Women in the Middle Elaine M. Brody, 2006-03-16 Daughters are the main caregivers to elderly disabled parents most often in their middle years and are caught in the middle of multiple competing demands on their time and energy Dr Brody revisits this phenomenon in this updated edition of her groundbreaking work The Making of the Jewish Middle Class Marion A. Kaplan, 1991 Describes the life of Jewish middle class women in Wilhelmine Germany Pp 148 152 Anti Semitism in the University state that until about 1905 women students discriminated against because of their sex tended to show solidarity by forming organizations open to all in contrast to the segregated male students organizations Russian Jewish women were especially despised even by German Jewish male students Pp 182 185 describe discrimination against Jewish teachers noting that their chances of employment were highly limited See also the index under Anti Semitism Women in Nineteenth-Century Europe Rachel Fuchs, Victoria E. Thompson, 2004-11-21 During the nineteenth century European women of all countries and social classes experienced dramatic and enduring changes in their familial working and political lives However the history of women at this time is not one of unmitigated progress theirs was an uphill struggle fraught with hindrances hard work and economic downturns and the increasing intrusion of the public into their innermost private and personal lives Breaking away from traditional categories Rachel G Fuchs and Victoria E Thompson provide a sense of the variety and complexity of women s lives across national and regional boundaries juxtaposing the experiences of women with the perceptions of their lives Three themes unite this study The tension between tradition and modernity The changing relationship between the community and individual The shifting boundaries between public and private Dealing with individual women s lives within a large social and cultural context Fuchs and Thompson demonstrate how strong and courageous women refused to live within the prescribed domestic roles and how many became the modern women of the twentieth century Women's Productive and Reproductive Labour Ayşe Arslan, 2023-07-27 This book looks at the dynamic relationship between women s productive and reproductive work in a Global South country from a Global South perspective Applying a feminist political economy and historical materialist approach and building on an ethnographic extended case study it analyses the relationships between class and gender across both the productive and reproductive realms at the macro and micro levels in the case of women garment workers in Turkey Overall it shows that the material and social conditions of women s productive and reproductive work co constitute each other It suggests that productive and social reproductive labour should be examined as an integrated process and an interrelated social relation in constant dialogue with other social relations This book is of interest to researchers and students in the disciplines of gender studies labour studies feminist economics sociology and development studies Given that most studies on social reproduction have largely focused on the Global North this book is of particular interest to those in search of a more comprehensive and holistic understanding It is also of great relevance to policymakers concerned with gender and labour issues as well as labour and roles law social and economic perspective This theme was raised as an effort to observe the development of new technology that has greatly affected people s lives Formerly to seek information people can get it through conventional radio media newspapers and television But now only use the smartphone we can get very much information that can be obtained by accessing the online media portal or sharing and socializing through social media For decades it has been stated that the media has the power to shape public opinion Media not only can form a worldview of society but also able to create awareness and individual belief in reality a reality that has been defined by the media Media has a powerful and direct effect to the audience market Including how then the media formed an opinion in the community about gender roles through the content provided by the new media Of course it will be interesting to study media related to the law social and economic perspective      Hope and Danger in the New South City Georgina Hickey,2003-01-01 For Atlanta the early decades of the twentieth century brought chaotic economic and demographic growth Women black and white emerged as a visible new component of the city s population As maids and cooks secretaries and factory workers these women served the better classes in their homes and businesses They were enthusiastic patrons of the city s new commercial amusements and the mothers of Atlanta s burgeoning working classes In response to women s growing public presence as Georgina Hickey reveals Atlanta s boosters politicians and reformers created a set of images that attempted to define the lives and contributions of working women Through these images city residents expressed ambivalence toward Atlanta s growth which although welcome also threatened the established racial and gender hierarchies of the city Using period newspapers municipal documents government investigations organizational records oral histories and photographic evidence Hope and Danger in the New South City relates the experience of working class women across lines of race as sources of labor community members activists pleasure seekers and consumers of social services to the process of urban development

Freitas,2022-12-23 From Subjection to Survival is a work of feminist scholarship that works at the intersection of literature and art history the written and the visual By examining six important and diverse multiethnic American women writers of the twentieth century Kate Chopin Anzia Yezierska Edith Wharton Zitkala a Nella Larsen and Helena Mar a Viramontes From Subjection to Survival establishes a genealogy of how women writers claim the power and possibility of visual art to make sense of their experiences These writers write about women and feature female protagonists who engage with art as painters writers muses or icons in the texts themselves The texts are written visually to expose the fundamental substantiation of gender in art and the unavoidable aestheticization of women in daily life As every text in this book makes clear women can claim substantial power through art Yet aestheticization is not always positive As a consequence of such negative possibilities the artistic self referentiality of all of the texts in From Subjection to Survival exposes a negotiated course between subjectivity and objectness which women experience when engaging with art From Subjection to Survival studies this negotiated course to lay bare the difficult path of women s artistic and aesthetic experience but ultimately to claim the power and the possibility of the visual arts for women
