminist perspectives within contemporary local and global cultural landscapes Engendering the Woman Question: Men, Women, and Writing in China's Early Periodical Press Yun Zhang, 2020-08-31 In Engendering the Woman Question Zhang Yun adopts a new approach to examining the early Chinese women's periodical press Rather than seeing this new print and publishing genre as a gendered site coded as either feminine or masculine this book approaches it as a mixed gender public space where both men and women were intellectually active and involved in dynamic interactions to determine the contours of their discursive encounters Drawing upon a variety of novel textual modes such as polemical essays historical biography public speech and expository essays this book opens a window onto men's and women's gender specific approaches to a series of prominent topics central to the Chinese woman question in the early twentieth century American Book Publishing Record, 2007 Reports of the President and the Treasurer John Simon Guggenheim Memorial Foundation, 2008 Includes biographies of fellows appointed reappointments publications musical compositions academic appointments and index of fellows 中国现代文学研究丛刊, 2007 中国现代文学研究丛刊 2010 Historical Abstracts, 1998 Bindings, 1998 Encyclopedia of Associations, Volume 1 Alan Hedblad, 2003 Building Women's Studies Collections Association of College and Research Libraries.
