Women Violence And Social Change:

Women, Violence and Social Change R. Emerson Dobash, Russell P. Dobash, 2003-12-16 Women Violence and Social Change demonstrates how refuges and shelters stand as the core of the battered women's movement providing a basis for pragmatic support political action and radical renewal From this base movements in Britain and the United States have challenged the police courts and social services to provide greater assistance to women The book provides important evidence on the way social movements can successfully challenge institutions of the State as well as salutatory lessons on the nature of diverted and thwarted struggle Throughout the book the Dobashes years of researching violence against women is illustrated in the depth of their analysis They maintain the tradition established in their first book Violence Against Wives which was widely acclaimed Social Change, Gender and Violence Vesna Nikolic-Ristanovic, 2002-07-31 Social Change Gender and Violence explores the impact of transition from communism and war on the everyday life of women and men as well as the ways in which everyday life and gender related changes affect women's vulnerability to domestic violence and trafficking in women The book also explores the impact of micro level changes on the development of civil society women's movement and legal and policy changes regarding violence against women BOOK JACKET Gender, Violence and the Social Order J. Mooney, 2000-09-05 This is an exciting and innovative book which provides a thorough introduction to contemporary social theory by examining the way in which the widespread existence of violence against women is explored A wide range of theories from liberalism to evolutionary psychology are considered culminating in the development of a distinctive feminist realist position The theories discussed are tested against a large scale survey the findings of which challenge many conventional wisdoms as to the patterning of violence in contemporary society Rethinking Violence Against Women R. Emerson Dobash, Harry Frank Guggenheim Foundation, 1998-09-11 Based on a series of international workshops sponsored by the Harry Frank Guggenheim Foundations this cutting edge volume advances theories methodologies and policy analyses relating to various forms of violence against women Under the skillful editorship of Rebecca Emerson and Russell P Dobash Rethinking Violence Against Women is the joint effort of recognized anthropologists psychologists philosophers sociologists and historians in the field Divided in three parts this text takes a comprehensive examination of the following topics Gender, Violence, and Justice Pamela Cooper-White, 2019-03-20 Gender Violence and Justice is a volume of collected essays by an expert in the field of violence against women and pastoral theology It represents over three decades of research advocacy and pastoral theological reflection on the subject of sexual and domestic violence Topics include intimate partner violence sexual abuse and trauma and clergy sexual misconduct controversial theological issues such as forgiveness and as well positive frameworks for fostering well being in families church and society Framed by a foreword and an introduction that place this work in the context of new and contemporary challenges in theory and practice these essays show an evolution of issues and frameworks for theology care and activism arising over time from the movement to end violence against women both within and beyond religious communities while at the same time demonstrating an unchanging core commitment to gender justice

The Social Science Encyclopedia Adam Kuper, Jessica Kuper, 2004-10-14 The Social Science Encyclopedia first published in 1985 to acclaim from social scientists librarians and students was thoroughly revised in 1996 when reviewers began to describe it as a classic This third edition has been radically recast Over half the entries are new or have been entirely rewritten and most of the balance have been substantially revised Written by an international team of contributors the Encyclopedia offers a global perspective on key issues within the social sciences Some 500 entries cover a variety of enduring and newly vital areas of study and research methods Experts review theoretical debates from neo evolutionism and rational choice theory to poststructuralism and address the great questions that cut across the social sciences What is the influence of genes on behaviour What is the nature of consciousness and cognition What are the causes of poverty and wealth What are the roots of conflict wars revolutions and genocidal violence This authoritative reference work is aimed at anyone with a serious interest in contemporary academic thinking about the individual in society

Gender, Violence and the State in Asia Amy Barrow,Joy L. Chia,2016-07-01 While gender based violence occurs in all societies irrespective of the level of development or cultural setting whether in conflict or peacetime the challenges for legal responses to gender based violence are particularly acute in Asia This book addresses the lack of academic discourse on gender based violence in Asia beyond domestic violence by demonstrating that gendered violence exists within many different contexts and is perpetuated by multiple actors Bringing together scholars legal practitioners and human rights advocates the book examines the intersections between gender violence and the state in Asian contexts It considers the role of state institutions in perpetuating and preventing violence based on gender and identity and thus contributes to growing scholarship around due diligence standards under international law Analyzing both physical and structural gender based violence it scrutinizes how such violence exists within a landscape shaped by distinct cultural norms laws and policies and grapples with how to practically translate international human rights standards about state responsibility into these complex domestic environments Contributors from diverse backgrounds draw on case studies and empirical research to ground this academic scholarship in lived experiences of individuals and their communities in Asia By bridging the divide between policy laws and practice to offer a unique insight into both theoretical and practical responses to how gender based violence is understood within communities and state institutions in Asian countries this book will appeal to students and scholars of Asian studies Gender Studies and Law

Domestic Violence Perpetrators John Devaney, Anne Lazenbatt, 2016-07-15 Domestic violence is a serious widespread public social and health problem that affects the lives of many women children and men There is also evidence to suggest it has one of the highest rates of recidivism This comprehensive book provides an overview of what the research tells us about the perpetrators of domestic violence and what works and what doesn't in promoting positive change Collecting together the most up to date evidence from the international literature and bringing psychological sociological gendered and socio political theoretical perspectives to bear on the issue the authors explore what domestic violence is why it happens and how it can be measured who the perpetrators of domestic violence are including discussion of non stereotypical patterns such as male victims female perpetrators couples where the abuse is mutual and couples with abusive relationships who want the abuse to end but the relationship to be sustained strategies for engaging perpetrators in interventions and for promoting behaviour change evidence informed interventions programmes and policies for working with perpetrators where robust evidence is lacking and more research needs to be undertaken Domestic violence is a significant problem for those individuals and families whose life is affected by this issue the social health and criminal justice agencies that respond to it and wider society which must bear the costs and its devastating effects This volume is an important reference for all those researching and working with the victims survivors and perpetrators of domestic violence including academics and students from fields such as social work sociology criminology psychology and social policy Violence in American Schools Delbert S. Elliott, Beatrix A. Hamburg, Kirk R. Williams, 1998-10-13 This volume offers a strategy for the problem of youth violence
