Women Preaching Theology And Practice Through The Ages:

Women Preaching Eunjoo Mary Kim, 2009-08-01 Considering the lack of resources that exists in the study of women's preaching Kim makes a very significant contribution to the development of homiletics as it joins together the history of women preachers with theological reflection from other women preachers as well as herself. It is the author's hope that this book will provide a broader and deeper basis for the theology of preaching as well as practical ways in which preachers can improve their own preaching by looking at a woman's perspective. Kim's ground breaking book is the first comprehensive narrative of women preachers from the Second Testament to the Second Millennium. Through Kim's eyes we see women as a constant and forceful if often subversive presence in Christian preaching. After focusing on the medieval period the Reformation and the early twentieth century the author brings her autobiography close to the surface as she leads us to consider women and the politics of God in the colonial and post colonial eras with a special focus on Asia. The book climaxes with a call to envision preaching as partnership with God that facilitates partnership in the church and world in the service of liberation. Ronald J. Allen, Nettie Sweeney and Hugh Th. Miller, Professor of Preaching and New Testament, Christian Theological Seminary, Indianapolis, Indiana. Kim's exciting exploration of the history of women preachers illuminates the remarkable perseverance of God and the women who partner with God to bring words of peace and transformation to the world. Those churches that continue to deny women's preaching do more than simply perpetuate an inequality. They also quench the Spirit who yearns to transform us co-workers in the liberative work of God. Cliff Guthrie, Associate Professor of Homiletics and Pastoral Studies, Bangor Theological Seminary, Bangor, Maine.

The Rowman & Littlefield Handbook of Women's Studies in Religion, Helen T. Boursier, 2021-06-15 The handbook offers interreligious and multicultural perspectives on women's studies in religion in conversation with specific contextualized gender biased justice challenges. Contributing authors address 25 current and trending themes from their diverse socio-cultural religious backgrounds. The handbook is practical, contemporary, and relevant as it moves theory to practical application in the section on challenging and changing system gender injustice with chapters on sexual violence and the MeToo movement, femicide and feminicide, a Mohawk response to colonial dominion and violations to Indigenous lands and women, and a religio-political witness for love and justice. It includes how to engage the theories of women's studies in religion in the public square through civic engagement to create empowerment for actual practical change. It shows the future movement of the becoming of women's studies with chapters on digital activism, reimagining women's mosque spaces, online minoritized sexual identities, and spiritual homelessness, and charges readers to see hope now by challenging and changing gender injustice.

This Is Our Story Janet

Wootton,2013-01-07 The story of women s ministry is longer and far more varied than most people imagine This book tells the story of women s ministry in the Free Churches and looks at its impact on the ways we worship and live out our Christian lives Women have ministered in garrets and gutters at home and on the mission field Today women are fully engaged in ministry within our multicultural society bringing a diversity of voices to match the diversity of the world in which we live Six well known contributors who are themselves involved in the story of women s ministry explore issues of leadership and authority preaching and worship global perspectives the relation to feminist theology and the ecumenical setting Their contributions are complemented by the voice of experience Women from varied backgrounds tell their own stories of being called to a ministry that sometimes doesn t fit of wrestling with the traditions that have nurtured their faith and that can put obstacles in their way Here we see something of the variety and of the rich texture of women s ministries in the contemporary church Some of the women represented here have found their journey to ministry uncomplicated Others have traveled long and painful roads meeting opposition and hostility Many have moved from trying to be one of the boys to the recognition that their gender can have an influence on their ministry The stories interact with the articles bringing many lively and dramatic voices to the telling of our story Preaching Promise withing the Paradoxes of Life Len

Hansen,2019-01-01 Paradoxes have become characteristic of the world we live in poverty and privilege empire and oppression migration and enclaves seeking war and peace justice and injustice reconciliation and revenge During the 2016 Societas Homiletica annual conference held in South Africa these paradoxes served as a rediscovery of the calling of preachers to deliver the promise that lies within life s contradictions A divine promise brought forth by the grace of God and the gospel of Christ embodied in and through us by the Spirit of Christ This promise may take many forms and calls for discernment and often interrupts the status quos in surprising shocking ways It is a promise that interrupts in order to comfort Her Preaching Body Amy Peed McCullough,2018-05-16 The preacher s body is a tool for proclamation a vehicle by which a sermon comes to life Female preachers engaged in a task not long their own know well the added attention directed to their physicality They can experience ordinary decisions about attire accessories hairstyles and movement as complex and occasionally precarious choices around how to bring flesh to their sermons They can also experience the extraordinary power of their bodies when materiality weighs in on the message McCullough explores the every Sunday bodily decisions of contemporary female preachers with an eye to uncovering the meanings about body preaching and God alive underneath Ultimately she argues for a renewed understanding of embodiment in which one s living body inescapably intertwined with her preaching becomes the avenue for greater knowledge about how to preach and deeper insight into the faith professed Women Preaching Eunjoo Mary Kim,2004 Considering the lack of resources that exists in the study of women s preaching this book makes a very significant contribution to the development of homiletics because it joins together the history of women preachers with theological reflection It is the author s hope that this book will provide a broader and deeper basis for the theology of preaching as well as practical ways in which preachers can improve their own preaching by looking at a woman's perspective Kim gives a detailed account of women preachers from ancient times until the present from women of the Western and Eastern churches to women of Asian and Latin American churches showing the perspectives and insights that increase and enhance our understanding of who God is and what God is doing as well as the implications for preaching now and in the future Women Preaching is a call to the church to accept women preachers as a matter of justice and a theological necessity American Book Publishing Record ,2007 New Books on Women and Feminism ,2005

Preaching Jesus Eunjoo Mary Kim,2024-05-29 How can postcolonial approaches make a difference in preaching Jesus The many postcolonial approaches used in this book will help preachers reinterpret the stories metaphors and characters in the Bible and create new images of Jesus rooted in his historical identity as a colonized person Preaching Jesus with new images that are totally different from the traditional colonial ones not only challenges listeners to reconsider their individual and communal identities as followers of Jesus but also provides them with theological and ethical guidance for living out those identities in daily life Ultimately preaching Jesus through postcolonial approaches is a prophetic ministry that awakens listeners and their communities to seek reconciliation between colonized and colonizers and suggests a common ground of faith and hope for the life enhancing future of all people living in the twenty first century The five chapters of this book employ diverse postcolonial hermeneutical and homiletical methods across a broad disciplinary spectrum This range includes intersectional and interdisciplinary studies with historical literary and cultural approaches in dialogue with phenomenological philosophy a postcolonial practical theological method postcolonial feminist interpretation postcolonial biblical hermeneutics and postcolonial intertextuality All these approaches invite the colonized and their descendants to be conversation partners and reflect their lived experiences in the reimagining the identity of Jesus Moreover the theological and homiletical insights gained through such postcolonial approaches will help preachers invite their listeners into a partnership with the triune God in order to participate in God's reconciling work The postcolonial approaches used in this book contest the dominance of traditional assumptions and practices of preaching Jesus and propose a new homiletical paradigm that makes it possible for Christian preaching to contribute to the transformation of our present world into a life lived together in justice and peace with the new images of Jesus as postcolonial self postcolonial song postcolonial child postcolonial body and postcolonial friend Christian Preaching and Worship in Multicultural Contexts Eunjoo Mary Kim,2017 Can Christian preaching and worship in multicultural contexts be more faithful to the Christian gospel and more meaningful and memorable to worshipers In this book Eunjoo Mary Kim explores this theological and liturgical concern and proposes a paradigm shift from monocultural to multicultural worship This volume will help preachers and worship leaders as well as homiletics and liturgics scholars seek theological and biblical wisdom for the practice of Christian preaching and worship in multicultural contexts Kim also provides homiletical and liturgical insights into this practice By integrating this paradigm shift ministers and worshipers can participate in a life worthy of living together in our multicultural world
