Women Shaping Islam Reading The Quran In Indonesia:

Women Shaping Islam Pieterella van Doorn-Harder, 2010-10-01 In the United States precious little is known about the active role Muslim women have played for nearly a century in the religious culture of Indonesia the largest majority Muslim country in the world While much of the Muslim world excludes women from the domain of religious authority the country's two leading Muslim organizations Muhammadiyah and Nahdlatul Ulama NU have created enormous networks led by women who interpret sacred texts and exercise powerful religious influence In Women Shaping Islam Pieterella van Doorn Harder explores the work of these contemporary women leaders examining their attitudes toward the rise of radical Islamists the actions of the authoritarian Soeharto regime women's education and employment birth control and family planning and sexual morality Ultimately van Doorn Harder reveals the many ways in which Muslim women leaders understand and utilize Islam as a significant force for societal change one that ultimately improves the economic social and psychological condition of women in Indonesian society

Routledge Handbook of Islam in Southeast Asia Syed Muhammad Khairudin Aljunied, 2022-03-03 This handbook explores the ways in which Islam as one of the fastest growing religions has become a global faith for both Muslims and non Muslims in Southeast Asia with its universality inclusivity and shared features with other Islamic expressions and manifestations It offers an up to date wide ranging comprehensive concise and readable introduction to the field of Islam in Southeast Asia With specific themes of pertinent contemporary relevance the contributions by experts in the field provide fresh insights into the roles of states societies scholars social movements political parties economic institutions sacred sites and other forces that structured the faith over many centuries The handbook is structured in three parts Muslim Global Circulations Marginal Narratives Refashioning Pieties This handbook stands out as a single and synergistic reference work that explores the ebb and flow of Islam seeking to decenter many existing assumptions about it in Southeast Asia It will be an indispensable resource for scholars students and policymakers working on Islam Muslims and their interactions with other communities in a plural setting

Activists in Transition Thushara Dibley, Michele Ford, 2019-12-15 Activists in Transition examines the relationship between social movements and democratization in Indonesia Collectively progressive social movements have played a critical role over in ensuring that different groups of citizens can engage directly in and benefit from the political process in a way that was not possible under authoritarianism However their individual roles have been different with some playing a decisive role in the destabilization of the regime and others serving as bell weathers of the advancement or otherwise of Indonesia's democracy in the decades since Equally important democratization has affected social movements differently depending on the form taken by each movement during the New Order period The book assesses the contribution that nine progressive social movements have made to the democratization of Indonesia since the late 1980s and how in turn each of those movements has been influenced by democratization

undergone radical deconstruction in recent times reflecting how religion has broken out of its traditional definitions and practices and how current literary theories have influenced texts inside the religious domain and beyond Reading Spiritualities presents both commentary and vivid examples of this evolution engaging with a variety of reading practices that work with traditional texts and those that extend the notion of text itself The contributors draw on a range of textual sites such as an interview Caribbean literature drama and jazz women s writings emerging church blogs Neo pagan websites the reading practices of Buddhist nuns empirical studies on the reading experiences of Gujarati Christian and post Christian women Chicana short stories the mosque cinema modern art and literature These examples open up understandings of where and how sacred texts are emerging and being reassessed within contemporary religious and spiritual contexts and make room for readings where the spiritual resides not only in the textual but in other unexpected places Reading Spiritualities includes contributions from Graham Holderness Ursula King Michael N Jagessar David Jasper Anthony G Reddie Mich le Roberts and Heather Walton to reflect and encourage the interdisciplinary study of sacred text in the broad arena of the arts and social sciences It offers a unique and well focussed snapshot of the textual constructions and representations of the sacred within the contemporary religious climate accessible to the general reader as well as more specialist interests of students and researchers working in the crossover fields of religious theological cultural and literary studies Routledge Handbook on Islam in Asia Chiara Formichi,2021-09-30 The Routledge Handbook on Islam in Asia offers both new and established scholarship on Muslim societies and religious practices across Asia from a variety of interdisciplinary angles with chapters covering South Central East and Southeast Asia as well as Africa Asia connections Presenting work grounded in archival literary and ethnographic inquiry contributors to this handbook lend their expertise to paint a picture of Islam as deeply connected to and influenced by Asia often by passing or reversing relationships of power and authority that have placed Arab Islam in a hierarchically superior position vis vis Asia This handbook is structured in four parts each representing an emergent area of inquiry Frames Authority and authorizing practices Muslim spatialities Imaginations of piety Dislodging ingrained assumptions that Asia is at the periphery of Islam and that Islam is at the periphery of Asia s cultural matrix this handbook sets an agenda against the center periphery dichotomy as well as the syncretism paradigm that has dominated conversations on Islam in Asia It thus demonstrates possibilities for new scholarly approaches to the study of Islam within the Asian context This ground breaking handbook is a valuable resource to students and scholars of Asian studies religious studies and cultural studies more broadly The Wiley Blackwell Companion to Islamic Spirituality Vincent J. Cornell,Bruce B. Lawrence,2022-12-12 A ground breaking and comprehensive collection on various facets of Islamic spirituality throughout history and in the modern world The Wiley Blackwell Companion to Islamic Spirituality is an authoritative reference work comprising twenty eight scholarly essays that explore the expressive and performative dimensions of Islamic spirituality Edited by two of its most prominent scholars and bringing together a stellar cast of
