Work A Kingdom Perspective On Labor:

Work Ben Witherington, 2011-02-01 Most Christians spend most of their waking hours working yet many regard work as at best a necessary evil just one more unfortunate by product of humanity's fall from grace Not so says Ben Witherington III and in Work A Kingdom Perspective on Labor he considers work as neither the curse nor the cure of human life but rather as something good that God has given us to do In this brief primer on the biblical theology and ethics of work Witherington carefully unpacks the concept of work considering its relationship to rest play worship the normal cycle of human life and the coming Kingdom of God Work as calling work as ministry work as a way to make a living and the notably unbiblical notion of retirement Witherington's Work engages these subjects and more combining scholarly acumen with good humor common sense cultural awareness and biblically based insights from Genesis to Revelation Ben Witherington has given the whole people of God something desperately needed to make sense of Monday to Friday a theology of work that breaks down the heretical sacred secular distinction Offers a work view and life view that if embraced would revitalize the mission of God's people in the world It's that good R Paul Stevens author of The Other Six Days and Taking Your Soul to Work Conducting a critical dialogue with the theological voices of our day drawing upon the wisdom of the Christian tradition and offering a sensitive reading of New Testament parables Witherington delivers sound counsel on the Kingdom meaning of work and its implications for our lives today Lee Hardy author of The Fabric of This World

The Rest of Life Ben Witherington III, Ben Witherington, 2012-11-16 When was the last time you heard a sermon on the theological importance of play What do rest eating studying and sex have to do with the Kingdom of God Strangely although these activities together take up much of our time they seldom receive much discussion from a biblical point of view In The Rest of Life Ben Witherington explores these subjects in the light of biblical teaching about the Kingdom of God and the Christian hope for the future He shows why and how all the normal activities of life should be done to the glory of God and for the edification of others Focusing as it does on practical everyday matters in an accessible style this topical study is ideal for both individual reading and small group discussion

The Kingdom of God in Working Clothes R. Paul Stevens, 2022-08-05 Work occupies most of our waking time whether it is in a factory office school or at home But unfortunately most people of faith separate their working life from their worshipping life Dualism is a pernicious heresy that has infected believers worldwide namely that church work and missionary service are holy and our everyday work is secular In this timely volume Stevens explores the connection of the kingdom of God the master thought of Jesus with the marketplace Traditionally people have either related the kingdom of God God's new world coming either exclusively for the present or only for the distant future But it is both now and coming This gives meaning hope and endurance to our work in the world So daily labor in the marketplace gets reoriented through salty values and ingrained virtues We become double agent spies exploring the new world coming in everyday life We can also grapple helpfully with the resistance we face daily in the workplace There are many books on the kingdom of God and many on work Few have brought these two vital arenas of everyday service together It is indeed part of the good news

David Buschart, Ryan Tafilowski, 2025-11-25 Reimagine Your Theology of Faith and Work Conversations about faith and work often miss an important truth limitations are not a problem they re a key part of what it means to be human Work has always been part of humanity s purpose but we re no longer in the perfect Garden of Eden nor are we in the future new heavens and new earth To truly address the challenges of work we need a new theological perspective In Worth Doing David Buschart and Ryan Tafilowski embrace the realities of limitations challenging the myths of You are what you do and Do what you love Instead they propose a theology of work that affirms the goodness of human limits while addressing the realities of fallenness offering hope for those who may not find deep fulfillment in their daily jobs Buschart and Tafilowski outline a new vision of work that resonates with all workers recognizing that every job has value even when it doesn t align with idealized notions of purpose or calling By embracing this perspective people can find new ways to approach daily labor even when it doesn t feel deeply fulfilling In Worth Doing readers will Gain a theology of work that moves beyond only ideas of productivity or calling Learn how to embrace human limitations as part of God s good design Reflect on the ways work connects to broader questions of purpose and human flourishing Worth Doing invites readers to consider their limitations as valuable aspects of their vocational journey offering a thoughtful framework for addressing the complexities of work This book is particularly relevant for theologians examining the intersections of work faith and rest Christian educators and leaders in the faith and work space By moving beyond conventional theological approaches to faith and work Worth Doing presents a hopeful and theologically rich perspective on vocation that acknowledges and embraces human limitations The Collected Works of Witness Lee, 1932-1949, volume 4 Witness Lee, The Collected Works of Witness Lee 1932 1949 volume 4 contains messages given by Brother Witness Lee in 1949 Historical information concerning Brother Lee s travels and the content of his ministry during this period can be found in the general preface that appears at the beginning of The Collected Works of Witness Lee 1932 1949 volume 1 The contents of this volume are divided into three sections as follows 1 Thirteen messages given in Taipei Taiwan in 1949 These messages were previously published in a book entitled Crucial Truths in the Holy Scriptures volume 4 and are included in this volume under the same title 2 Four messages given in Taipei Taiwan in 1949 These messages were previously published in a book entitled Crucial Truths in the Holy Scriptures volume 5 and are included in this volume under the same title 3 Ten messages given in Taipei Taiwan in 1949 These messages were previously published in a book entitled Crucial Truths in the Holy Scriptures volume 6 and are included in this volume under the same title
