Words That Describe God In Alphabetical Order:

Praise God First Kimberlee Hutcherson, 2020-06-22 When do you praise God When He has done something grand How about when He s done something you don t understand or agree with Are you praising God for being a Giver and a Taker It is important to recognize God s attributes that please us as well as the ones that don t then offer up praise to Him for all things and in all circumstances Often praise is completely left out of our prayers to God If we follow the example Jesus gave in Matthew 6 9 13 then praise should come first yet finding the words to do this can be challenging This book contains over five hundred praise words to help facilitate a more intimate knowledge of God broadening our ability to praise Him specifically for His attributes This book is a powerful transforming tool to be used in a daily walk with the Father Son and Holy Spirit Choose a word then offer up a first fruit sacrifice of praise to God If it is heartfelt and sincere God will be pleased You will be blessed because of the intimacy this creates When we are praising we are not controlling we are releasing Praise prayer is different because it removes the tendency to give orders to God that sounds something like please fix this change that don t do this give me that Sometimes a defeated tone is present in our prayers sounding like God this is what I want but your will be done which is probably not my will so I m not sure how to pray Praising God first can take away the need to control and the feeling of defeat by releasing it to God focusing entirely on Him and His sovereignty in all circumstances Praise God first That s what we can do God has got the rest Through Him then let us continually offer up a sacrifice of praise to God that is the fruit of lips that give thanks to His name Heb 13 15

The Divine in Modern Hebrew Literature Neta Stahl, 2020-02-25 Demonstrating the pervasive presence of God in modern Hebrew literature this book explores the qualities that twentieth century Hebrew writers attributed to the divine and examines their functions against the simplistic dichotomy between religious and secular literature The volume follows both chronological and thematic paths offering a panoramic and multilayered analysis of the various strategies in which modern Hebrew writers from the turn of the nineteenth century through the twenty-first century pursued in their attempt to represent the divine in the face of metaphysical theological and representational challenges Modern Hebrew literature emerged during the nineteenth century as part of the Haskalah Jewish Enlightenment movement which attempted to break from the traditional modes of Jewish intellectual and social life The Hebrew literature that arose in this period embraced the rebellious nature of the Haskalah and is commonly characterized as secular in nature defying Orthodoxy and rejecting God Nevertheless this volume shows that modern Hebrew literature relied on traditional narratological and poetic norms in its attempt to represent God Despite its self-declared secularity it engaged deeply with traditional problems such as the nature of God divine presence and theodicy Examining these radical changes this volume is a key text for scholars and students of modern Hebrew literature Jewish studies and the intersection of religion and literature
