Workplace Equality In Europe The Role Of Trade Unions:

Workplace Equality in Europe Anna Paraskevopoulou, Sonia McKay, 2016-03-03 Drawing on data from a Europe wide project together with existing data on equality and diversity initiatives this book explores the work of trade unions in supporting equality and anti discrimination policies across Europe and in particular the processes and collaborations involved in incorporating equality and diversity policies into trade union agendas It considers theoretical issues of equality and diversity the role of EU legislation multiple discrimination and exclusion and disadvantage in the labour market in relation to the role of trade unions and addresses central questions about the actions and challenges faced by trade unions in promoting equality in the workplace and in implementing anti discrimination policies at local national and European levels With research spanning 34 European countries and extending to over 250 interviews and 15 case studies Workplace Equality in Europe examines the impact of a period of economic crisis on workplace diversity exploring forms of inter union cooperation at European and international levels and shedding fresh light on the processes that lead some trade unions to adopt equality policies while others remain reluctant to develop or expand policies in this area A detailed European study of trade union activity and workplace diversity this book will be of interest to scholars of the sociology of work and organisations labour relations and workplace diversity

The Challenge of Mainstreaming for Trade Unions in Europe ,2007 The objective of this research programme is to apply the concept of gender mainstreaming to the trade union field to activities that have already been carried out or started by crossing conceptual analysis and respective national situations It involves developing a comparative approach between European countries which are rarely brought together in this way namely Austria Belgium Denmark France Italy and the Netherlands This approach is interesting because it observes mechanisms that are operating in these different countries where gender mainstreaming is taken into account in different ways or almost ignored by trade union actors depending on specific societal configurations which should be highlighted How has the issue of mainstreaming been introduced or not in these countries What relationship can be observed between specific policies and actions aimed at equality and the methodological innovation introduced by gender mainstreaming What role do trade unions play in processes that are favourable unfavourable to equality and what is their attitude to mainstreaming During this research programme we will attempt to answer at least partly all these questions The aim of this report is to provide a synthesis of the main results which have been collected by each partner in the six countries concerned throughout the research programme
