Women Writing And Soul Making Creativity And The Sacred Feminine:

Women, Writing, and Soul-Making: Creativity and the Sacred Feminine Peggy Tabor Millin, 2012 Living on the Other Side Lisa M. Hess, 2025-05-15 Living on the Other Side recounts and aims to redress the unspoken largely unconscious abandonment of the Feminine in ecclesial and academic settings through an economic trinity of voices a feminist with a forgiveness problem a conscious feminine theologian serving in academic and ecclesial environments unconsciously hostile to the Feminine and a preacher's wife coming to voice about the realities of congregational Christianity held redemptively in covenantal love Fruit of decades in theological education these pages demonstrate the necessity of sacred bewilderment for deepening spiritual maturity the purposes of rage becoming holy when able to acknowledge its limitation and an unexpected freedom that arises when forgiveness finds us in faith renewed in the Body of Humanity Current and prospective students in theology and religion seasoned pastors and willing congregations will find a compelling narrative and theological sense making of one woman's life in the Spirit disrupted so to become regrounded in a renewed and renewing trinitarianism arising out of historic Christian traditions Black Women, Writing and Identity Carole

Boyce-Davies, 2002-09-11 Black Women Writing and Identity is an exciting work by one of the most imaginative and acute writers around The book explores a complex and fascinating set of interrelated issues establishing the significance of such wide ranging subjects as re mapping re naming and cultural crossings tourist ideologies and playful world travelling gender heritage and identity African women's writing and resistance to domination marginality effacement and decentering gender language and the politics of location Carole Boyce Davies is at the forefront of attempts to broaden the discourse surrounding the representation of and by black women and women of colour Black Women Writing and Identity represents an extraordinary achievement in this field taking our understanding of identity location and representation to new levels

Soul & The Sea Benig Mauger, 2023-05-26 Few story tellers can integrate Benig Mauger's rich understanding of psyche and spirit This book will take you on a journey that will enrich you forever I loved it Donna Eden co author The Energies of Love In The Soul the Sea Benig Mauger interweaves depth psychology with spirituality to present a new model of healing Inspired by the sea and land around her home Mauger draws from her own life experiences as a Jungian therapist and spiritual teacher to illustrate how connection to nature and the spiritual world can heal emotional wounds In a time of spiritual awakening emotional healing must move beyond psychology to be effective As both a guide and a creator of a new portal for healing The Soul the Sea reads like a story as it charts the journey to healing through nature and spirit while serving as a tool for emotional healing and soul growth showing us how to connect to our inner healer Mothering from

The Female Imagination Patricia Meyer Spacks, 2022-09-12 Is there such a thing as a female literary imagination a special brand of insight and intuition that characterises women's writing Is there something about a novel whether by Jane Austen Charlotte Brontë or Doris Lessing that tells us that it could only have been written by a woman Do the subject matter form and style that women choose throw light on the way they think and feel In this brilliant and highly readable book originally published in 1976 Patricia Spacks analyses the female view of the world Juxtaposing sometimes in startlingly original combination some eighty books written between the seventeenth century and the present day she uses both literary and psychological analysis to explore patterns that recur again and again in the stories women tell whether about their own lives or the lives of their fictional characters She dissects female experience in the twentieth century as viewed by an array of writers ranging from Kate Millet to Virginia Woolf examines the interplay of social passivity and psychic power that dominates characters such as Maggie Tulliver and Jane Eyre the altruism that impels Jane Austen's and Mrs Gaskell's heroines the acceptance of Virginia Woolf's Mrs Ramsey the personal and social conflicts that beset so many of the adolescent girls that figure in both nineteenth century and contemporary literature reveals the complex motives that can be bound up in a woman's deliberate choice of the artist's role as appears in the writings of Isadora Duncan's and Dora Carrington Marie Bashkirtseff and Mary McCartney and the surprising forms freedom can take as for Beatrice Webb in the East End of London or Isak Dinerson in the wilds of Africa The voices echo and re echo across the years in fascinating counter point Their range is enormous rebels and reformers actresses and painters Society ladies and unknown girls in small towns novels poems memoirs diaries and letters both English and American and alongside classics such as Wuthering Heights and well known modern works such as The Bell Jar Patricia Spacks introduces an intriguing selection of relatively unknown writers such as Napoleon's psychoanalyst great niece Marie Bonaparte the Victorian arch fantasist Mary MacLane and the autobiography of a seventeenth century Duchess The Female Imagination is much more than a study of women's writing It is an inquiry into the nature of female thought self expression and experience As such it should appeal to every educated woman and to many men too

Haunted Violet Sherwood, 2021-11-15 The disturbing experience of psychological infanticide reflects the darkest aspect of the wounding of the Sacred Feminine the Death Mother archetype that annihilates rather than nurtures life Through myth story classic literature biography poems art and dreams Dr Violet

Sherwood weaves together symbolic aspects of psychological infanticide with psychoanalytic theory of traumatic attachment and the literal truth of a centuries old history of infanticide She illuminates the Death Mother archetype in the dynamic between the unwilling or unsupported mother and the unwelcome child Her personal and archetypal journey into through and beyond the underworld offers hope and guidance for the restoration of the relationship between the Sacred Feminine and the Divine Child She draws on her professional experience as a psychotherapist and her lived experience of psychological infanticide as a result of closed stranger adoption to explore the intimate connection between life and death revealing the life task of the infanticided psyche is to embrace death and discover the life that lies beyond the realm of the underworld Feminist Bookstore News ,1996 Women Writers in German-Speaking Countries Elke P.

Frederiksen,Elizabeth G. Ametsbichler,1998-02-28 Women have contributed to the literature of German speaking countries since the Middle Ages and they continue to write important works at the close of the 20th century While research on texts by women writers in German speaking countries has increased substantially most of these authors remain virtually unknown to English speaking scholars and students The first work of its kind in English this reference book contains alphabetically arranged entries for 54 Austrian German and Swiss women writers such as Hrotsvit von Gandersheim Louise Aston Elfriede Jelinek and Erica Pedretti from the tenth century to the present day Each entry includes a biography a discussion of major themes a survey of criticism and a bibliography of primary and secondary sources An introductory essay overviews the history of literature by women in German speaking countries and an extensive bibliography concludes the volume Women have actively shaped literature in German speaking countries from the Middle Ages to the present day These authors continue to enrich the world of letters and an increasing amount of scholarly attention is given to their writings In spite of their contributions however most of these writers are virtually unknown to English speaking scholars and students And though one of the explicit goals of feminist literary and cultural studies has been to provide a voice to a multitude of diverse authors feminist research still seems to focus heavily on texts by authors such as Christa Wolf Ingeborg Bachmann and Bettina von Arnim or on certain periods in 19th and 20th century German literature and culture As a result many other women authors have faded into obscurity Through entries written by expert contributors this reference book provides insights into the life and writings of 54 women authors from German speaking countries Entries are arranged alphabetically to facilitate use while an appendix lists the writers chronologically Included are profiles of authors from the tenth century to the present day such as Hrotsvit von Gandersheim Louise Aston Elfriede Jelinek and Erica Pedretti Each entry includes a biography a discussion of major themes and stylistic features a survey of criticism and a bibliography of primary and secondary sources An introductory essay overviews the history of literature by women in German speaking countries and provides a theoretical context for the work and an extensive bibliography of secondary sources concludes the volume
