Two Trips to Gorilla Land and the Cataracts of the Congo Vol I & Vol II Sir Richard Francis Burton, 2019-01-11 Excerpt The notes which form the ground work of these volumes have long been kept in the obscurity of manuscript my studies of South America of Syria and Palestine of Iceland and of Istria left me scant time for the labour of preparation Leisure and opportunity have now offered themselves and I avail myself of them in the hope that the publication will be found useful to more than one class of readers The many who take an interest in the life of barbarous peoples may not be displeased to hear more about the F n and the few who would try a fall with Mister Gorilla can learn from me how to equip themselves whence to set out and whither to go for the best chance Travelling with M Paul B du Chaillu s First Expedition in my hand I jealously looked into every statement and his numerous friends will be pleased to see how many of his assertions are confirmed by my experience

Missions, States, and European Expansion in Africa Chima Jacob Korie, Raphael Chijioke Njoku, 2007. Missions, States, and European Expansion in Africa aims to explore the ways Christianity and colonialism acted as hegemonic or counter-hegemonic forces in the making of African societies. As Western interventionist forces, Christianity and colonialism were crucial in establishing and maintaining political, cultural, and economic domination. Indeed, both elements of Africa's encounter with the West played pivotal roles in shaping African societies during the nineteenth and twentieth centuries. This volume uses a wide range of perspectives to address the intersection between missions, evangelism, and colonial expansion across Africa. The contributors address several issues, including missionary collaboration with the colonizing effort of European powers, disagreements between missionaries and colonizing agents, the ways in which missionaries and colonial officials used language, imagery, and European epistemology to legitimize relations of inequality with Africans, and the ways in which both groups collaborated to transform African societies. Thus, Missions, States, and European Expansion in Africa transcends the narrow boundaries that often separate the role of these two elements of European encounter to argue that missionary endeavours and official colonial actions could all be conceptualized as hegemonic institutions in which both pursued the same civilizing mission, even if they adopted different strategies in their encounter with African societies.
