Violette Nozire A Story Of Murder In 1930s Paris:

Violette Nozière Sarah C. Maza, 2011 Sarah Maza has written a vivid gripping and clear eyed account of the celebrated Violette Nozière case which captivated French society in the 1930s A bold and imaginative story Violette Nozière opens an unexpected and revealing window onto interwar Parisian life Colin Jones author of Paris Biography of a City Sarah Maza's absorbing new book on Violette Nozière flapper fantasist and perpetrator of one of the most sordid and sensational French homicides of the 1930s is a scholarly true crime tale of the most intelligent sort Why might a seemingly respectable little mademoiselle from a nice bourgeois family want to poison her maman et papa at the breakfast table Alongside her riveting account of the crime and its aftermath Maza investigates the various pathologies familial social economic cultural psychosexual that may have figured in the mayhem At her trial Nozière claimed among other things that her father had sexually abused her for years The result is both a fascinating case history Greek tragedy rewritten as seedy policier and a chilling glimpse into the less salubrious aspects of French lower middle class life between the wars Terry Castle author of The Professor One of those rare and sophisticated works that tells a gripping story while evoking a complex historical period There exist very few cultural histories of the interwar years Carolyn Dean author of Aversion and Erasure The Fate of the Victim after the Holocaust Sarah Maza's book tells an arresting story that deftly combines conventional social history with a subtle analysis of gender and culture Using all the arts of the best storytellers she is careful not to give too much away and it is only with time and a remarkable conclusion that we realize that Violette Nozière is no ordinary tale Ruth Harris author of Dreyfus Politics Emotion and the Scandal of the Century

Violette Nozière Sarah Maza, 2011-05-31 On an August evening in 1933 in a quiet working class neighborhood in Paris eighteen year old Violette Nozière gave her mother and father glasses of barbiturate laced medication which she told them had been prescribed by the family doctor one of her parents died the other barely survived Almost immediately Violette's act of double parricide became the most sensational private crime of the French interwar era discussed and debated so passionately that it was compared to the Dreyfus Affair Why would the beloved only child of respectable parents do such a thing To understand the motives behind this crime and the reasons for its extraordinary impact Sarah Maza delves into the abundant case records re-creating the daily existence of Parisians whose lives were touched by the affair This compulsively readable book brilliantly evokes the texture of life in 1930s Paris It also makes an important argument about French society and culture while proposing new understandings of crime and social class in the years before World War II

Morrison,Päivi Rantala,2023-07-12 Although historical research undertaken in different disciplines often requires speculation and imagination it remains relatively rare for scholars to foreground these processes explicitly as a knowing method Historical Research Creative Writing and the Past brings together researchers in a wide array of disciplines including literary studies and history ethnography design film and sound studies who employ imagination creativity or fiction in their own historical scholarship or who analyze the use of imagination creativity or fiction to make historical claims by others This volume is organized into four topical sections related to representations of the past textual and conceptual approaches material and emotional approaches speculative and experiential approaches and embodied methodologies and covers a variety of temporal periods and geographical contexts Reflecting on the methodological theoretical and ethical underpinnings of writing history creatively or speculatively the essays situate themselves within current debates over epistemology and interdisciplinarity They yield new insights into historical research methods including archival investigations and source criticisms while offering readers tangible examples of how to do history differently

Paris '44 Patrick Bishop, 2024-07-09 Celebrating the eightieth anniversary of the liberation of Paris a heart stopping countdown narrative recreating the liberation of Paris in 1944 one of the great hinge moments of WW2 The fall of Paris to the Nazis in June 1940 seemed like the darkest day of the Second World War and the liberation of the city in August 1944 felt like the brightest The liberation was a hinge moment of immense significance for the twentieth century heralding the final victory of light over darkness and opening the door to a future free from fear It was also the party of the century champagne flowed freely total strangers embraced it was a celebration of life renewed against the backdrop of the world's favourite city seen in by the likes of Ernest Hemingway Lee Miller JD Salinger Picasso and Robert Capa This happy ending has come to feel as if it was pre ordained But there was nothing inevitable about it Had things gone differently Paris might have gone down as a ghastly monument to Nazi nihilism reduced to a rubble strewn graveyard This book timed for the eightieth anniversary of the liberation of Paris tells the story of those iridescent days in a startling new way In a countdown narrative packed with drama heroism joy and heart thumping suspense the City of Lights fate hangs in the balance
