Vincent Van Gogh Tsukasa Kōdera, 1990 This book analyzes the deeper meaning of recurring themes in van Gogh's oeuvre such as the sower the sun and the sunflower against the religious background of his time It traces the conflict between Christianity and nature that underlies the process of substitution of natural for Christian symbols which we find in van Gogh's oeuvre The author has made a careful inventory of the principal motifs in van Gogh's oeuvre and studied the ways in which these have been combined and manipulated By this method it can be demonstrated not only that initially van Gogh uses explicitly Christian motifs such as the church spire but also that their function is later taken over by motifs from nature like the sun and the starry night K dera discusses the meaning of these symbols and quotes extensively from contemporary material and from van Gogh s letters to show how this process of naturalization was influenced by specific artistic sources such as French Naturalist novels and Japanese prints *French Paintings: A Catalogue of the Collection of The Metropolitan Museum of Art.
