On Theology and Psychology C. G. Jung, Adolf Keller, 2022-11-29 Jung's correspondence with one of the twentieth century's leading theologians and ecumenicists On Theology and Psychology brings together C G Jung's correspondence with Adolf Keller a celebrated Protestant theologian who was one of the pioneers of the modern ecumenical movement and one of the first religious leaders to become interested in analytical psychology Their relationship spanned half a century and for many years Keller was the only major religious leader to align himself with Jung and his ideas Both men shared a lifelong engagement with questions of faith and each grappled with God in his own distinctive way Presented here in English for the first time are letters that provide a rare look at Jung in dialogue with a theologian Spanning some fifty years these letters reveal an extended intellectual and spiritual discourse between two very different men as they exchange views on the nature of the divine the compatibility of Jungian psychology and Christianity the interpretation of the Bible and figures such as Jesus and Job and the phenomenon of National Socialism Although Keller was powerfully attracted to Jung's ideas his correspondence with the famed psychiatrist demonstrates that he avoided discipleship Both men struggled with essential questions about human existence spirituality and well being and both sought common ground where the concerns of psychologists and theologians converge Featuring an illuminating introduction by Marianne Jehle Wildberger On Theology and Psychology offers incomparable insights into the development of Jung's views on theology and religion and a unique window into a spiritual and intellectual friendship unlike any other

Jung and the Native American Moon Cycles Michael Owen, 2002 Jung and the Native American Moon Cycles describes the life of C G Jung as seen through the lens of the Moon Cycles a Native American teaching about the archetypal influences and forces that affect us at different times in our lives Through this lens we see how the rhythm of Jung's life coincided with the great events of the 20th century This book offers new insights into Jung's life and death and provides a fascinating perspective on some of Jung's more important dreams It also unexpectedly casts new light on Jung's fateful associations with Freud and Picasso and the controversial areas of his life particularly his relationships with women and his supposed anti-Semitism Michael Owen also shows how readers will be able to place the events of their own lives on the Moon Cycles of the Native American Medicine Wheel gaining a new perspective into the births and deaths in their life inner and outer They will see what learning periods are ahead of them and understand the critical importance of the nine month and three year cycles Some of the patterns of time and other insights revealed Both Jung's parents were the thirteenth and youngest in their families Freud died twenty seven years almost to the day after he fainted in Jung's presence and said How sweet it must be to die Jung dreamt of the firebombing of Dresden twenty seven years before it happened Jung's writings about Picasso and its relationship to Jung's death

The De-Judaization of the Image of Jesus of Nazareth (The Virgin Mary) at the Time of the Holocaust: Ensoulment and the Human Ovum Thomas Alexander Blüger, 2021-03-09 Thomas has been researching his family's Jewish background for the last thirty years Herein he investigates how his Jewish grandparents and aunt defined as a nonprivileged Mischling survived the war while living in the heart of Nazi Germany This led Thomas to research Hitler's fear of having partial Jewish ancestry and expanded into a full blown study of following Christianity's understanding of the Jewish identity of Jesus of Nazareth throughout history Not leaving matters here Thomas outlines how Marian dogmatic theology used at the time of the Shoah brought to conclusion the Church's long journey in defining the time of ensoulment as articulated in the papal document Ineffabilis Deus promulgated by Pius in 1854. This happened twenty seven years after the discovery of the human ovum in 1827 by Karl Ernst von Baer. Years later with the emergence of Nazi racial ideology many anti-Christian Christians attempted to invert Christianity's core message of salvation through faith toward biological ends. This would not do. Roman authorities had consistently held throughout the centuries that faith is about salvation and not about biology. According to that same end the ideal of ensoulment since the time of the Church's renewed understanding of it beginning in 1854 and indeed as it was first articulated through the writings of Aristotle and received into Christianity through the writings of Saint Augustine and later Thomas Aquinas was newly preserved within the confines of Western civilization. This is the first book the author knows of that follows Augustine's concept of ensoulment as well as Aquinas's thinking on the matter while linking these to Karl Ernst von Baer's discovery of the human ovum in 1827 up until the events of Shoah and beyond. This study is phenomenological in nature in that it does not follow Jesus of Nazareth the Virgin Mary throughout history but rather follows the image of Jesus of Nazareth the Virgin Mary a monumental difference. This study supports the Second Vatican Council the Church's latest and ongoing efforts in affirming the Jewish identities of both Jesus of Nazareth and the Virgin Mary. John Paul II's call for a purification of memory beginning in a year of Jubilee as well as the many present efforts in Catholic Jewish relations. This study builds upon the author's past article Following the Virgin Mary through Auschwitz Marian Dogmatic Theology at the Time of the Shoah published in Holocaust Studies A Journal of Culture and History Vol 14 winter 2008 No 3 pp 1-24.

Answer to Jung Lynn Brunet, 2018-11-08. The Red Book is C. G. Jung's record of a period of deep penetration into his unconscious mind in a process that he called active imagination undertaken during his mid-life period. Answer to Jung: Making Sense of The Red Book provides a close reading of this magnificent yet perplexing text and its fascinating images and demonstrates that the fantasies in The Red Book are not entirely original but that their plots characters and symbolism are remarkably similar to some of the higher degree rituals of Continental Freemasonry. It argues that the fantasies may be memories of a series of terrifying initiatory ordeals possibly undergone in childhood using altered or spurious versions of these Masonic rites. It then compares these initiatory scenarios with accounts of ritual trauma that have been reported since the 1980s. This is the first full length study of The Red Book to focus on the fantasies themselves and provide such an external explanation for them. Sonu Shamdasani describes The Red Book as an incomplete task that Jung left to posterity as a message in a bottle that would someday come ashore. Answer to Jung brings its message to shore providing a coherent but disturbing interpretation of each of the fantasies and their accompanying Introducción a la psicología del mandala María Mora Viñas, 2022-03-09 Se podrá decir que la psicología del mandala es la psicología de la individuación pues la persona inmersa en este proceso inicia un recorrido de confrontación con los contenidos de su propia psique centrándose en sus propios procesos psicológicos Hay muchas razones por las que sería positivo comprender la necesidad y la aparición del símbolo del mandala Los profundos desequilibrios y la fragmentación del consciente colectivo actual dividido por graves tensiones y escisiones culturales hacen que el mandala como arquetipo de unidad de totalidad y de sentido aparezca como símbolo de una necesidad colectiva Un símbolo que acoge en su interior los elementos dispersos de la psique una imagen que intenta aunar los opuestos en conflicto una matriz creativa de la que surgen nuevos valores que orientar a la conciencia si es capaz de dejarse guiar por ellos El mandala ilustra un momento particular a lo largo de un camino interior de autoconocimiento
