Women's Employment in the Textile Manufacturing Sectors of Bangladesh and Morocco United Nations Development Programme, 2002 Published in co operation with the United Nations Development Programme UNDP this publication contains a number of papers based on research carried out during 1992 to 1998 into the experiences of women workers in export manufacturing in Morocco and Bangladesh focusing on the textile sector Women and Labour Organizing in Asia Kaye Broadbent, Michele Ford, 2007-12-21 Providing a full account of the role of women in union activism in Asia covering all the major economies of the region this book successfully challenges the prevailing conception of women workers in Asia as passive and uninterested in industrial issues The Bangladesh Garment Industry and the Global Supply Chain Shahidur Rahman, 2021-06-17 This book analyzes the choices and constraints of management within the Bangladesh garment industry and how management negotiates these challenges to ensure the global garment supply chain is sustainable Exploring the international South Asian garment industry and using middle management and the owners of Bangladeshi factories as a case study the book assesses the limits and costs of globalization for Bangladesh and outlines the challenges of the fast fashion business model for the global market It focusses on the changing dynamics of the entrepreneur class how they manage factories and their experiences with Accord Alliance and the challenges of sustainability Within these four broader themes the author critically examines management strategies towards compliance and labour productivity transnational governance buyer supplier relationships and power dynamics This book is the first to explore management s perceptions of workers buyers and government through an analysis of four factories which demonstrate the role of mid level management how supervisors treat production workers workers impact on innovation welfare programmes as well as CSR policies and the impact of COVID 19 Offering new perspectives on Bangladesh s garment export industry this book will be of interest to researchers in the field of policy studies labour studies South and South East Asian studies development studies international trade and political science The Garment Industry in Low-Income Countries T. Fukunishi, T. Yamagata, 2014-05-21 This book explores the means through which the garment industry contributes to industrialization poverty reduction empowerment of undereducated workers in particular female laborers and shared growth in contemporary low income countries Workers' Rights and Labor Compliance in Global Supply Chains Jennifer Bair, Doug Miller, Marsha Dickson, 2013-11-26 This book provides insight into the potential for the market to protect and improve labour standards and working conditions in global apparel supply chains It examines the possibilities and limitations of market approaches to securing social compliance in global manufacturing industries It does so by tracing the historic origins of social labelling both in trade union and consumer constituencies considering industry and consumer perspectives on the benefits and drawbacks of social labelling comparing efforts to develop and implement labelling initiatives in various countries and locating social labelling within contemporary debates and controversies about the implications of globalization for workers worldwide Scholars and students of globalisation development corporate social responsibility human geography labour and industrial relations business ethics consumer behaviour and fashion will find its contents of relevance CSR practitioners in the clothing and other industries will also find this useful in developing policy with respect to supply chain assurance

Social Transformation in Bangladesh Shahidur Rahman,Md. Masud-All-Kamal,2024-08-26 Social Transformation in Bangladesh explores the social political and cultural implications of the unprecedented economic development that has occurred in Bangladesh since its independence in 1971 In the 1970s Bangladesh was labelled an international basket case because of food insecurity and low levels of per capita income with high population growth and various social problems Defying overwhelming odds however a societal transformation is underway in Bangladesh with diverse opportunities and challenges This edited book analyses issues of inclusivity extractivism sustainability and equitability as it takes a look at the interconnected metamorphosis of the economy society culture and the environment of Bangladesh Discussing topics from the products of post industrial society such as YouTube sensations and digital labour platforms to groups that have suffered marginalisation for decades such as the urban poor and Indigenous peoples a wide array of scholarship and case studies are used to analyse the challenges and opportunities offered by the process of societal transformation With insights from multidisciplinary scholars this collection will be of great interest to those specialising in the fields of sociology political science anthropology development refugee and migrant studies media studies labour studies health and indigeneity

Women in Morocco Rachel Alpert,2007-05-29 The evolving status of women in Moroccan society has drawn much attention in recent years particularly in the legal realm Less noticed but no less crucial has been the accelerated entrance of Moroccan women into the workforce in recent decades The myriad reasons for and implications of this phenomenon are addressed by this study By drawing upon and synthesizing for the first time a wide range of anthropological sociological historical and economic sources and data this study fills an important lacuna in the literature

The Gender Question in Globalization Francien van Driel,2020-11-25 Orthodox views of globalization assume that it has the same features and impact everywhere i e the feminization of poverty labour and even peace As these ideas circulate in official documents and scientific writings they settle practically as truths This challenging and unique book is amongst the first to deconstruct these orthodoxies using a multi layered gender analysis where globalization is not treated as a linear and top down process with a known outcome and a pre conceived definition of gender Instead the authors scrutinize the dynamics of each context on its own merits including the agency of women and men resulting in unexpected and groundbreaking insights into the variety of differences apparent even in sometimes seemingly similar global processes Through this gender lens different and new meanings of gender appear rooted in multiple modernities The book will be a seminal contribution to debates in the fields of international labour sexuality identity feminism peace studies and migration

Arab Society in Revolt Cesare Merlini,Olivier Roy,2013-06-20 For every pithy conceptualization of complex events

there are additional lenses through which to examine them One of the several virtues of this book is precisely that it brings different perspectives to bear on the complexity diversity and uncertainty of recent and current events in the Arab world The thirteen authors concentrate on the critical social forces shaping the region demography religion gender telecommunication connectivity and economic structures and they are painstakingly analyzed and evaluated from the foreword by Strobe Talbott president of the Brookings Institution The Arab Spring will be remembered as a period of great change for the Arab states of North Africa and the eastern Mediterranean Facing fundamental transitions in governance these countries are also undergoing profound social cultural and religious changes The European Union and the United States caught unprepared by the uprisings now must address the inescapable challenges of those changes How will the West respond to these new realities particularly in light of international economic uncertainty EU ambivalence toward a cohesive foreign policy and declining U S influence abroad Arab Society in Revolt explains and interprets the societal transformations occurring in the Arab Muslim world their ramifications for the West and possible policy options for dealing with this new world Arab Society in Revolt examines areas of change particularly relevant in the southern Mediterranean demography and migration Islamic revival and democracy rapidly changing roles of women in Arab society the Internet in Arab societies commercial and social entrepreneurship as change factors and the economics of Arab transitions The book then looks at those cultural and religious as well as political and economic factors that have influenced the Western response or lack of it to the Arab Spring as well as the policy options that remain open

Dynamics of Youth Agency in Times of Crisis Nadine Sika,2021-12-19 This book examines the political economy of the Middle East and North Africa and how it impacts young people s civic and political participation today The edited volume analyses the extent to which young people influence public policies social cultural and economic structures and how on the other hand these young people are influenced by the same structures It focuses on the politics and agency of youth and how they impact social change and continuity in the Middle East and North Africa The book will be of great value to students scholars and researchers interested in Youth Movements MENA Comparative Politics and Political Economy The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of the journal Mediterranean Politics

Globalisation, Employment and Mobility H. Sato,Mayumi Murayama,2008-07-24 There are numerous labour and employment issues facing South Asia in this era of growth With critical examination of ongoing labour reforms and using extensive field surveys this book will be of interest to all seeking an analysis of labour economics labour laws economic growth and globalization in South Asia Bangladesh Directory of Social Science Research Organizations, 2007
