Wondrous Encounters Scripture For Lent:

Wondrous Encounters Richard Rohr, 2010-10-18 Rohr's meditations on the daily readings of Lent are not for the sake of mere information or even for academia although the author hopes it will satisfy both but for the sake of our transformation into our original image and likeness which is the very image of God. What always and finally matters for all of us is encounter. Father Rohr begins each meditation with a single title or phrase that sums up the point. Then he offers the meditation followed by key passages from the readings. He ends each meditation with a Starter Prayer that invites you to self disclosure and to enter the wondrous divine dialogue with clarity insight and holy desire. There are two moments that matter. One is when you know that your one and only life is absolutely valuable and alive. The other is when you know your life as presently lived is entirely pointless and empty. You need both of them to keep you going in the right direction. Lent is about both. The first such moment gives you energy and joy by connecting you with your ultimate Source and Ground. The second gives you limits and boundaries and a proper humility so you keep seeking the Source and Ground and not just your small self. From the Introduction

Eager to Love Richard Rohr, 2020-03-05 Francis of Assisi is one of the most beloved of all saints. Both traditional and entirely revolutionary, he was a paradox. He was at once down to earth and reaching toward heaven, grounded in the rich history of the Church while moving toward a new understanding of the world beyond. Globally recognized as an ecumenical teacher, Richard Rohr started out and remains a Franciscan friar. The loving inclusive life and preaching of Francis of Assisi make him a recognizable and beloved saint across many faith traditions. He was, as Rohr notes, a master of making room for it and letting go of that which was tired or empty. Francis found an alternative way to follow Jesus, one that disregarded power and privilege and held fast to the narrow path of the Gospel. Rohr helps us look beyond the bird-bath image of the saint to remind us of the long tradition founded on his revolutionary radical and life-changing embrace of the teachings of Jesus. Rohr draws on Scripture insights from psychology and literary and artistic references to weave together an understanding of the tradition as first practiced by St. Francis. Rohr shows how his own innovative theology is firmly grounded in the life and teaching of this great saint and provides a perspective on how his alternative path to the divine can deepen and enrich our spiritual lives. Walking the Journey of Lent Richard Gribble, CSC, PhD, CSC, 2017-01-26. Yet even now says the Lord, return to me with all your heart, with fasting, with weeping, and with mourning; mend your hearts, and not your clothing. Return to the Lord your God, for he is gracious and merciful, slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love, and relents from punishing. Joel 2:12-13. This famous passage of scripture proclaimed each Ash Wednesday provides the themes and sets the environment for the holy season of Lent. In its wisdom, the Christian church provides its members a forty-day period of preparation, emphasizing prayer, fasting, and almsgiving for the great celebration of the Paschal Mystery, the passion, death, and resurrection of Jesus Christ. We who are privileged to bear the name Christian must use this annual time of renewal to reconnect ourselves to our God, the source of all that is good. Through a process of study, reflection, and discussion on the scripture passages that the church uses in its Sunday celebrations during this special time, an environment can be provided for us to discover and foster the renewal we all need. It is hoped that Walking the Journey of Lent: Reflections on the Scriptures for Cycle A provides this specific opportunity. This Lenten Bible study can be a helpful and effective way for groups and individuals to reflect upon the scriptures and through this process prepare ourselves better for the greatest of all.
