Privilege Through the Looking-Glass Patricia Leavy, 2017-10-10 Privilege Through the Looking Glass is a collection of original essays that explore privilege and status characteristics in daily life This collection seeks to make visible that which is often invisible It seeks to sensitize us to things we have been taught not to see Privilege power oppression and domination operate in complex and insidious ways impacting groups and individuals And yet these forces that affect our lives so deeply seem to at once operate in plain sight and lurk in the shadows making them difficult to discern Like water to a fish environments are nearly impossible to perceive when we are immersed in them This book attempts to expose our environments With engaging and powerful writing the contributors share their personal stories as a means of connecting the personal and the public This volume applies an intersectional perspective to explore how race class gender sexuality education and ableness converge creating the basis for privilege and oppression Privilege Through the Looking Glass encourages readers to engage in self and social reflection and can be used in a range of courses in sociology social work communication education gender studies and African American studies Each chapter includes discussion questions and or activities for further engagement Privilege Through the Looking Glass offers a varied and profound examination of how privilege functions as the underside of power This is a powerful and important book about inequality identity agency and the challenge of addressing difference as part of a democratic ethos in a time of growing authoritarianism all over the world Every educator should read this book Henry A Giroux Professor McMaster University A courageous volume that blends theory personal experiences and reflections on contemporary debates over identity This is a book that is more about the politics of identity than identity politics It is a powerful testament to the urgency of understanding privilege and deserves to be read widely Peter McLaren Distinguished Professor Chapman University Privilege Through the Looking Glass unmasks the casual isms that suppress the best aspects of our humanity by assembling a powerful and honest collection of parables Poignant and unflinching the contributors eschew to the cloak of objectivism to give the hard truth about privilege as a social ill and the collective responsibility of the conscious community to confront all forms of oppression this book has lessons for anyone with the spirit to explore better ways to be themselves and relate to others Ivory A Toldson Professor Howard University and Editor in Chief for The Journal of Negro Education Patricia Leavy Ph D is an award winning independent sociologist and best selling author Feminist Collections ,2013 Threshold Concepts in Women's and Gender Studies Christie Launius,Holly Hassel,2022-03-30 Threshold Concepts in Women s and Gender Studies Ways of Seeing Thinking and Knowing is a textbook designed primarily for introduction to Women s and Gender Studies courses with the intent of providing both a skill and concept based foundation in the field The third edition includes fully revised and expanded case studies and updated statistics in addition the content has been updated throughout to reflect significant news stories and cultural developments The text is driven by a single key question What are the ways of thinking seeing and knowing that characterize Women s and Gender Studies and are valued by its practitioners This book illustrates four of the most critical concepts in Women s and Gender Studies the social construction of gender privilege and oppression intersectionality and feminist praxis and grounds these concepts in multiple illustrations Threshold Concepts in Women s and Gender Studies develops the key concepts and ways of thinking that students need to develop a deep understanding and to approach material like feminist scholars do across disciplines Beyond Burning Bras Laura L. Finley,Emily Reynolds Stringer,2010-04-09 The authors focus on the mainstream of everyday feminism explaining what feminism is really all about and fanning out a spectrum of simple imaginative user friendly ways in which people can promote gender equality and social equity in their own lives and in the world around them It looks at first person accounts of 50 ordinary individuals of every age sex sexuality class nationality race ethnicity and learning style All of them tell how they found within themselves the courage to take a stand on the front lines of feminist activism whether in subtle private ways or in life changing public ways After a survey of the history of feminism in the United States the authors and contributors show how feminism today meshes with other forms of activism relating to the workplace sexual violence the environment politics human bodies the arts youth empowerment and mothering Self-objectification in Women Stacey Tantleff-Dunn,J. Kevin Thompson,2011 Modern industrialized society chronically and pervasively objectifies the female body and many women have come to view themselves through the lens of an external observer habitually monitoring their own appearance whether in public or private settings Given the negative effects associated with self objectification such as body shame appearance anxiety depression and disordered eating an empirically based approach to researching and counteracting self objectification is critical This book integrates recent research developments and current clinical knowledge on self objectification in women Using Barbara L. Fredrickson and Tomi Ann Roberts objectification theory as a framework the contributors address various aspects of the theory including evidence for and causes of self objectification across the life span psychological consequences and associated mental health risks The book also discusses various scales for measuring self objectification as well as approaches to prevent and disrupt this phenomenon With research from a variety of disciplines psychology sociology anthropology women s studies and political science this book should be read by everyone interested in the well being of women Publicity materials PsycINFO Database Record c 2010 APA all rights reserved Lectures on the Psychology of Women Joan C. Chrisler, Carla Golden, Patricia Denise Rozee, 2004 This unique collection of previously unpublished essays by experienced teachers and leading experts in Psychology of Women is designed as a companion reader to any Psychology of Women textbook The lectures included are written in an informal manner the authors speak to students directly and address questions that students often ask
