Visions Of John In Patmos:

The Visions of John in Patmos Edward Dennett, 1892 The Visions of John on Patmos Edward Dennett, 2017-10

There is a great difference carefully marked out in the Scriptures between the ministry of John and that of Paul and Peter. That of Paul as stated in Colossians 1 had a twofold character corresponding with the two headships of Christ namely that of the gospel which was preached in the whole creation under heaven flowing from Christ's preeminence in creation and that of the church the body of Christ as connected with Him as its head. The ministry of Peter on the other hand was confined to the circumcision. While he touches on the church as a spiritual house which was being built up of believers as living stones on Christ as the Living Stone he yet as guided by the Holy Spirit views believers in the character of pilgrims on their way with Christ risen as their living hope to an inheritance incorruptible and undefiled and that fadeth not away reserved in heaven for you who are kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation ready to be revealed in the last time 1 Peter 1:4-5. But John holds a different place. He does not enter into dispensations nor though once or twice stating the fact as in John 13:1 John 14:1-3 John 17:24 John 20:17 does he take the saint nor even the Lord Himself up to heaven. Jesus for him is a Divine Person the Word made flesh manifesting God and His Father eternal life come down to earth. In addition to this another kind of ministry was committed to him even if at the moment mysteriously by the Lord after His resurrection in the words addressed to Peter concerning John: If I will that he tarry till I come what is that to thee John 21:22. For there can scarcely be a question that the book of Revelation is the fulfillment of the mission for which he was thus designated. It may be said moreover that a closer examination reveals an intimate connection between the last two chapters of his gospel and the Apocalypse. In John 20 in addition to the setting forth of the assembly as gathered with Christ Himself in the midst there is the conversion of the Jewish remnant of a later day typified by Thomas who believed when he saw. See Zech 12:10-13. John 21 gives the gathering in of the nations in the millennium shown in figure by the disciples letting down their net on the right side of the ship at the command of the risen Christ and not being able to draw it for the multitude of fishes. There are therefore three epochs in these chapters that of the church that of the conversion of the Jewish remnant which will take place at the Lord's appearing and that of the ingathering of the nations after the kingdom has been established in power. The book of Revelation contains these three epochs presented in a special way after the vision of the Son of Man recorded in Revelation 1 together with the events in heaven and the judgments upon earth which are connected with and precede the appearing of Christ as the rightful Heir to take His power to make good in government all that God is as revealed in relation to the earth and to reign until all enemies are put under His feet. The eternal state in all its beauty and perfection closes the subject of the book that wondrous scene wherein God is all in all.

The Vision of S. John in Patmos, 1893 From Patmos to Paradise V. Antony J. Alaharasan, 2009

Many people avoid reading the Book of Revelation. It just seems too frightening. It is filled with blaring thunder, strange beasts, mayhem and death. Indeed, Revelation describes a brutal adversary.

that is in utter rebellion against the good and seduces many to turn from the truth and embrace the darkness But Fr Antony Alaharasan shows that the book is full of love hope mercy and spectacular insight into the wonders of heaven Indeed Fr Antony manages to convey a sense of the ecstasy that John was caught up in when he experienced the vision and gives us a hint of what God has in store for us who love him John the disciple whom Jesus loved authored the fourth Gospel two epistles and the Book of Revelation also known as the Apocalypse Because St John wrote Revelation from his exile on the island of Patmos Fr Antony visited Patmos to view first hand the cave where John was imprisoned and the magnificent monastery built ten centuries ago to honor of this great saint

Vision ,1889 John's Dreams of the Prophecy John Wolfe,2013-05-01 Approximately in the year 96 A D John of Patmos wrote the last portion of the Bible The Book of Revelation If this person was the Apostle John who was a Roman prisoner on the penal colony island of Patmos in the Aegean Sea or if he was another prisoner named John theologians are not in 100% agreement But this John received many visions and was told by Jesus that they foretold what will happen during the End Time and that he John must record these visions in a book so that all of mankind could read about the time when Christ will return to Earth Like John of Patmos who had received many visions John Wolfe between April 1996 and December 2012 has received 45 dreams of the End Times and like the John of ancient times he has been told to record these dreams and to share them with the world Three times he has been warned by the dreams that his time to share these visions is very short But unlike the dreams of John of Patmos which dealt specifically with The End Times or the Apocalypse his dreams confirm that God did indeed create the universe as well as the manner in which He accomplished it that The Church of the Holy Sepulcher is the correct location of the burial and resurrection Many dreams deal with UFO s and dream four may be difficult for many people to believe The return of Christ is spoken of several times throughout the book The correct Shroud of Christ is spoken of in dream six The possible location of the Ark of the Covenant is suggested in one dream and another dream is concerned with Pope John Paul II Jesus is instructing us in three dreams The words of Jesus are simple and profound Three dreams are what John calls confirmation dreams These are visions of everyday matters not related to The End Times but dreams that manifest themselves in reality enabling John to see whatever the dreams predict will actually transpire Several natural disasters and their locations are shown in many dreams These dreams are a warning of frightful times but also they confirm God did create the universe that Jesus is His son and will return to Earth soon but more specifically many things taught to us in the Bible are the absolute truth such as Genesis 1 1 The Book of Revelation Mark Matthew and Luke The Revelation of John Charles C.
