Appropriating Hobbes David Boucher, 2018-03-09 This book explores how Hobbes's political philosophy has occupied a pertinent place in different contexts and how his interpreters see their own images reflected in him or how they define themselves in contrast to him Appropriating Hobbes argues that there is no Hobbes independent of the interpretations that arise from his appropriation in these various contexts and which serve to present him to the world There is no one perfect context that enables us to get at what Hobbes really meant despite the numerous claims to the contrary He is almost indistinguishable from the context in which he is read This contention is justified with reference to hermeneutics and particularly the theories of Gadamer Koselleck and Ricoeur contending that through a process of distancing Hobbes's writings have been appropriated and commandeered to do service in divergent contexts such as philosophical idealism debates over the philosophical versus historical understanding of texts as well as in ideological disputations and emblematic characterisations of him by various disciplines such as law politics and international relations This volume illustrates the capacity of a text to take on the colouration of its surroundings by exploring and explicating the importance of contexts in reading and understanding how and why particular interpretations of Hobbes have emerged such as those of Carl Schmitt and Michael Oakeshott or the international jurists of the seventeenth eighteenth and nineteenth centuries

The Grand Critic of Ibn Khaldūn Elena Sahin,2024-12-23 Ibn al Azraq d 896 1491 was a renowned Andalusian jurist faq h and statesman who lived during the final period of the Nasrid emirate of Granada His most famous work Bad i al Silk f ab i al Mulk Unprecedented Lines about the Nature of Political Rule is a political treatise that builds upon Ibn Khald n s d 808 1406 social theory ilm al umr n In The grand critic of Ibn Khald n Elena ahin critically analyses the major aspects of Ibn al Azraq s political thought In this contribution on the field of the history of Islamic political thought Elena ahin demonstrates that while Ibn al Azraq integrates the thrust of Ibn Khald n s approach Ibn al Azraq s work should be regarded as part of a larger conversation amongst various scholars engaging for example with the Andalusian jurist al Sh ib s d 790 1388 theory of Maq id al Shar a Widening the analysis of Ibn al Azraq s work illuminates that Ibn al Azraq s political theory was in opposition to that of Ibn Khald n and thus gives us a better understanding of the dynamic debates within Andalusian political thought
