The First Star Trek Movie Sherilyn Connelly, 2019-10-11 The story of Star Trek s resurrection between the 1969

cancellation of the original series and the 1979 release of Robert Wise's Star Trek: The Motion Picture has become legend and like so many other legends it tends to get printed instead of the facts. Drawing on hundreds of contemporary news articles and primary sources not seen in decades, this book tells the true story of the first successful Star Trek revival. After several attempts to relaunch the franchise, ST TMP was released on a wave of prestige, promotion hype and public frenzy unheard of for a film based on a television show. Controversy surrounded its troubled production and 44M budget, earning it a reputation at the time as the most expensive movie ever made. After a black tie premiere in Washington D.C., its opening in 856 North American theaters broke multiple box office records, a harbinger of the modern blockbuster era. Despite immediate financial success, the film was panned by both critics and the public, leaving this enterprise nowhere to boldly go but down.

Launch! Advertising and Promotion in Real Time Michael Solomon, 2009 Launch: Advertising and Promotion is written for advertising and promotion courses taught to students in the business school and journalism/mass communication students. This textbook is the first of its kind to teach advertising concepts by reverse engineering a real advertising campaign from beginning to end. In April 2007, SS&K, an innovative New York City communications agency, launched the first ever branding campaign for msnbc.com with the tagline "A Fuller Spectrum of News." Launch follows that campaign from initial agency pitch through roll-out of print and media assets to post-campaign analysis. Throughout, it exposes readers to the theory and concepts of advertising and promotion and the personalities and decisions that drove this campaign. The book takes a rare look behind the curtain, even letting you see some of the paths not chosen by the agency and client. Students get a realistic sense of how theory plays out in practice and get a flavor for the exciting field of advertising and promotion. And they consistently learn the perspectives of both the advertising agency where many journalism and communications students will work and the client where many marketing majors will work This is a unique book with a unique perspective by a unique author team and you won't find this kind of insight in any other text on the market We think you're going to love it This textbook has been used in classes at Ball State University Emerson College Florida Institute of Technology Grand Valley State University Johnson County Community College Manchester Business School McLennan Community College Michigan State University North Hennepin Community College Pierce College Rochester Institute of Technology Saint Louis University Salem State College South Dakota State University Texas State University Texas Tech University University of New Hampshire University of North Carolina University of Notre Dame University of South Florida Virginia Tech Western Kentucky University
