Africa in Contemporary Perspective Manuh, Takyiwaa, Sutherland-Addy, Esi, 2014-05-08 An important feature of Ghanaian tertiary education is the foundational African Studies Programme which was initiated in the early 1960s Unfortunately hardly any readers exist which bring together a body of knowledge on the themes issues and debates which inform and animate research and teaching in African Studies particularly on the African continent This becomes even more important when we consider the need for knowledge on Africa that is not Eurocentric or sensationalised but driven from internal understandings of life and prospects in Africa Dominant representations and perceptions of Africa usually depict a continent in crisis Rather than buying into external representations of Africa with its lacks and aspirations for Western modernities we insist that African scholars in particular should be in the forefront of promoting understanding of the pluri lingual overlapping and dense reality of life and developments on the continent to produce relevant and usable knowledge Continuing and renewed interest in Africa s resources including the land mass economy minerals visual arts and performance cultures as well as bio medical knowledge and products by old and new geopolitical players obliges African scholars to transcend disciplinary boundaries and to work with each other to advance knowledge and uses of those resources in the interests of Africa s people Encyclopedia of African History 3-Volume Set Kevin Shillington,2013-07-04 Covering the entire continent from Morocco Libya and Egypt in the north to the Cape of Good Hope in the south and the surrounding islands from Cape Verde in the west to Madagascar Mauritius and Seychelles in the east the Encyclopedia of African History is a new A Z reference resource on the history of the entire African continent With entries ranging from the earliest evolution of human beings in Africa to the beginning of the twenty first century this comprehensive three volume Encyclopedia is the first reference of this scale and scope Also includes 99 maps Irma Stern and the Racial Paradox of South African Modern Art LaNitra M. Berger,2020-11-12 South African artist Irma Stern 1894 1966 is one of the nation s most enigmatic modern figures Stern held conservative political positions on race even as her subjects openly challenged racism and later the apartheid regime Using paintings archival research and new interviews this book explores how Stern became South Africa s most prolific painter of Black Jewish and Colored mixed race life while maintaining controversial positions on race Through her art Stern played a crucial role in both the development of modernism in South Africa and in defining modernism as a global movement Spanning the Boer War to Nazi Germany to apartheid South Africa and into the contemporary RhodesMustFall movement Irma Stern s work documents important twentieth century cultural and political moments More than fifty years after her death Stern s legacy challenges assumptions about race gender roles and religious identity and how they are represented in art history Conquest and Construction Mark DeLancey,2016-06-21 In Conquest and Construction Mark Dike DeLancey investigates the palace architecture of northern Cameroon a region that was conquered in the early nineteenth century by primarily semi nomadic pastoralist Muslim Ful e forces and incorporated as the largest emirate of the Sokoto Caliphate Palace architecture is considered first and foremost as political in nature and therefore as responding not only to the needs and expectations of the conquerors but also to those of the largely sedentary agricultural non Muslim conquered peoples who constituted the majority population In the process of reconciling the cultures of these various constituents new architectural forms and local identities were constructed History of World Dress and Fashion, Second Edition Daniel Delis Hill,2022-01-13 The History of World Dress and Fashion presents a comprehensive survey of dress from around the world including China Japan India Africa the Islamic Empire and the Ancient Americas This extensive study features descriptions and analysis of men s women s and children s clothing accessories and cultural styles from prehistory into the twenty first century Lavishly illustrated in color throughout it features more than 1600 images and is a valuable resource for fashion designers theater costumers textile researchers costume collectors and curators and anyone interest in clothing and style customs of the world Encyclopedia of African History Kevin Shillington,2005 Offers more than one thousand entries covering all aspects of African history civilization and culture Nourishing Life Arianna Huhn,2020-09-10 In this accessible ethnography of a small town in northern Mozambique everyday cultural knowledge and behaviors about food cooking and eating reveal the deeply human pursuit of a nourishing life This emerges less through the consumption of specific nutrients than it does in the affective experience of alimentation in contexts that support vitality compassion and generative relations Embedded within central themes in the study of Africa south of the Sahara the volume combines insights from philosophy and food studies to find textured layers of meaning in a seemingly simple cuisine Traditional African Art Avner Shkarov,Lyubov Senatorova,2015-07-06 The art of sub Saharan Africa reveals the marvelous achievements of unknown artists over thousands of years Their aesthetic ideal finds form in wood ivory fabric bronze and iron This illustrated study of traditional African art includes pieces from Western Sudan the Congolese Basin the Guinea coast Gabon the Democratic Republic of Congo and East and South Africa Each piece is characterized by its own traditions and artistic forms The earliest works date from the beginning of the first millennium the most recent from the early 20th century Unique and rare examples are documented many heretofore virtually unknown The Berg Companion to Fashion Valerie Steele,2015-08-01 An essential reference for students curators and scholars of fashion cultural studies and the expanding range of disciplines that see fashion as imbued with meaning far beyond the material Over 300 in depth entries covering designers articles of clothing key concepts and styles Edited and introduced by Valerie Steele a scholar who has revolutionized the study of fashion and who has been described by The Washington Post as one of fashion s brainiest women Derided by some as frivolous even dangerous and celebrated by others as art fashion is anything but a neutral topic Behind the hype and the glamour is an industry that affects all cultures of the world A potent force in the global economy fashion is also highly influential in everyday lives even amongst those who may feel impervious This handy volume is a one stop reference for anyone interested in fashion its meaning history and theory From Avedon to Codpiece Dandyism to the G String Japanese Fashion to Subcultures Trickle down to Zoot Suit The Berg Companion to Fashion provides a comprehensive overview of this most fascinating of topics and will serve as the benchmark guide to the subject for many years to come
