The Unforgotten Women of the Islamic State Gina Vale,2024-09-11 The Unforgotten Women of the Islamic State explores the governance of the Islamic State IS terrorist organization through the lives and words of local Iraqi Syrian and Kurdish women While the roles and activities of foreign predominantly Western pro IS women have garnered significant attention the experiences and insights of local civilian populations have been largely overlooked Drawing on the testimonies of 63 local Sunni Muslim and Yazidi women Gina Vale exposes the group s intra gender stratified system of governance Eligibility for the group s protection security citizenship and entrance into the semi public sphere were not universal but required convergence with the gender norms of IS through permanent erasure or at least temporary disguise of certain markers of difference In some cases this was directed by a pre meditated divide and conquer strategy while in others it manifested as unregulated violences at the hands of individual group members including women The structure follows the trajectory of IS s increasing control over its citizens and captive populations its militarization of society imposition of law and order provision of goods and services and intervention in civilians private lives Analysis of diverse first hand accounts and the group s documentation reveals that the presence exclusion and victimization of local civilian women were necessary to the functioning and legitimation of IS s caliphate project and the supremacy of affiliated men and women As a fledgling proto state IS needed local Iraqi Syrian and Kurdish women Though far from represented or protected they were by no means forgotten

Gender and Peacebuilding Claire Duncanson, 2016-05-27 Gender and Peacebuilding offers a comprehensive and up to date analysis of how and why gender matters in contemporary peace operations It draws on a wide range of examples from across the world to offer a nuanced account of the UN's attempts to mainstream gender into peace operations via Security Council Resolution 1325 and assesses the successes and failures of this effort to enhance the participation and protection of women and girls in peacebuilding operations In presenting this mixed picture of progress and ongoing challenges the book argues for bold steps forward that will enable peacebuilding to contest the current neoliberal order address structural inequalities and bring about feminist visions of peace and security It is only by focusing attention on the economic empowerment of women and its ability to temper the dangers of neo liberalism in post conflict contexts that feminists can hope to achieve these aims Timely critical and engaged this book provides an invaluable guide to the issues for students of peace and conflict studies and sets the agenda for future scholarship and advocacy

Post-Conflict Reconstruction Neil Ferguson, 2010-10-12 Violence and conflict are two of the greatest challenges the world will face in this millennium Indeed since the turn of the century it is estimated that approximately four million people have died as a result of armed conflict Ending these seemingly intractable conflicts is a priority for global stability However the signing of the peace accord or the ending of formal hostilities does not automatically bring a return to normality in these fractured societies In practice it is more likely that these fractured societies will face a period in the twilight between war and peace a time when the world turns its attention to new problems and seemingly more pressing matters leaving the country to struggle towards peace and a new social order The book's contributors deal with the challenges faced in creating the foundations for the development of a positive peace from a variety of multi disciplinary perspectives such as development studies politics psychoanalysis psychology sports studies and neuroscience This breadth of perspectives offers innovative insights into the grey space between war and peace which is home to millions of people across the globe and explores interventions which aim

Communication in Peace, Conflict in Communication Tuğrul İltır,2008 Peace and Conflict are commonly understood as polar opposites In a polarised opposition there is no place for conflict in peace and peace the privileged term of the binary opposition needs to be pure and homogeneous cleansed of any unlicensed differences and contradictions Yet a radically plural and democratic politic must harbour conflicting and antagonistic views of things opposition is internal to it and its view of freedom says that freedom is always the freedom of those who think differently In contrast the ideal of a homogeneous self same indivisibly unified society is totalitarian and repressive of the very differences that make a society any society possible The organizers of the 2nd International Conference on Communication and Media Studies at Eastern Mediterranean University 24 May 2007 thought that a deconstructive and feminist framework that destabilises the entrenched certain ties of polar oppositions and an ethical response to the irreducible otherness of the other as well as to one's own alterity would be very appropriate and relevant in our times for rethinking these issues and relied on that framework in formulating the theme of the conference as Communication in Peace Conflict in Communication to emphasise the interrelationship of the two parts separated by the slash as well as the formulation of the subtopics that were listed in the call for papers This volume includes work from around the world that responded to that call Books In Print 2004-2005 Ed Bowker Staff,Staff Bowker, Ed,2004 Yearbook of International Organizations 2014-2015 (Volume 4) Union Of International Associations,Union of International Associations,2014-09-17 The Yearbook of International Organizations provides the most extensive coverage of non profit international organizations currently available Detailed profiles of international non governmental and intergovernmental organizations IGO collected and documented by the Union of International Associations can be found here In addition to the history aims and activities of international organizations with their events publications and contact details the volumes of the Yearbook include networks between associations biographies of key people involved and extensive statistical data Providing both an international organizations and research bibliography Volume 4 cites over 46 000 publications and information resources supplied by international organizations and provides nearly 18 000 research citations under 40 subject headings This volume also includes a research bibliography on international organizations and transnational associations Women East-west ,2002 The Middle East & South Asia Folklore Bulletin ,2004
